OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY
REGULATION 2001

(Clauses 348)

Exemption Order No.018/10

I, PETER DUNPHY, Acting General Manager, Work Health & Safety Division, of the WorkCover Authority of New South Wales, pursuant to Clause 348 of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 make the following Order.

Dated this 12th day of November 2010.

PETER DUNPHY,
Acting General Manager
Work Health & Safety Division
WorkCover Authority of New South Wales

Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001

Exemption Order No.018/10

1. Name of Order

This Order is the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 Exemption Order No.018/10

2. Commencement

This Order commences on the date of gazettal in the NSW Government Gazette, and has effect for a period of three years from that date.

3. Exemption

A designer of plant undertaking design of lifts is exempt from clause 94 (requirements to design lifts, escalators and moving walks to the relevant standards listed in Schedule 1 of the Regulation) of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001 and a person who applies for registration of lift design is exempt from clause 107(2)(a)(i) (requirement to provide verification by a competent person that the design complies with the relevant standard listed in Schedule 1 of the Regulation) of the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001, subject to compliance with the conditions specified in Schedule A to this Exemption Order.

Schedule A

Conditions of Exemption

1. Lifts, escalators and moving walks must be designed to the edition current at the time of design, of published prescriptive standards (EN81, EN115 or ASME A17.1) or conformity assessed under the European or American performance based requirements, ie respectively the EU Lift Directive or ASME A17.7. The basis of the design must be specified in the Plant Design Registration application form.
2. The applicant must have a copy of a documented risk assessment as required under the designer's duties, clauses 86-89, of the Regulation, and this risk assessment must clearly include consideration of the issues listed in the relevant part of AS 1735. If using AS1735.1 this includes the Appendix A issues. The risk assessment must include a conclusion that the design provides an equivalent level of safety to a lift designed to the relevant part of AS 1735.
3. The verifier must assess the safety of the design against the relevant part of the Australian Standard Series AS1735, including consideration of the documented risk assessment referred to in 2. above.

4. A statement by the design verifier stating that, "the design is of equivalent level of safety to the relevant part of Australian Standard AS1735 and information supporting the equivalent level of safety is available for verification by WorkCover" must be submitted with the Plant Design Registration application.

5. The applicant and the verifier must retain a copy of the documented risk assessment, and provide a copy to WorkCover if requested.

4. Definitions

In this Order:

Australian Standard (AS) – means an Australian Standard published by Standards Australia in the year referred to in the citation of the Standard, as in force from time to time.

ASME A17.1 – means American Society of Mechanical Engineers standard ASME A17.1 Safety Code for Elevators and Escalators.

EN81 – means series of the European Standard EN81 Safety rules for the construction and installation of lifts.

EN115 – means series of the European Standard EN115 Safety of escalators and moving walks.

Equivalent level of safety – means that the safety outcomes of the design are equivalent to the safety outcomes intended to be achieved by the provisions in the relevant part of Australian Standard AS1735. The assessment of equivalence may be assessed at the issue level rather than clause level, with allowance for alternative technology and materials to achieve equivalent safety by means other than specified in the Australian Standard. However, the design limitations, scope and limits of application specified in the relevant part of the Australian Standard, eg car size, travel and appropriate applications must be complied with.

Lift – means any permanent plant (or plant intended to be permanent) that is in or attached to a building or structure and by means of which persons, goods or materials may be raised or lowered within or on a car, cage or platform and the movement of which is restricted by a guide or guides and includes an apparatus in the nature of a stairway chair lift, escalator or moving walk, and any supporting structure, machinery, equipment, gear, lift well, enclosures and entrances.

Regulation – means the Occupational Health and Safety Regulation 2001.

Schedule 1 – means Schedule 1 of the Regulation Standards covering design and manufacture of plant. For lifts, escalators and moving walks, Australian Standards AS1735.1 through to AS1735.17 apply.

Also in the Preamble paragraph (F) the commencement date 1 July 2010 is incorrect, this should read 1 September 2010.

The Notification and the Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited Scheme is now published below this erratum amends both errors with the gazettal date remaining the 27 August 2010.

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS ACT 1994

Notification pursuant to section 13

The Australian Property Institute
Valuers Limited
Scheme

PURSUANT to section 13 of the Professional Standards Act 1994, I authorise the publication of the Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited Scheme. The Scheme will commence on 1 September 2010.

Dated 25 August 2010.

JOHN HATZISTERGOS, M.L.C.,
Attorney General

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS ACT 1994 (NSW)

The Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited Scheme

PREAMBLE

- A. The Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited (APIV) is an occupational association.
- B. The APIV has made an application to the Professional Standards Council, constituted under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) (the Act), for a scheme under the Act.
- C. The scheme is prepared by the APIV for the purposes of limiting occupational liability to the extent to which such liability may be limited under the Act.
- D. The APIV has furnished the Council with a detailed list of the risk management strategies intended to be implemented in respect of its members and the means by which those strategies are intended to be implemented.
- E. The APIV has furnished the Council with APIV insurance standards with which members must comply for purposes of this scheme.
- F. The scheme is intended to commence on 1 September 2010 and remain in force for five (5) years from its commencement unless, prior to that time, it is revoked, its operation ceases, or it is extended pursuant to Section 32 of the Act.

THE AUSTRALIAN PROPERTY INSTITUTE VALUERS LIMITED SCHEME1. Occupational association

- 1.1 The Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited Scheme (the scheme) is a scheme under the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW) (the Act) prepared by the Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited (APIV) whose business address is 6 Campion Street, DEAKIN, ACT 2600
- 1.2 The scheme is intended to operate in New South Wales, the Australian Capital Territory, the Northern Territory, Queensland, Victoria and Western Australia.

2. Persons to Whom the Scheme Applies

- 2.1 The scheme applies to all members of the Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited, unless exempted by the APIV.
- 2.2 This scheme also applies to all persons to whom the scheme applied under clause 2.1 at the time of any act or omission giving rise to occupational liability.
- 2.3 The APIV may, on application by a member to whom this Scheme applies, exempt the member from the Scheme provided that the Scheme does not apply to the person by operation of ss.18, 19 or 20 of the Act.

3. Limitation of Liability

- 3.1 This scheme only affects the liability for damages arising from a single cause of action to the extent to which the liability results in damages exceeding $2,000,000.
- 3.2 If a person, who was at the time of the act or omission giving rise to occupational liability, a person to whom this scheme applied and against whom a proceeding relating to occupational liability is brought, is able to satisfy the court that such person has the benefit of an insurance policy:
- of a kind which complies with the APIV Insurance Standards,
 - insuring such person against the occupational liability to which the cause of action relates, and
 - under which the amount payable in respect of that occupational liability is not less than the monetary ceiling specified in the 4th column (titled "Monetary Ceiling") of the table in Clause 3.3 of this scheme relating to the class of person and the kind of work to which the cause of action relates,
- that person is not liable in damages in relation to that cause of action above the monetary ceiling specified in this scheme.
- 3.3 The monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) required for the purposes of limitation of liability under this scheme at the time at which the act or omission giving rise to the cause of action occurred is to be determined according to the following table:

Class	Description	Upper End Value	Monetary Ceiling	Maximum Excess
1	Category A Member	$0.0 million to < $5.0million	$ 2.0 million	$ 30.0K
2	Category B Member	$5.0 million to < $10.0 million	$ 3.0 million	$ 50.0K
3	Category C Member	$10.0 million to < $15.0 million	$ 4.0 million	$ 50.0K
4	Category D Member	$15.0 million to < $40.0 million	$ 5.0 million	$ 50.0K
5	Category E Member	$40.0 million >	$10.0 million	$100.0K

- 3.4 Clause 3.2 only affects liability for damages arising from a single cause of action to the extent to which the liability results in damages exceeding such amount as is specified in clause 3.1.
- 3.5 This scheme limits the occupational liability in respect of a cause of action founded on an act or omission occurring during the period when the scheme was in force of any person to whom the scheme applied at the time the act or omission occurred.

4. Conferral of discretionary authority

- 4.1 Pursuant to section 24 of the Act, this scheme confers on the APIV a discretionary authority to specify, on application by a person to whom the scheme applies, in relation to that person a higher monetary ceiling (maximum amount of liability) not exceeding $20 million, in relation to the person either in all cases or in any specified case or class or case.

5. Definitions

- 5.1 Relevant definitions for the purposes of the scheme are as follows:
- "APIV" means the Australian Property Institute Valuers Limited.
- "APIV Insurance Standards" mean the insurance standards approved by the APIV from time to time.
- "Category A Member" means a person to whom the scheme applies and whose Upper End of Value is less than $5 million.
- "Category B Member" means a person to whom the scheme applies and whose Upper End Value is $5 million or more but less than $10 million.
- "Category C Member" means a person to whom the scheme applies and whose Upper End Value is $10 million or more but less than $15 million.
- "Category D Member" means a person to whom the scheme applies and whose Upper End Value is $15 million or more but less than $40 million.
- "Category E Member" means a person to whom the scheme applies and whose Upper End Value is $40 million or greater.
- "most recent 12 month period" means the 12 months prior to the date and time of inception of the member's Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy.
- "maximum excess" means the maximum excess outlined in the table at clause 3.3 applicable to the relevant member.
- "Professional Indemnity Insurance Policy" means a policy of insurance that provides cover for the member in compliance with the insurance standards determined by the APIV from time to time.
- "the Act" means the Professional Standards Act 1994 (NSW).
- "Upper End Value" means the highest valuation performed by the relevant member in the most recent 12 month period.

6. Duration

- 6.1 This scheme will commence on 1 September 2010 and will be in force for a period of five (5) years from the date of commencement.

¹ Sections 18 and 19 of the Act provide that if the scheme applies to a body corporate, the scheme also applies to each officer of the body corporate and if the scheme applies to a person, the scheme also applies to each partner of the person, and if the scheme applies to a person the scheme also applies to each employee of the person, provided that if such officer of the corporation or partner of the person or employee of the person is entitled to be a member of the same occupational association, such officer, partner or employee is a member of the occupational association. Section 20 provides that the scheme may also apply to other persons as specified in that section. Section 20A extends the limitation of liability of persons to whom the scheme applies by virtue of sections 18 to 20.

² For the purposes of the operation of the scheme in New South Wales, "occupational liability" has the same meaning as it has in the Act and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to the Act. Similarly, for the purposes of the operation of the scheme in other jurisdictions in which it applies, "occupational liability" has the same meaning as it has in the corresponding legislation of those jurisdictions and excludes any liability which may not from time to time be limited pursuant to that legislation.

Occupational liability is defined in s4(1) of the Act to mean 'civil liability arising (in tort, contract or otherwise) directly or vicariously from anything done or omitted by a member of an occupational association acting in the performance of his or her occupation'. However, s5(1) of the Act provides that the Act does not apply to liability for damages arising from the death of or personal injury to a person, a breach of trust or fraud or dishonesty. [Note: All jurisdictions other than NSW and WA exclude a lawyer acting in a personal injury matter.] Section 5(2) of the Act also provides that the Act does not apply to liability which may be the subject of proceedings under Part 13 or 14 of the Real Property Act 1900 (NSW).

Damages as defined in section 4(1) of the Act means (a) damages awarded in respect of a claim or counter-claim or claim by way of set-off and (b) costs in or in relation to the proceedings ordered to be paid in connection with such an award (other than costs incurred in enforcing a judgment or incurred on an appeal made by a defendant), and (c) any interest payable on the amount of those damages or costs.
