His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

JOHN WATKINS, M.P.,
Minister for Corrective Services

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to amend:

- (a) the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Administration) Regulation 1995, and
- (b) the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Periodic Detention, Home Detention, Community Service Work and Parole) Regulation 1995, and
- (c) the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Routine) Regulation 1995, as a consequence of the enactment of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Act 2000, and for other reasons, as explained below.

Schedules 1 [1]–[3] and 3 [1] to this Regulation omit a number of provisions from the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Administration) Regulation 1995 and the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Routine) Regulation 1995 relating to the operation of the Corrections Health Service. Provisions to the same effect are now contained in the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999.

Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Amendment Regulation 2001

Explanatory note

Schedule 1 [5] to this Regulation prescribes the Compensation Court of New South Wales and the Administrative Decisions Tribunal as bodies that may require an inmate to be brought before them.

Schedules 1 [4] and 3 [2] to this Regulation insert new provisions into the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Administration) Regulation 1995 and the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Routine) Regulation 1995 to provide that:

- (a) a correctional officer may be required to submit the officer's motor vehicle to a search if the vehicle is within a correctional centre or correctional complex, and
- (b) a visitor to a correctional centre or correctional complex may be required to submit the visitor's motor vehicle to a search if the vehicle is within a correctional centre or correctional complex.

Schedule 2 to this Regulation amends the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Periodic Detention, Home Detention, Community Service Work and Parole) Regulation 1995:

- (a) to prescribe the method of supervision of offenders who have been released by the Parole Board under section 165 (3) (b) of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) Act 1999 pending a decision by the Board whether or not to make a home detention order, and
- (b) to prescribe the form of withdrawal of consent by a co-resident to the continued operation of a home detention order.

Schedule 3 [3], [4] and [6] to this Regulation amend clauses 168 and 175 of the Crimes (Administration of Sentences) (Correctional Centre Routine) Regulation 1995 to create new offences, namely:

- (a) the offence of failing a urine test (for drugs) (clause 168 (1) (d)), and

SUPREME COURT ACT

PRACTICE NOTE No 118

MEDIATION

Referrals generally

1. Part 7B of the Supreme Court Act has been amended to permit the Court at any stage of the proceedings by order to refer parties to mediation where, in the opinion of the Court, mediation appears appropriate.
2. It is not the intention of the Court that mediation will be ordered in all proceedings. In considering whether proceedings are appropriate for mediation the Court may, as set out in paragraph 3(b) below, refer them to a registrar to discuss with the parties the advantages and appropriateness of mediation.
3. By its own motion or on the motion of a party or on referral by a registrar the Court may, after hearing the parties:
 - a) notwithstanding that the parties, or any of them, do not consent to mediation, make an order pursuant to s110K and appoint a mediator, being a person agreed upon by the parties or, failing that, a person nominated by the Court;
 - b) refer the proceedings to a registrar who is on the Chief Justice's list of mediators to meet with the parties to discuss mediation and report back to the Court with, if appropriate, a recommendation as to whether the proceedings are suitable for mediation; or
 - c) refuse to order mediation.
4. The parties themselves may, at any time, agree to mediation, nominate a mediator and request the Court to make appropriate orders.
5. Parties are required to inform the Court of the outcome of mediation ordered pursuant to s110K of the Supreme Court Act.

Referral to a registrar

6. Where the Court refers proceedings to a registrar the parties will be notified by the registrar of the time and place for an information session. It is anticipated that the information session will take no more than 15 to 30 minutes. Parties as well as their representatives must attend the session.
7. At the conclusion of the information session and if the parties agree to mediation the registrar will make the necessary orders. If the mediator is to be a registrar, directions may be given for the filing and serving of position statements and any documents, reports, valuations etc which will assist the parties and the mediator. A direction will generally require all parties to the mediation to exchange relevant material not less than seven days before the mediation.

8. Where the parties do not agree to mediation or to a mediator, the registrar will report to the Court the outcome of the information session with his or her recommendation.

Proceedings case-managed by registrars

9. A registrar may, at his or her discretion, refer proceedings which, in the opinion of the registrar, are suitable for mediation, to the Court notwithstanding that the parties, or any one of them, do not consent to mediation.

SUPREME COURT

PRACTICE NOTE No 117

CORPORATIONS LIST PRACTICE NOTE

THE purpose of this practice note is to explain the operations of the Corporations List.

Proceedings and interlocutory applications that arise out of the Corporations Law or seek relief under that legislation ('Corporations Law matters') are usually dealt with in the Corporations List. Matters relating to other incorporated bodies such as co-operatives and incorporated associations may also be dealt with in this List.

Corporations Law matters to be dealt with by a judge may be made returnable before the Corporations List judge on any Monday during term. At the present time the judicial work of the Corporations List is shared principally by the judge in charge of the List along with a second judge designated for that purpose. They are assisted where necessary by the Equity Division judge assigned to the Probate List (also a Monday list) with further access to other judges in the Equity Division if need be.

A party who seeks an abridgment of service for originating or interlocutory process in a Corporations Law matter may approach the Corporations List judge directly on a Monday during court hours, without notice. The Equity Division duty judge is able to deal with Corporations Law matters at times between Mondays, with facility to place the matter for further direction in the Monday list.

The parties should expect that if a matter has been placed in the Corporations List for a particular Monday, the hearing will ordinarily proceed on the appointed day. They should prepare accordingly. Where this would assist the Corporations List judge, brief skeleton submissions should be sent in advance if practicable. Commercial circumstances normally demand that Corporations Law matters be heard and resolved swiftly. While the demands of the List cannot be fully anticipated, experience shows that short Corporations Law matters (of up to two hours hearing time) can usually be dealt with on the appointed day.

Longer Corporations Law matters are 'managed' within the Corporations List in preparation for hearing. Depending on the subject matter and the degree of urgency involved, and the availability of judges, the matter may be set down before one of the usual Corporations List judges for hearing or before another judge of the Equity Division. Otherwise the matter may be allocated as appropriate to the Expedition List, the Duty List, the Short Matters List or the General List, drawing on the expertise of the whole Equity Division including judges from the Commercial List. The Court has video conferencing facilities for Corporations Law matters involving interstate or overseas elements.

Routine insolvency proceedings and applications are dealt with by the Registrar. Examinations under Part 5.9 of the Corporations Law are heard before a Deputy Registrar. Available dates are posted on the Supreme Court website (www.lawlink.nsw.gov.au/sc).

Applications are listed before the Registrar each day, except Wednesday, at 11 a.m. in the Registrar's Corporations List. Orders sought include the winding up of corporations, the appointment of a receiver or provisional liquidator, the release of liquidator and dissolution of a corporation, and the determination of a liquidator's remuneration. Final orders for winding up a corporation, setting aside a winding up order or reinstating a corporation are prepared by the Registry and are sent out in the DX later on the day of hearing.

At the commencement of the list the Registrar deals with referrals to the Corporations List judge, the duty judge or a Master. The Registrar may refer matters to the Corporations List judge for case management. Matters are referred by the Registrar to the Corporations List judge each Monday and on other days, except Wednesday, to the duty judge.

Certain short matters (such as applications to set aside statutory demands, where any cross-examination is generally curtailed) are usually referred to a Master. Referrals to the Master take place each day except Wednesday. The Master endeavours to determine the referrals on the day of referral. However, if the matter is estimated to take more than two days it is specially fixed for the earliest available date. Depending on the Master's workload, matters may be referred to the Corporations List judge on the following Monday.

The powers of the Master and the Registrar are to be found in Schedules D and E respectively to the Supreme Court Rules.
