Consumer Credit Administration Amendment (Exemption of Certain Finance Brokers) Regulation 2005

under the

Consumer Credit Administration Act 1995

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Consumer Credit Administration Act 1995.

REBA PAIGE MEAGHER, M.P.,
Minister for Fair Trading

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to provide that Part 1A (Regulation of finance broking) of the Consumer Credit Administration Act 1995 does not apply to certain finance brokers who have entered into certain exclusive or other arrangements with credit providers to provide credit that is advertised, promoted or offered under a single brand, trade mark or business name.

The exemption applies where a finance broker has an agreement with a credit provider to negotiate only credit that is advertised, promoted or offered in association with a single brand, trademark or business name (this is called an exclusive arrangement).

The finance broker who will have the benefit of the exemption will trade at premises or under circumstances, and in such a manner, that a client would assume that the only credit available from that finance broker is the credit associated with that finance broker's business, as described above. The fact that comparison rate schedules are available does not disqualify the finance broker from the exemption.

Finance brokers who have such an arrangement, and who trade in the circumstances described, may also have an agreement with their credit providers that they will first negotiate the branded product, but if the client does not qualify for that product they can broker loans with other approved lenders (this is called a first-choice arrangement). In these circumstances, the exemption applies only while the finance broker is negotiating on the client's behalf for the branded product. Once the negotiations on that product are

This Regulation is made under the Consumer Credit Administration Act 1995 (as amended by the Consumer Credit Administration Amendment (Finance Brokers) Act 2003), including sections 4B (Application of Part) and 48 (the general regulation-making power).

 - (i) a credit provider, or
 - (ii) another person or persons authorised to act as intermediary to negotiate an exclusive arrangement on behalf of the credit provider, or

- (b) under which it is agreed that the only consumer credit in relation to which the finance broker will act as an intermediary to negotiate and obtain for its clients is consumer credit provided by that credit provider, and
