Announcement

Online notification of the making of statutory instruments

Following the commencement of the remaining provisions of the Interpretation Amendment Act 2006, the following statutory instruments are to be notified on the official NSW legislation website (www.legislation.nsw.gov.au) instead of being published in the Gazette:

- (a) all environmental planning instruments, on and from 26 January 2009,
- (b) all statutory instruments drafted by the Parliamentary Counsel's Office and made by the Governor (mainly regulations and commencement proclamations) and court rules, on and from 2 March 2009.

Instruments for notification on the website are to be sent via email to notification@pco.nsw.gov.au or fax (02) 9232 4796 to the Parliamentary Counsel's Office.

These instruments will be listed on the "Notification" page of the NSW legislation website and will be published as part of the permanent "As Made" collection on the website and also delivered to subscribers to the weekly email service. Principal statutory instruments also appear in the "In Force" collection where they are maintained in an up-to-date consolidated form.

Notified instruments will also be listed in the Gazette for the week following notification.

For further information about the new notification process contact the Parliamentary Counsel's Office on (02) 9321 3333.

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

under the

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990.

JOHN HATZISTERGOS, M.L.C.,
Attorney General

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to repeal the Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Regulation 2007 and to make a new Regulation as a consequence of the enactment of the Mental Health Legislation Amendment (Forensic Provisions) Act 2008.

The new Regulation:

- (a) requires the Mental Health Review Tribunal (the Tribunal) to review the case of a person subject to an order for transfer from a correctional centre to a mental health facility if the person is not transferred after 14 days, and
- (b) requires the Tribunal to be constituted by a President or Deputy President for such a review, and
- (c) prescribes certain psychologists as a class of persons who may provide reports to the Tribunal for the purposes of determining whether to make an order releasing a person, and
- (d) sets out procedures for appeals to the Tribunal against decisions by the Director-General of the Department of Health not to grant a forensic patient or correctional patient leave of absence from a mental health facility, and
- (e) modifies the application of Part 3 of Chapter 3 of the Mental Health Act 2007 (which relates to community treatment orders) to community treatment orders made in relation to forensic patients, correctional patients, inmates of correctional centres and persons subject to orders for transfer to mental health facilities, and
- (f) prescribes persons who may transport persons to or from places for the purposes of the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990, and

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

under the

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009.

2 Commencement

This Regulation commences on 1 March 2009.

3 Definitions

- (1) In this Regulation:
forensic community treatment order means a community treatment order made under section 67 of the Act.
the Act means the Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Act 1990.
- (2) Words and expressions used in this Regulation have the same meaning as they have in Part 5 of the Act.
- (3) Notes included in this Regulation do not form part of this Regulation.

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

Clause 4

Tribunal proceedings

Part 2

Part 2 Tribunal proceedings

4 Limited reviews of person subject to transfer order

- (1) For the purposes of section 58 (1) of the Act, the prescribed period is 14 days after the making of the order.
- (2) The Tribunal is to be constituted by a President or a Deputy President for the purposes of conducting a review under section 58 of the Act.

5 Matters to be considered by Tribunal

For the purposes of section 74 (d) of the Act, a person is of a class of persons prescribed for the purposes of that paragraph, for the purpose of providing a report as to the condition of a person who is suffering from a mental condition (other than a mental illness), if the person:

- (a) is a registered psychologist, and
- (b) has, in the opinion of the Tribunal, appropriate experience or training in forensic psychology or neuro-psychology.

6 Appeals against decisions of Director-General about leave of absence

- (1) An appeal in writing under section 76F of the Act is to be made by giving a notice of appeal, in the form approved by the Director-General for the purposes of this clause, to the medical superintendent.
- (2) The medical superintendent must forward the notice of appeal to the Tribunal within 2 working days after receiving it and must notify the Director-General of the appeal within that period.
- (3) An oral appeal under section 76F of the Act is to be made by telling the medical superintendent of the wish to make an appeal.
- (4) The medical superintendent must provide written notice of an oral appeal to the Tribunal within 2 working days after the appeal is made and must notify the Director-General of the appeal within that period.
- (5) A copy of the written notice is to be given to the forensic patient or correctional patient making the appeal and a copy is to be kept by the medical superintendent as a record of the appeal.

Clause 7	Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009
Part 3	Community treatment orders

Part 3 Community treatment orders

7 Modification of provisions of Mental Health Act 2007

Part 3 of Chapter 3 of the Mental Health Act 2007 is modified as set out in this Part for the purposes of the making of a forensic community treatment order.

8 Applications for forensic community treatment orders

- (1) For the purposes of the application of section 51 of the Mental Health Act 2007, an application for a forensic community treatment order may be made by a medical officer authorised by the Chief Executive of Justice Health.
- (2) Subclause (1) is in addition to the persons who may make an application for a community treatment order under that section.
- (3) Sections 52 (3) and 53 (5) of the Mental Health Act 2007 do not apply to an application for a forensic community treatment order.

9 Treatment plans

- (1) For the purposes of the application of section 53 (2) (a) of the Mental Health Act 2007, a treatment plan may also be proposed by Justice Health.
- (2) For the purposes of the application of section 53 (3) (b) of the Mental Health Act 2007, the treatment plan is to be proposed by Justice Health or by a declared mental health facility.
- (3) For the purposes of the application of section 56 (1) (a) of the Mental Health Act 2007, a forensic community treatment order may nominate Justice Health to implement a treatment plan.

10 Implementation of forensic community treatment orders

- (1) For the purposes of the application of section 57 (2) and (4) of the Mental Health Act 2007 to a treatment plan proposed by Justice Health, a medical officer authorised by Justice Health may exercise the same functions under those subsections as the director of community treatment of a declared mental health facility.
- (2) Section 57 (5) of the Mental Health Act 2007 does not apply to a forensic community treatment order.

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

Clause 11

Community treatment orders

11 Breaches of forensic community treatment orders

- (1) This clause applies to the following persons who are subject to forensic community treatment orders (the affected persons):
  - (a) a forensic patient, correctional patient or other person who is detained in a correctional centre,
  - (b) a person who is subject to an order for transfer from a correctional centre but who has not been transferred.
- (2) Sections 58–64 of the Mental Health Act 2007 do not apply to an affected person and are replaced by subclauses (3)–(5).
- (3) A medical officer authorised by Justice Health must take the steps set out in subclauses (4) and (5) if an affected person in any way refuses or fails to comply with the forensic community treatment order and the officer is of the opinion that:
  - (a) Justice Health has taken all reasonable steps to implement the order, and
  - (b) there is a significant deterioration in the mental or physical condition of the affected person.
- (4) The officer must cause the affected person to be informed that any further refusal or failure to comply with the order may result in the person being given treatment in accordance with the forensic community treatment order.
- (5) If there is a further refusal or failure to comply with the order:
  - (a) the officer must cause the affected person to be assessed for the purpose of issuing certificates for the purpose of a transfer of the person under section 55 of the Act to a mental health facility, and
  - (b) the officer may cause the affected person to be given treatment in accordance with the forensic community treatment order, if the officer thinks it appropriate for clinical reasons to do so, and must notify the Tribunal within 2 working days after the treatment is given.

12 Variation or revocation of forensic community treatment orders

- (1) For the purposes of the application of section 65 (2) of the Mental Health Act 2007 to a forensic community treatment order, an application to vary or revoke an order may also be made by a person authorised by Justice Health.
- (2) For the purposes of the application of section 65 (3) of the Mental Health Act 2007 to a forensic community treatment order, an application to vary or revoke a forensic community treatment order may also be made if the person subject to the order is released, or proposed to be released, from a correctional centre.

Clause 12	Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009
Part 3	Community treatment orders

- (3) For the purposes of the application of section 66 of the Mental Health Act 2007 to a forensic community treatment order, a medical officer authorised by Justice Health may also revoke an order.
- (4) A medical officer who revokes a forensic community treatment order under subsection (3), or a director of community treatment who revokes such an order under section 66 of the Mental Health Act 2007, must notify the Tribunal in writing of the revocation within 7 days of the revocation.

Mental Health (Forensic Provisions) Regulation 2009

Clause 13

Miscellaneous

Part 4 Miscellaneous

13 Transport of defendants in Local Court proceedings

For the purposes of section 33 of the Act, the following persons are prescribed as persons who may take a defendant to or from a place:

- (a) if the defendant is on remand or serving a sentence of imprisonment (other than a defendant detained in a detention centre)—a correctional officer or other officer employed in the Department of Corrective Services or a police officer,
- (b) if the defendant is a juvenile and is detained in a detention centre—an officer employed in the Department of Juvenile Justice,
- (c) in any other case—a member of staff of the NSW Health Service, a police officer, a correctional officer or other officer employed in the Department of Corrective Services, an officer employed in the Department of Juvenile Justice or a person who provides a transport service approved for that purpose by the Director-General.

14 Exchange of information between Departments of Health, Corrective Services and Juvenile Justice

The following information may be included in an information sharing protocol:

- (a) information concerning former forensic patients or correctional patients transferred, or proposed to be transferred, to correctional centres,
- (b) information concerning persons (other than forensic patients and correctional patients) who are, or may be, subject to forensic community treatment orders,
- (c) information concerning persons (other than forensic patients and correctional patients) who were formerly subject to forensic community treatment orders and who have been released from a correctional centre and are subject to community treatment orders,
- (d) information concerning visitors to forensic patients and correctional patients who are reasonably believed to pose a security risk to the good management and order of a correctional centre or mental health facility.

15 Repeal of Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Regulation 2007

The Mental Health (Criminal Procedure) Regulation 2007 is repealed.

New South Wales

Security Industry Amendment (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 2009

under the

Security Industry Act 1997

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Security Industry Act 1997.

ANTHONY KELLY, M.I.C.,
Minister for Police

Explanatory note

The Security Industry Amendment Act 2008 amends clause 18 of the Security Industry Regulation 2007 to expand the range of penalties that will exclude a person from obtaining a security licence under section 16 (1) (a) and (b) of the Security Industry Act 1997. The object of this Regulation is to amend an associated savings provision to make it clear that a person who applies for a licence after the commencement of the amendment will be excluded from being granted the licence if such a penalty was incurred before the commencement but that the clause does not operate (with section 26 (1A) of the Security Industry Act 1997) to require the revocation of an existing licence if the licensee has incurred such a penalty.

This Regulation is made under the Security Industry Act 1997, including section 48 (the general regulation-making power) and clause 1 (1) of Schedule 2.

Clause 1 Security Industry Amendment (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 2009

Security Industry Amendment (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 2009

under the

Security Industry Act 1997

1 Name of Regulation

This Regulation is the Security Industry Amendment (Savings and Transitional) Regulation 2009.

2 Amendment of Security Industry Regulation 2007

The Security Industry Regulation 2007 is amended by omitting clause 47A (as inserted by the Security Industry Amendment Act 2008) and by inserting instead the following clause:

47A Offences and civil penalties that disqualify applicants

- (1) Clause 18 (1) (b), to the extent that its application is varied by the Security Industry Amendment Act 2008, extends to an offence of which a person is convicted or found guilty before the commencement of the amendment.
- (2) Despite subclause (1), clause 18 (1) (b), as so varied, and section 26 (1A) of the Act do not operate to require the Commissioner to revoke a licence that is in force on the commencement of the amendment.

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment (Extended Provisional Licence Period) Regulation 2009

under the

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998

Her Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has made the following Regulation under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998.

MICHAEL DALEY, M.P.,
Minister for Roads

Explanatory note

The object of this Regulation is to enable the Roads and Traffic Authority to extend, by 6 months, the period for which a person is required to hold a provisional driver licence if the person is convicted or found guilty of an offence under section 129 of the Liquor Act 2007 or, if the person is issued with a penalty notice for such an offence, either pays the fine or fails to have the matter dealt with by a court. The offence under section 129 of the Liquor Act 2007 involves persons under the age of 18 years using false evidence of age to gain entry to, or to remain in, or to obtain liquor from, licensed premises. The extension of a person's provisional licence period means that the person will be required to remain on his or her P-plates for a total period of 42 months before being eligible to be issued with an unrestricted licence.

This Regulation is made under the Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Act 1998, including section 20 (2) (m1).

Schedule 1      Amendment of Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Regulation 2008

Part 3, Division 2, Subdivision 2A

Insert after Subdivision 2:

Subdivision 2A      Extension of provisional licence period

31A      Definitions

In this Subdivision:

false ID offence means an offence under section 129 (Minor must not use false evidence of age) of the Liquor Act 2007 committed, or alleged to have been committed, after the commencement of this Subdivision.

provisional licence period means the minimum period for which a person is required, because of Subdivisions 1 and 2, to hold a provisional licence before being eligible to apply for a provisional P2 licence or an unrestricted licence (as the case requires).

Note. The scheme under Subdivisions 1 and 2 requires a person to hold a provisional licence (that is, a P1 licence followed by a P2 licence) for a total period of 36 months before the person can be issued with an unrestricted licence. If the Authority takes action in relation to the person under this Division, the total period will in effect be extended to 42 months.

31B      Operation of Subdivision

- (1) This Subdivision has effect despite any other provision of this Regulation.
- (2) This Subdivision extends to provisional licences in force as at the commencement of this Subdivision.

31C      Authority may extend provisional licence period

- (1) The Authority may extend a person's provisional licence period for a period of 6 months if:
  - (a) the person is convicted or found guilty of a false ID offence, or
  - (b) the person pays the whole or any part of the penalty specified in a penalty notice issued to the person under section 150 of the Liquor Act 2007 in respect of a false ID offence, or

Road Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment (Extended Provisional Licence Period) Regulation 2009

- (c) the person has not paid the penalty specified in a penalty notice issued to the person under section 150 of the Liquor Act 2007 in respect of a false ID offence and has not elected to have the matter dealt with by a court, and the time to have the matter so dealt with has lapsed.
- (2) The period of 6 months for which a person's provisional licence period may be extended does not include any period during which the person's provisional licence is suspended otherwise than on medical grounds.
- (3) The Authority may extend a person's provisional licence period even though the person was not, at the time the false ID offence was alleged to have been committed, the holder of a driver licence.
- (4) The extension of a person's provisional licence period applies only in respect of the issue of a driver licence within 5 years after the date on which the false ID offence was alleged to have been committed.
- (5) The Authority must not extend a person's provisional licence period if the person was, at the time the false ID offence was alleged to have been committed, under the age of 14 years.
- (6) The extension of a person's provisional licence period applies, in the case of a person who holds more than one class of driver licence, only in relation to one of those classes of licence (as determined by the Authority).
- (7) A person's provisional licence period cannot be extended on more than one occasion.
- (8) If, in the case of a provisional licence that is subject to an extension under this clause, the licence is cancelled at any time by operation of section 189 of the Road Transport (General) Act 2005, the provisional licence period in respect of any subsequent provisional licence that is issued to the person may, despite subclause (7), be extended by the Authority for a further period of 6 months.
- (9) The Authority must, in the case of a person whose provisional licence period is extended under this clause, cancel the extension if:
- (a) the person's conviction or finding of guilt in respect of the false ID offence is overturned by a court on appeal, or
  - (b) the amount paid under the penalty notice in respect of the false ID offence is repaid to the person who paid it, or

LEGAL PROFESSION ACT 2004

Amendments to the Solicitors Rules

THE Council of the Law Society of New South Wales, on 19 February 2009, pursuant to its powers under section 703 of the Legal Profession Act resolved to amend Rule 42 of the Solicitors Rules as set out below:

42 – MCLE (CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT)

42.1 A practitioner must, during each year in which the practitioner holds a practising certificate, unless exempted by the Council, comply with a condition endorsed on the practitioner's practising certificate, requiring the practitioner to complete mandatory continuing legal education (Continuing Professional Development) by completing a course of education which satisfies the following requirements:

- 42.1.1 the course may consist of an education programme, seminar, workshop, lecture, conference or discussion group or a multimedia or website based programme or private study of audio or video material or the research and preparation of an article published in a legal publication or such other publication approved by the Council or any combination of two or more of those events;
- 42.1.2 the course must be of significant intellectual or practical content and must deal primarily with matters directly related to the practice of law;
- 42.1.3 the course must be conducted by persons who are qualified by practical or academic experience in the subject covered;
- 42.1.4 the course must be relevant to a practitioner's immediate or long term needs in relation to the practitioner's professional development and to the practice of law;
- 42.1.5 the course must have an aggregate value of ten (10) MCLE units; and 42.1.6 the course must include at least one (1) MCLE unit in each of the following fields:

- 42.1.6.1 Ethics and Professional Responsibility
- 42.1.6.2 Practice Management and business skills
- 42.1.6.3 Professional skills

42.2 A practitioner's engagement in a course of continuing legal education, which satisfies the requirements in Rule 42.1, will entitle the practitioner to one (1) MCLE unit for each hour of participation in the course.

42.3 A practitioner shall be entitled to claim one (1) MCLE unit to a maximum of five (5) MCLE units for every hour spent:

- 42.3.1 in a programme of private study of audio or video material specifically designed for the purpose of updating legal knowledge determined by reference to contemporaneous records maintained by the practitioner engaged in the study.
- 42.3.2 in the preparation of written or oral material forming part of the formal instruction within any one course of continuing legal education or formal legal education.
- 42.3.3 in the presentation of written or oral material forming part of formal instruction within any one course of continuing education or formal legal education to a maximum of five (5) MCLE units for any one course.

42.4 A practitioner shall be entitled to one (1) MCLE unit to a maximum of five (5) MCLE units for every thousand words of an article published in a legal publication or such other publication as the Council of the Law Society may approve including an article which the practitioner has structurally edited or refereed.

42.5 42.5.1 A practitioner who is a member of a committee or Task Force of the Council of the Law Society, of the Executive Council of NSW Young Lawyers, of the Law Council of Australia or a practice section of a professional association (which deals with substantive issues) and gives reasonable attendance at its meetings, is entitled to claim one (1) MCLE unit to a maximum of three (3) MCLE units for each period of two hours or more engaged in committee work, which is of substantial significance to the practice of law and is reasonably likely to assist the practitioner's professional development.

42.5.2 A practitioner cannot claim entitlement under this paragraph in respect of committee work for which the practitioner has claimed or intends to claim entitlement for CLE units under paragraphs 42.3 or 42.4

42.6 The Council may exempt a practitioner, in whole or in part, from compliance with the condition on the practitioner's practising certificate, requiring completion of a course of continuing legal education, if –

42.6.1 the practitioner has been in practice for a period exceeding forty (40) years, and does not practise as a principal; or

42.6.2 the practitioner, by reason of the practitioner's geographical location; any physical disability or any particular exigencies of practice, may experience particular hardship or difficulty in completing the required number of MCLE units.

42.6.3 the practitioner has been or will be absent from practice because of parenting leave, unemployment or illness;

42.6.4 the practitioner has reduced hours of practice owing to part time or casual employment;

42.6.5 the practitioner's circumstances are such that the practitioner is required to hold a practising certificate but is not engaged in legal practice.

Exemptions in relation to 42.6.3, 42.6.4 and 42.6.5 will generally be granted on a pro-rata basis.

42.7 The practitioner must, unless exempted by the Council, certify, when applying for renewal of the practitioner's practising certificate each year, that the practitioner has, within the period of twelve months ending on 31 March immediately prior to the practitioner's application for a practising certificate, completed ten (10) units of mandatory continuing legal education, in accordance with this Rule.

42.8 MCLE units accrued in the period 1 January – 31 March in any year may be carried forward into the following MCLE year but can only be counted in one MCLE year.

42.9 This Rule commences on 1 April 2009.
