SPECIAL CONDITIONS AND RESERVATIONS
ATTACHED TO WESTERNLANDS LEASE 11340

1. The lessee shall take any measures directed by the Commissioner to rectify or ameliorate any on or off site natural resource degradation associated with land use on the lease. The Commissioner's directions will only require the lessee's rectification to be commensurate with the lessee's contribution to the degradation issue(s) in question.
2. The lessee shall ensure that all access tracks to the area to be cultivated must be arranged in such a manner as to minimise the disturbance of any land surface or native vegetation and ensure direct access through the area.
3. Should any Aboriginal archaeological relics or sites be uncovered during the proposed works, the lessee is to cease work immediately. The lessee must consider the requirements of the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974, with regard to Aboriginal relics. 9. Appropriate pasture species shall be sown at the completion of the cropping phase to maintain soil fertility and pastoral productivity. Pastures may be undersown with the final crop, or alternatively sown in the first suitable year following the last crop of the cropping phase. 11. The lessee shall maintain records of cultivation dates and methods; of crop or pasture sowings; of the success or failure and yield (where relevant) of each sowing attempt and of fertiliser or agricultural chemicals used. These records are to be made available to the Commissioner or his delegate upon request and the Commissioner may retain information from such records.
12. The change of purpose of this lease from "Grazing" to "Grazing and Cultivation" does not confer any greater right to the exclusive occupation of the land than was conferred by the original grant of the lease for "Grazing".
13. Dryland or rainfed cultivation and crop production is authorised on the areas shown hatched on the diagram below.
14. Cultivation in conjunction with irrigation is authorised on the area shown cross-hatched on the diagram below providing water access requirements, which may vary from time to time, are complied with.

ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING AND ASSESSMENT ACT 1979BANKSTOWN LOCAL ENVIRONMENTAL PLAN NO. 209
HERITAGE CONSERVATION

I, the Minister for Urban Affairs and Planning, in pursuance of Section 70 of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979, make the Local Environmental Plan set out hereunder (P98/00415/S69).

ANDREW REFSHAUGE MP

Sydney, 28 February 2001

PART 1 – PRELIMINARYCITATION

1. This plan may be cited as Bankstown Local Environmental Plan No. 209 – Heritage Conservation.

AIM IN RELATION TO HERITAGE CONSERVATION

2. The general aim of this plan is to establish the heritage conservation framework for future development within the City of Bankstown.

OBJECTIVES OF THIS PLAN

3. The Council must not grant consent to the carrying out of development related to heritage items unless it considers the proposal is consistent with the following aims and objectives:-
 - (a) to conserve the environmental heritage of the land to which this plan applies; and
 - (b) to integrate heritage conservation into the planning and development control processes; and
 - (c) where appropriate, to require the investigation and recording of sites which have archaeological potential; and
 - (d) to provide for public involvement in matters relating to the conservation of environmental heritage; and

- (e) to ensure that any development is undertaken in a manner that is sympathetic to, and does not detract from, the heritage significance of the heritage items and both their curtilage and setting; and
- (f) to require, when considered necessary, the consideration of a statement of heritage impact or a conservation management plan before consent is granted for development relating to a heritage item; and
- (g) to ensure the sympathetic use of sites containing buildings or facades of historic or streetscape importance which contribute to the character of the locality.

LAND TO WHICH THIS PLAN APPLIES

4. This plan applies to all land in the City of Bankstown.

RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER ENVIRONMENTAL PLANNING INSTRUMENTS

5. Any provisions of an environmental planning instrument (other than a State environmental planning policy or a regional environmental plan) that, immediately before the commencement of this plan, applied to or in respect of any land to which this plan applies but only because it was a heritage item, within the meaning of that instrument, do not apply to or in respect of that land.

DEFINITIONS

6. In this plan:-

“Aboriginal cultural heritage significance” means cultural significance to indigenous inhabitants of NSW and can apply to any item, site, place, area or object.

“Aboriginal places” means natural sacred sites. They include natural features such as creeks or mountains of cultural significance, as well as initiation, ceremonial or story places, or areas of more contemporary cultural significance such as Aboriginal Missions and post-contact sites.

“Aboriginal sites” means any place which has the physical remains of pre-historic occupation, or is of contemporary significance to the Aboriginal people. A site can include items and remnants of the occupation of the land by Aboriginal people such as burial places, engraving sites, rock art, midden deposits, scarred and carved trees, and sharpening grooves.

“adaptation” means modifying a place to suit proposed compatible uses in such a way that it retains its heritage significance;

“alter”, in relation to a heritage item or relic, means;

- (a) make structural or non-structural changes to the outside of the heritage item or relic, such as changes to the detail, fabric, finish or appearance of the outside of the heritage item or relic, but not changes that maintain the existing detail, fabric, finish or appearance of the outside of the heritage item or relic; or
- (b) make structural or non-structural changes to the interior of the heritage item or relic, except changes to floor covering, the painting of previously painted surfaces, and erection of office partitioning which does not damage original fabric;

“archaeological site” means a site identified as such in Schedule 1 and shown in the heritage conservation map. It includes sites known to the consent authority to be an archaeological site, even if it is not so identified and shown;

“compatible use” means a use which involves no change to culturally significant fabric which is substantially reversible, or which has a minimal environmental impact;

“conservation” means all the processes of looking after a place so as to retain its cultural significance. It includes maintenance and may according to circumstance include preservation, restoration, reconstruction and adaptation and will be commonly a combination of more than one of these. It may involve a similar use to the original or a significant use of the building or site concerned and will result in no change to culturally significant fabric. It includes changes which are substantially reversible or changes which involve minimal environmental impact;

“conservation management plan” means a document prepared in accordance with the provisions of the NSW Heritage Manual. It should establish the heritage significance of a heritage item, and should identify conservation policies and management mechanisms that are appropriate to enable that significance to be retained;

“Council” means the Council of the City of Bankstown;

“cultural significance” means aesthetic, historic, scientific or social value for past, present or future generations;

“curtilage” of a heritage item means that area around the item which is required to maintain its heritage significance. It is not limited to the setting or the property boundaries of the site;

“demolish” a heritage item means to wholly or partly destroy or dismantle the heritage item;

“fabric” means all the physical material of a building or place;

“heritage conservation map”, means the series of maps marked “Bankstown Local Environmental Plan No 209 – Heritage Conservation,” as amended by the maps (or, if any sheets of maps are specified, by the specified sheets of maps) marked as follows:

“heritage item” means a building, part of a building, work, relic, place, archaeological site, tree or landscape or townscape item which is described in Schedule 1, (including the site of any such building or work) and shown on the heritage conservation map;

“heritage significance” means historic, scientific, cultural, social, archaeological, architectural, natural or aesthetic significance;

“in the vicinity” of a heritage item means in the local area of, (for example, behind, around or within view of) the item or at a place from which the item can be viewed. It is to be considered excluding the screening effect of current trees or temporary structures;

“maintenance” means the ongoing protective care of the existing fabric, finish, appearance or setting of a heritage item. It does not include alterations or the introduction of new materials or technology, for example, injectable damp proof courses or roof treatments;

“plan of management”, in relation to a heritage item, means a document detailing a schedule of works, according with accepted conservation assessment procedures and techniques, aimed at restoring or maintaining the item;

“potential archaeological site” means a site known to the consent authority to have archaeological potential;

“potential heritage item” means a site identified as such in a register kept by the Council and can include a site known to the consent authority to have heritage potential, even if it is not so identified;

“preservation” means maintaining the fabric of a place in its existing state and retarding deterioration;

“reconstruction” means returning a place as nearly as possible to a known earlier state and is distinguished by the introduction of materials (new or old) into the fabric;

“relic” means any deposit, object or material evidence (which may consist of human remains), relating to the use or settlement of the area of the City of Bankstown, which is 50 or more years old;

“restoration” means returning the existing fabric of a place to a known earlier state by removing accretions or by reassembling existing components without the introduction of new material;

“setting” of a heritage item means what you see when looking at or from the heritage item, which changes as you move around the item. It may vary from the surrounding garden and field of a country house to the pavement, landscape, streetscape, backdrop and visual catchment of an urban building;

“statement of heritage impact” for a heritage item is a statement identifying the significance of the heritage item and assessing and justifying the impact that proposed development will have on the significance of the heritage item, including its curtilage and setting. A statement of heritage impact is to be prepared with reference to a conservation management plan or a conservation policy, where such documents have been previously prepared;

“the Act” means the Environmental Planning and Assessment Act 1979.

CONSENT AUTHORITY

7. The Council is the consent authority for the purposes of this plan, subject to the Act.

PART 2 – CONSERVATION OF HERITAGE ITEMS

HERITAGE ITEMS

8. (1) A person must not, in respect of a heritage item, do any of the following except with the consent of the consent authority:
 - (a) demolish, deface, damage, despoil or move the heritage item; or
 - (b) alter the heritage item; or
 - (c) move a relic or excavate land for the purpose of discovering, exposing or moving a relic; or
 - (d) erect a building on, or subdivide, land on which the heritage item or relic is situated, or that comprises the heritage item or relic; or
 - (e) damage or despoil any tree or land on which the heritage item or relic is situated, or that comprises the heritage item or relic; or
 - (f) alter the interior of the building or work; or
 - (g) use the heritage item for a purpose that is different from its current use.
- (2) Nothing in this clause operates so as to require consent, on land to which this clause applies, for development that is referred to in Schedule 2, provided that the consent authority is satisfied that the development is of a minor nature and does not have an adverse impact on the heritage significance of the heritage item.
- (3) The consent authority shall not grant consent to a development application required by subclause (1) that relates to a heritage item unless it has taken into consideration the extent to which the carrying out of the proposed development would affect the heritage significance of the item.
- (4) Where a development application is required by this clause, the consent authority may decline to grant consent until it has considered a statement of heritage impact or a conservation management plan so as to enable the consent authority to fully consider the heritage significance of the item and the impact of the proposed development on the significance of the item, including its interior, curtilage and setting. The statement of heritage impact or conservation management plan is to be prepared by a suitably trained heritage professional according to the guidelines nominated by the consent authority.

DEVELOPMENT, IN THE VICINITY OF HERITAGE ITEMS, ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES OR POTENTIAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES

9. The consent authority must take into consideration the likely effect of the proposed development on a heritage item, archaeological site or potential archaeological site, and on its setting, when determining an application for consent to carry out development of land in its vicinity.

HERITAGE ADVERTISEMENTS AND NOTIFICATIONS

10. The following development is advertised development for the purposes of the Act:
 - (a) the complete or substantial demolition of a heritage item; or
 - (b) the complete or substantial demolition of any significant feature of a heritage item; or
 - (c) the carrying out of any development allowed by clause 12.

NOTIFICATION OF DEMOLITION TO HERITAGE COUNCIL

11. Any application for demolition, defacing or damaging of a heritage item of State significance must be notified to the Heritage Council and any comments received within 28 days of being so notified must be taken into account in the determination of the application.

HERITAGE CONSERVATION INCENTIVES

12. Notwithstanding any other provision within the Bankstown Planning Scheme Ordinance, consent may be granted for development on land on which there is located a heritage item or a potential heritage item provided the consent authority is satisfied that:
 - (a) the proposed development would not adversely affect the amenity of the surrounding area; and

- (b) the proposed development is in accordance with a conservation management plan which has been endorsed by the consent authority; and
- (c) the granting of consent to the proposed development would ensure that all necessary conservation work identified in the conservation management plan is carried out.

DEVELOPMENT OF KNOWN OR POTENTIAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL SITES

13. (1) The consent authority may grant consent to the carrying out of development on an archaeological site which has Aboriginal cultural heritage significance or a potential archaeological site that is reasonably likely to have Aboriginal cultural heritage significance only if:
- (a) it has considered a statement of heritage impact of how the proposed development would affect the conservation of the site and any relic known or reasonably likely to be located at the site; and
 - (b) it has notified the Director-General of National Parks and Wildlife of its intention to do so and taken into consideration any comments received from that Director-General within 28 days of the notice being sent; and
 - (c) it is satisfied that any necessary consent or permission under the National Parks and Wildlife Act 1974 has been granted.
- (2) The consent authority may grant consent to the carrying out of development on any other archaeological site or a potential archaeological site only if:
- (a) it has considered a statement of heritage impact of how the proposed development would affect the conservation of the site and any relic known or reasonably likely to be located at the site; and
 - (b) it has notified the Heritage Council of its intention to do so and taken into consideration any comments received from the Heritage Council within 28 days of the notice being sent.
- (3) Subclause (2) does not apply if the proposed development does not involve disturbance of below-ground deposits and the consent authority is of the opinion that the heritage significance of any above-ground deposits would not be adversely affected by the proposed development.

CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 15

PROPOSED CY-PRESS SCHEME RELATING TO THE
AUSTRALIAN SOCIETY FOR THE NEEDY AND POOR

IN August 1999, a number of other people undertook various fundraising events to raise money to meet the cost of open heart surgery for Krishant Sharma, a nine month old baby from Fiji. A total of $17,262.85 was raised and the operation, performed by the Children's Hospital at Westmead, cost $13,275.20, leaving a surplus of $3,605.08, which is currently held in an account in the name of the Society.

Medical reports have been received from the Fijian medical practitioners who manage Krishant Sharma's ongoing care confirming that he suffers ongoing health problems. A report from the Children's Hospital at Westmead also states that Krishant may suffer long term lung damage and other associated problems arising from the condition of Down's Syndrome which he also suffers.

The funds held by the Australian Society for the Needy and Poor can no longer be used for their original purpose and may therefore be applied cy-pres to another similar purpose under the Charitable Trusts Act 1993. As the funds were originally raised in order to pay for Krishant Sharma's operation costs, the use of the balance of the funds to pay for his ongoing medical expenses is consistent with the original charitable purpose.

The Solicitor General, under delegation from the Attorney General in and for the State of New South Wales, has formed the view that it is appropriate for a cy-pres scheme to be ordered pursuant to section 12(1)(a) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 to apply the funds to Krishant Sharma's ongoing medical needs.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme.

A copy of the proposed scheme may be inspected, by appointment, during business hours at Level 9, Goodsell Building, 8-12 Chifley Square, Sydney. Please telephone (02) 9228 8102 for an appointment.

DISTRICT COURT

Practice Note 58

Improvements to the early return of subpoena system in the Civil Jurisdiction

THE objective of the Court since the introduction of Practice Note 33 has been to hear 90% of civil actions within 12 months of commencement, and the remainder within two years of commencement.

The issuing of subpoena and inspecting of documents is vital to the early preparation of cases by the parties to an action. The court has always aimed to allocate return dates within 6 weeks of issue of subpoena for production, although recently, this time standard has slipped. The Court recognises that it must be able to facilitate the early production of documents if parties are to meet the standards imposed by Practice Note 33.

To improve the processes surrounding the subpoena process, the Rule Committee has introduced a new return of subpoena system through the District Court Amendment (Access to Subpoenaed Material) Rule 2000. The new system aims to reduce the need for parties to appear at Court as well as providing more and better information so that parties can decide on whether to appear and dispute an access order.

The Rule Committee expects that in the vast majority of cases under this system, an appearance at Court will not be required unless there is an actual dispute over the making of an access order.

Under the new system, when issuing a subpoena the issuing party will be required to:

- Obtain a return date from the Registry.
- Endorse a "proposed access order" on the subpoena. The suggested order is for the "Plaintiff to have first access for 7 days" from the return date.
- Where a contrary "proposed access order" is sought, the issuing party must state his or her reasons. Usually this will be that the plaintiff can have no claim for privilege on the documents, or that another party should have first access to the documents (such as documents produced by the defendant or the defendant's experts). Issuing parties should carefully consider what access order is proposed as a disputed proposed access order will require the parties to appear at the return date;
- A copy of the subpoena must be served by the issuing party on all other parties with an address for service within 7 days of issue. Where the return date is less than two weeks away, the copy must be served within 24 hours. Parties should therefore ensure that an appearance or a defence is filed and served as soon as possible;
- Where all parties have not been notified of the issue of the subpoena, the issuing party will be obliged to appear and inform the court at the return date of its failure. A costs penalty may also apply. The requirement for all parties to attend will be waived if the issuing party has obtained consent to mention the matter for all other parties. The intention of this is to ensure that all other parties have notice of the proposed access order.

Any party or the producer may object to the issuing party about the proposed access order. The issuing party will have the responsibility for notifying all other parties of the objection. Unless there is agreement as to the access order, parties who wish to contest the proposed access order will be required to appear on the return date and argue the question before the presiding Registrar.

In any case on the return date in which there is no appearance, the proposed access order will be made automatically by default.

Where documents have not been produced, any party will be able to obtain a further return date from the Registry. The requesting party must notify the new return date to all other parties.

There will be substantial benefits for the parties, the profession and the Court under the new rules. Parties will know in advance what access order will be proposed. Parties will not need to attend Court unless an access order is contested. Short return dates can be given because the terms of proposed access orders have already been communicated to the other parties.

The new subpoena system will apply to all subpoena issued on or after 1 May 2001. The existing subpoena system will continue to apply to any subpoena issued before that date.

THE HON. JUSTICE R.O. BLANCH,
Chief Judge.

21 February, 2001.

THREATENED SPECIES CONSERVATION ACTNSW SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Notice of Preliminary Determinations

THE Scientific Committee, established by the Threatened Species Conservation Act, has made Preliminary Determinations to support proposals to list the following in the relevant Schedules of the Act.

Endangered Species (Part 1 of Schedule 1)

Grevillea divaricata R.Br., a shrub

Sophora tomentosa L., a shrub

The Committee is of the opinion that these species are likely to become extinct in nature in NSW unless the circumstances and factors threatening their survival or evolutionary development cease to operate.

Endangered Population (Part 2 of Schedule 1)

Lespedeza juncea subsp. sericea (Thunb.) Steenis in the Wollongong Local Government Area, a subshrub.

The Committee is of the opinion that this population is eligible to be listed as an endangered population because its habitat has been so drastically reduced that it is in immediate danger of extinction and it is not a population of a species already listed in Schedule 1 and its disjunct and at or near the limit of its geographic range and it is of significant conservation value.

Any person may make a written submission, which should be forwarded to:

Director-General
National Parks and Wildlife Service
PO Box 1967
Hurstville NSW 2220
Attention: Executive Officer, Scientific Committee

Submissions must be received by 13th April 2001.
