Planning Act

SECTION 29

REASONS FOR DECISION

NORTHERN TERRITORY PLANNING SCHEME AMENDMENT No. 213

Amendment No. 213 relates to the South of the McDonnell Ranges Area Plan and associated Planning Principles, and the Alice Springs Land Use Framework.

The Alice Springs Airport Master Plan approved in August 2010 identifies an area of Airport land immediately south of the AZRI site for future urban development. Together, the AZRI site and the Airport land known as Kilgariff, provide a large area of land for future urban development with an area of approximately 800 hectares. The site is about nine kilometres south of the centre of Alice Springs.

The Enquiry by Design Forum (Kilgariff EBD) held in Alice Springs in April 2011 involved the local community in the production of long term planning options for the urban development of the Kilgariff area. The resulting design concept for the long term development of Kilgariff proposes future urban expansion for the next 50 years with residential land developed around five urban neighbourhoods and industry and business close to the Airport along Roger Vale Drive and the Stuart Highway.

Amendment No. 213 amends the following in support of the long term growth objectives:

- The South of MacDonnell Ranges Area Plan 2 of 2 by expanding the area to include Airport land;
- The two South of MacDonnell Ranges Area Plans 1 and 2 by applying the following names - the Arumbera Area Plan (clause 14.4.6) and the Kilgariff Area Plan (clause 14.4.7) respectively;
- The South of MacDonnell Ranges Planning Principles (clause 14.4.7); and
- The Alice Springs Land Use Framework to show the enlarged future urban area that includes Airport land and is known as Kilgariff (clause 4.3).

Dated 16th February, 2012.
