PROCLAMATION

MARIE BASHIR, Governor

I, the Honourable MARIE BASHIR, A.C., Governor of the State of New South Wales, on the recommendation of the Minister for Local Government, after considering the recommendations contained in a first report of a public inquiry concerning the Tweed Shire Council, and with the advice of the Executive Council, and in pursuance of sections 255 and 256 of the Local Government Act 1993, do, by this my Proclamation –

- (a) declare all civic offices in relation to the Tweed Shire Council to be vacant;
- (b) appoint Garry Payne, Director General, Department of Local Government, Lucy Turnbull and Max Boyd as Administrators of the Tweed Shire Council;
- (c) order that the term of the Administrators will commence immediately and cease on the date of the Council's next ordinary elections to be held on 27 September 2008.

If Lucy Turnbull or Max Boyd decline to be appointed as Administrator, or resign, then the Minister for Local Government may appoint alternate persons as Administrators for the remainder of the term.

The quorum for a meeting of the Council is two, one of whom must be the Director General of the Department of Local Government.

Any matters before the Council that the Administrators are unable or unavailable to determine for such reasons that may include, but are not limited to, the declaration of a pecuniary interest, the declaration of a conflict of interest, illness, or other absence may be determined by a substitute Administrator appointed by the Minister for that limited purpose.

The Administrators are to complete and lodge with the General Manager within 21 days, a disclosure of interests written return in accordance with Division 2 of Part 2 of Chapter 14 of the Act in the form prescribed by the regulations.

For the purposes of the Local Government Act 1993, the Administrators do not hold an office or a position of profit under the Council.

Signed and sealed at Sydney, this 25th day of May 2005.

The Hon. TONY KELLY, M.L.C.,
Minister for Local Government
