NSW SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Determination to make a minor amendment to Part 3 of Schedule 1 of the Threatened Species Conservation Act

The Scientific Committee, established under the Threatened Species Conservation Act, 1995, has made a determination to make a minor amendment to Part 3 of Schedule 1 (Endangered ecological communities) of the Act by inserting the Howell Shrublands in the New England Tableland and Nandewar Bioregions and as a consequence to omit reference to the Howell Shrublands in the Northern Tablelands and Nandewar Bioregions (as described in the final determination of the Scientific Committee which was published on pages 6160 to 6162 in NSW Government Gazette No. 85 dated 7 July 2000). Minor amendments to the Schedules is provided for by Division 5 of Part 2 of the Act.

The Scientific Committee is of the opinion that the amendment is necessary or desirable for the following purposes under section 36A:

- (b) to correct any minor error or omission,
- (c) to clarify a description of an ecological community (including to reflect new surveys or research information)

The Scientific Committee has found that:

1. The Howell Shrublands in the New England Tableland and Nandewar Bioregions is the name given to the ecological community that is characterised by the following assemblage of species;

2. The total species list of the community is considerably larger than that given above, with many species present in only one or two sites or in low abundance. The species composition of a site will be influenced by the size of the site, recent rainfall or drought condition and by its disturbance (including fire) history. The number of species, and the above ground relative abundance of species will change with time since fire, and may also change in response to changes in fire regime (including changes in fire frequency). At any one time, above ground individuals of some species may be absent, but the species may be represented below ground in the soil seed banks or as dormant structures such as bulbs, corms, rhizomes, rootstocks or lignotubers. The list of species given above is of vascular plant species; the community also includes micro-organisms, fungi, cryptogamic plants and a diverse fauna, both vertebrate and invertebrate. These components of the community are poorly documented.
3. Howell Shrublands has been recorded primarily around Copeton Dam and Goonoowigal near Inverell with a small occurrence (about 10 ha) at Warrabah. These occurrences are within the New England Tableland and Nandewar Bioregions.

4. Howell Shrublands are dominated by low shrubs particularly Homoranthus prolixus and Babingtonia densifolia. Occasionally all shrubs may be absent giving a grassland structure or Callitris endlicheri and various eucalypts such as Eucalyptus dealbata and Eucalyptus prava may be present giving the appearance of a low open woodland. Howell Shrublands have been described in Hunter, J. & Clarke, P. (1998) Cunninghamia 5(3) :547-618.
5. Howell Shrublands occur on granitic outcrops and has been recorded on Gilgai Granite (undifferentiated), leucadamellite and Tingha Granite. The area covered by granite outcrops is likely to be about 500-800 ha of which Howell Shrublands community is likely to actually cover about 100-200 ha.
6. Rare and threatened species in Howell Shrublands include Homoranthus prolixus, Boronia granitica, Eucalyptus mckieana, Monotaxis macrophylla, Leionema rotundifolium and Acacia granitica.
7. The main occurrence of the Howell Shrublands areas are not known to be conserved in any National Parks though it may possibly occur in Copeton State Recreation Area. Part of the small southern occurrence (about 2ha) is conserved in Warrabah National Park.
8. The most significant threat to the Howell Shrublands is grazing by goats. There are large herds throughout the area occupied by the Howell Shrublands community. Rabbits also cause substantial modification to the community. Other impacts are from sheep grazing and clearing, weed invasion, roadworks and powerline constructions. Increased mining activity and inappropriate fire regimes are potential threats.
9. In view the above, the Scientific Committee is of the opinion that Howell Shrublands in the New England Tableland and Nandewar Bioregions is likely to become extinct in nature unless factors threatening its survival or evolutionary development cease to operate and that listing as an endangered ecological community is warranted.

MOTOR ACCIDENT COMPENSATION TO RELATIVES FORM

THIS CLAIM FORM IS APPROVED BY THE MOTOR ACCIDENTS AUTHORITY OF NSW
IT IS TO BE USED FOR CLAIMS MADE UNDER THE COMPENSATION TO RELATIVES ACT 1997 AFTER 1 APRIL 2008

Who Can Make a Claim

If you are the close relative (or the executor or administrator of the estate) of a person who died in a motor vehicle accident in NSW, there are a number of circumstances under which you may be eligible to claim compensation for the financial losses you and other close relatives may have suffered as a result of the death of that person.

For the purposes of making a claim a close relative is a wife, husband, de facto partner, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, parent or child of the person who died.

1. Other driver or owner of vehicle at fault

Whether the person who died was a driver, passenger, pedestrian, cyclist, motorbike rider or pillion passenger you can make a claim for compensation if you can demonstrate that a driver or owner of a motor vehicle, other than the person who died, was partially or completely at fault.

2. Special benefit for children in accidents from 1 October 2006

If the person who died was under 16 years of age and lived in NSW at the time of the accident you may still make a claim even if the accident was not caused by the driver or owner of a motor vehicle (i.e. the accident was caused by the child). Please refer to the Important note for children on page 6 for more information.

3. Blameless accidents from 1 October 2007

If the accident occurred on or after 1 October 2007 you may be able to make a claim for compensation even if the accident in which the person died was a blameless motor accident. Examples of blameless motor accidents could include accidents resulting from the sudden illness of a driver, such as heart attack or stroke or vehicle failure such as a tyre blow-out.

If the person who died was a passenger, pedestrian, cyclist, pillion passenger, driver or motorcycle rider you can make a claim. However, special rules apply to drivers and motorcycle riders in blameless accidents. You may not be entitled to make a claim if the person who died was involved in a single vehicle accident or if the person who died was driving or riding the vehicle that caused the accident (i.e they were the driver that suffered a medical condition which resulted in the motor accident).

For more information about the special rules that apply to drivers and motorcycle riders in blameless accidents, contact the Claims Advisory Service on 1300 656 919.

If you were injured in a motor vehicle accident

Do not use this form if you were injured in a motor vehicle accident. If you were injured in a motor vehicle accident contact the CTP insurer to obtain a Personal Injury Claim Form. You can use the Personal Injury Claim Form for an injury that is physical, psychological or psychiatric.

Where To Send The Claim Form

You must send the completed claim form to the Green Slip or Compulsory Third Party (CTP) insurer of the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident. If you are unsure of where to send your claim form contact the MAA's Claims Advisory Service on 1300 656 919.

The claim form should be sent to the CTP insurer as soon as possible but no later than six months after the death. Even though you might not want to think about filling in forms right now, you and your family may miss out on compensation if you do not lodge your claim within six months of the death of your relative.

Help with your claim

If you are claiming more than funeral expenses, you might like to talk to a solicitor. A solicitor who understands this area of the law can help you work out who should be named in the form and who should receive compensation. Contact the NSW Law Society's Community Assistance Service (02 9926 0300) for names of personal injury accredited solicitors in your area.

MAKING A COMPENSATION TO RELATIVES CLAIM

There are a number of steps to making a claim:

1 Report the accident to the police

You must report the accident to the police as soon as possible, and in any case, within 28 days after the accident. If the accident is reported late and you cannot give a reason, it could affect the insurer's decision about your claim. If the accident has been reported late, please attach an explanation to this claim form giving the reasons for the delay.

2 Find out the CTP insurer of the NSW motor vehicle you consider caused the accident

Contact the Claims Advisory Service on 1300 856 919 to find out the CTP insurer. You will need to give them the NSW registration number plate of the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident and the date of the accident.

If the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident is:

- not a NSW registered motor vehicle, you will need to contact the relevant state or territory.
- unregistered or cannot be identified (e.g. hit and run) see step 4 below for further instructions.

3 Identify the motor vehicle and person you consider caused the accident

You must indicate the motor vehicle and/or person you consider caused the accident (Q22). If you are having difficulty in finding out the motor vehicle registration number and/or the person you consider caused the accident contact the police.

4 If the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident was uninsured or unidentified

The Nominal Defendant receives claims where the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident cannot be identified or is uninsured, and the accident occurred in NSW.

Before sending the claim you must take action to find out the registration number of the motor vehicle or the person you consider caused the accident. For example, by putting an advertisement in the newspaper or attempting to talk to witnesses.

If you cannot find out the registration number or if the motor vehicle is unregistered and not covered by CTP insurance, send your claim to the Nominal Defendant at Level 25, 580 George Street, Sydney NSW 2000, (DX 1517 Sydney). If you need more information about the Nominal Defendant call 1300 137 131 or visit www.maa.nsw.gov.au

5 Complete the claim form on behalf of all dependants

A compensation to relatives claim is made by one person on behalf of all dependants of the deceased. In filling out the compensation to relatives claim form it is necessary to not only include any claim you have for loss of dependency (financial support or loss of services) but also the claims of anyone else who was dependent on the deceased. The entitlements of all dependants are dealt with at the same time and as part of the same claim.

6 Send the claim form to the CTP insurer

You must send the completed claim form to the CTP insurer of the motor vehicle you consider caused the accident (see step 2 above).

The claim form should be sent as soon as possible, but no later than six months from the date of death. You can still make a claim more than six months after the date of death. However, your claim could be rejected if you cannot give a satisfactory reason for the delay. If you make a claim more than six months after the date of death, please attach an explanation to this claim form giving reasons for the delay.

7 If the person who died was under 16 years at the date of accident

Attach proof of age (a certified copy of the birth certificate, death certificate or passport) and proof that the person who died was a resident of NSW at the date of their death (refer to the Important note for children on page 6).

8 Keep a copy of the completed forms and accounts and invoices

Please attach any original accounts and invoices you may already have to the claim form. Keep a copy of all forms, certificates, accounts and invoices, etc, so that you have your own record.

Tear along this line and keep this information after you send off the completed form.

AFTER YOU SEND YOUR CLAIM TO THE CTP INSURER

1 You will receive a letter from the insurer

You will get a letter from the insurer telling you they have received your claim. The letter will include a claim or reference number that you should use if you want to talk to the insurer about your claim. The letter will also include a contact person's name and phone number.

2 You must help the CTP insurer with its investigation of your claim

The insurer will investigate your claim. You may be required to give the CTP insurer more information, photographs, documents or records.

3 The insurer will tell you its decision about your claim

The insurer will tell you whether liability is accepted (fully or partly) or denied. The insurer is required to make a decision on liability within three months of a claim being made. If the insurer accepts liability, they will then make an offer of settlement, that is, an offer to pay an amount of compensation they think is appropriate after investigating the losses you describe in this form.

The settlement offer may include payment for:

- Funeral expenses paid for either by you or a close relative
- The loss of financial support which the person who died would have provided to you or other close relatives if the person had not died
- Loss of services (such as those previously provided by a parent to a child)
- Hospital and other medical expenses
- Loss of earnings the person suffered prior to their death.

You may negotiate with the insurer to settle your claim. This can include accepting the insurer's offer or making a counter-offer.

If the CTP insurer denies liability on your claim, contact the Claims Advisory Service on 1300 656 919 for further information as you may have further rights against the CTP insurer.

4 Important note for children

From 1 October 2006, if the person who died was under 16 years of age and lived in NSW at the time of their death, you may still make a claim for the children's special benefit even if the accident was not caused by the owner or driver of a motor vehicle. The special benefit provides for reasonable funeral or cremation expenses associated with the death of the child. If the accident was caused, wholly or in part, by the driver or owner of a motor vehicle other compensation entitlements may apply.

5 CTP insurer handling of your claim

CTP insurers are required to comply with the MAA Claims Handling Guidelines, which are available at www.maa.nsw.gov.au. If you need a copy sent to you, contact the Claims Advisory Service on 1300 656 919.

NSW MARITIME8. Emergency and Security Management Procedures

Emergency and Security Management procedures need to be developed and documented so that personnel both onboard and shore based, are aware of what to do, and can practice for emergency and security related situations.

SMS Requirements

The company must identify and prepare for all potential emergency and security related situations. Security guidelines for Ferry and Charter Vessel operators have been produced as a companion volume to this SMS and should be used to provide guidance for security planning.

On board and shore based contingency plans must be developed using the OHS consultative arrangements.

The SMS must include, or refer to a schedule for the conduct of drills for the identified emergency and security response procedures. Crew members and company personnel must carry out scheduled drills to improve the competence and confidence of vessel crew and shore based staff to ensure that the procedures and resources can meet the required performance standards.

Records must be maintained of the conduct of drills for the following emergency and security procedures, as well as others deemed necessary by the Company for the meeting of the SMS Policy objectives and the monitoring and continual improvement of the SMS.

- Fire
- Abandon Ship
- Bomb Threat (Sample document at appendix 2)
- Bomb Search
- Man Overboard/Search and Rescue
- Spillage of fuel/cargo
- Serious injury
- Security breach/incident

These records must be retained for a period determined by the Company (but at least 5 years)

The SMS manual must contain, or at least reference the location of documented instructions related to emergency operations and security incident responses for both the vessel and shore based facilities.

Records of all emergency and security drills must be maintained in the SMS records

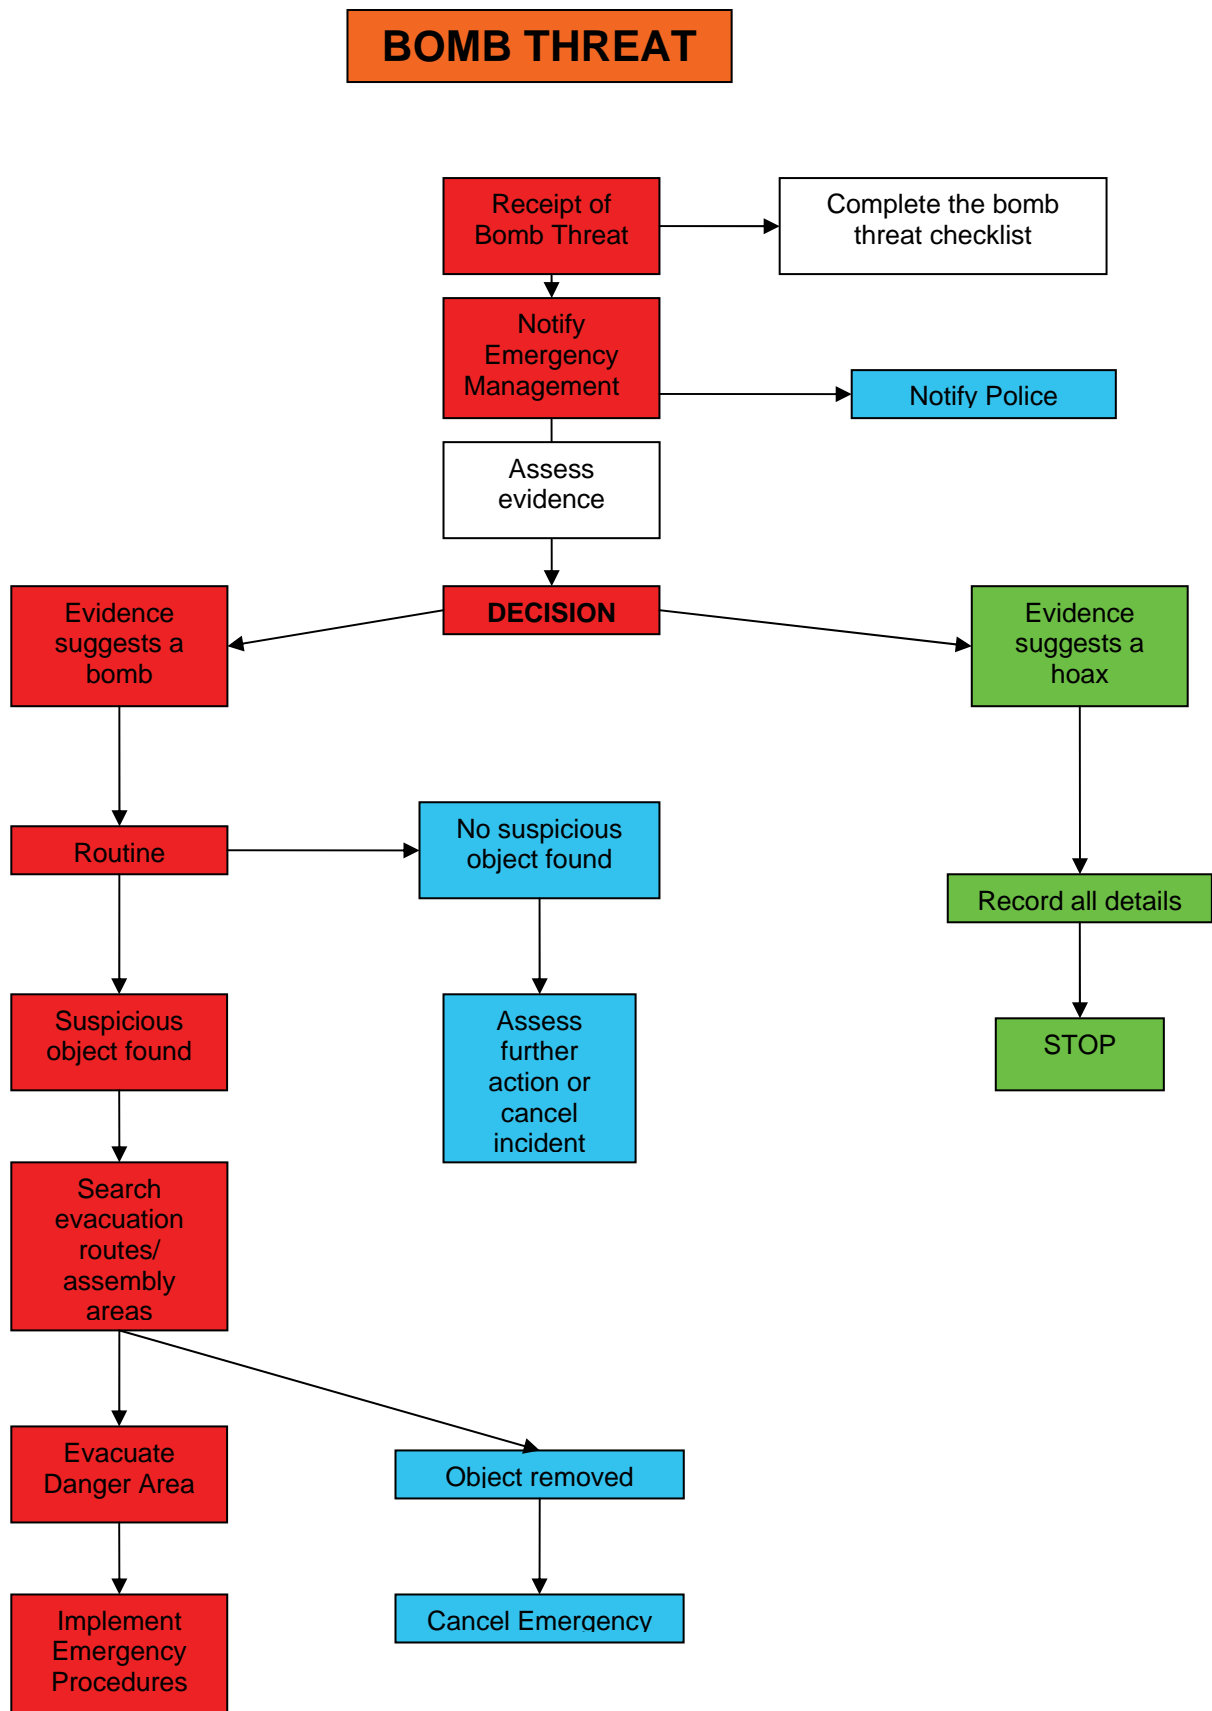

The results of emergency and security incident response drills need to be assessed on board the vessel at the conclusion of the drill, and during management review.

Changes to procedures, or training of personnel need to be incorporated in the appropriate systems.

See appendix 2 for examples of Emergency and Security incident response procedures.
