Legal Profession Act 2006

1. The Law Society Northern Territory pursuant to section 375 of the Legal Profession Act 2006 (the Act) exempts local legal practitioners holding practising certificates under the Act and being employees of the Australian Government Department of Defence from compliance with the section 376 of the Act and Regulations.
2. Pursuant to section 375 of the Act, the period of exemption shall be from 4.00pm on 30 June 2016 to 4.00pm on 30 June 2017, unless the instrument is earlier terminated by the Law Society Northern Territory.
3. This exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) The legal practitioners covered by this exemption must maintain professional indemnity insurance with respect to their practice (the alternative professional indemnity insurance), that contains at least, the minimum terms and conditions and that provides the same or a higher level of insurance cover than that provided by, the scheme entered into by the Law Society Northern Territory pursuant to section 378 of the Act.
 - (b) The alternative professional indemnity insurance shall include provisions for ongoing run-off cover for claims arising from activities of retiring / retired practitioners and practitioners who leave the practice or who have previously left the practice for any reason. The run off cover is limited to activities of the practitioners whilst acting within their role as an employee of the Australian Government Department of Defence and in connection with the legal practice of Australian Government Department of Defence.
 - (c) The legal practitioners that are covered by this exemption must provide the Law Society Northern Territory with a copy of the terms of the alternative professional indemnity insurance and provide evidence to the Law Society Northern Territory that they are covered by this alternative professional indemnity insurance.
 - (d) Such confirmation must specifically confirm by the statement the run-off provisions are provided in accordance with the above and it is the responsibility of Australian Government Department of Defence to confirm the extent of such coverage.
