CHARITABLE TRUSTS ACT 1993

Notice Under Section 15

Proposed Cy-près Scheme Relating to the Estate of Kaye Frances Rafferty

SECTION 9 (1) of the Charitable Trusts Act 1993 permits the application of property cy-pres where the spirit of the original trust can no longer be implemented.

On 1 May 1981, Kaye Frances Rafferty made a Will leaving a one fourth share of the residue of her estate upon trust to the Subnormal Children's Welfare Association of NSW ('SCWA') to be used for children assisted by that Association under the age of 18 years. Ms Rafferty died on 2 December 1981. Identification and distribution of the amount bequeathed to the SCWA was deferred until 2000. The bequest is now worth approximately $37,127.00.

The SCWA no longer exists. The solicitor for the Executor applied to the Attorney General in 2007 requesting that the Attorney General approve a cy-près scheme under the Charitable Trusts Act 1993, so as to permit the gift to be applied in favour of the Willing and Able Foundation Ltd. However, while Willing and Able Foundation Ltd evolved out of the SCWA, the terms of the trust in the bequest require that the gift be applied for children under the age of 18 years. The Willing and Able Foundation Ltd cannot carry out the bequest, because it does not provide services to children.

Three alternative organisations were identified as providing comparable services to children. These were the Spastic Centre, Lifestart Co-operative Ltd and the Hastings Early Intervention Program Inc (HEIP). Of these, HEIP alone provided information to the Attorney General specifically addressing the use to which it would put the funds of approximately $37,000, if the Attorney General were to approve a cy-près scheme. HEIP provides special education services to children aged between 0–6 years with a significant developmental delay or diagnosed disability in the Hastings region. HEIP stated that it would use the money for additional teachers and speech pathology hours, offer 1:1 therapy sessions and outreach services to families in the Hastings region.

The Solicitor General, as delegate of the Attorney General, approved a recommendation that the Attorney General establish a cy-près scheme to apply the gift in the Will of Kaye Rafferty to the SCWA cy-près to the Hastings Early Intervention Program (HEIP) to be held on trust and used to provide assistance and services to children.

Take note that within one month after the publication of this notice, any person may make representations or suggestions to the Attorney General in respect of the proposed scheme. Representations should be made to the Director, Legal Services Branch, NSW Department of Attorney General and Justice, GPO Box 6, Sydney NSW 2001.

Dated: 23 May 2011.

Director General, NSW Department of Attorney
