REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

REPORT RELATING TO DETERMINATION NO. 3 OF 2006

1. Introduction

1.1 In accordance with the provisions of the Remuneration Act 1990, the Remuneration Tribunal by letters dated 18 October 2005, invited those members of the judiciary and statutory office holders whose offices are listed under section 13 of the Act, as well as those covered by relevant sections of the Fair Work Act 1994, to make submissions in relation to the remuneration of members of the judiciary and those office holders. The Tribunal also invited the Minister to make submissions in the public interest.

1.2 On 26 October 2005, the following notice was published in The Advertiser newspaper:

REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL

Review of Remuneration for Members of the Judiciary and other Statutory Officers

Section 8 (2) of the Remuneration Act 1990, requires the Tribunal to sit at least once a year to review its previous determinations. Accordingly, the Tribunal is conducting a review of the salaries payable to members of the Judiciary and other Statutory Officers.

Interested persons, organisations and associations are invited to submit in writing any views they consider should be taken into account in the above review.

The closing date is Wednesday, 9 November 2005 and submissions should be forwarded to:

The Secretary
Remuneration Tribunal
G.P.O. Box 1072
Adelaide, S.A. 5001

or alternatively submissions can be forwarded via the Tribunal's website: www.remtribunal.sa.gov.au

Telephone (08) 8226 4013
Facsimile (08) 8226 4174

2. Submissions

2.1 In response to the letters and notice the Tribunal has received written submissions from the Judicial Remuneration Co-ordinating Committee (JRCC), the Magistrates' Association of South Australia regarding review of motor vehicles for magistrates, the Minister in the Public Interest, and a member of the public.

The Tribunal also received a submission from A. E. Schapel, SM, regarding his salary following his appointment as a 'permanent' Deputy State Coroner. This will be addressed in a subsequent and separate Report and Determination.

2.2 While the Tribunal initially scheduled a hearing in this matter for 29 November 2005, the JRCC and Government representatives sought an extension of time with a view to making a joint submission on the matter of judicial remuneration. However, a joint response did not materialise with the parties subsequently providing separate sub-missions.

2.3 The Tribunal rescheduled its hearing for 19 December 2005, at which time it heard oral submissions from:

- Justice Bleby accompanied by Judge Anderson on behalf of the JRCC;
- David Prendergast on behalf of the Minister, in the public interest.

2.4 In summary, the JRCC submissions discussed:

- Judicial remuneration, remuneration-related conditions, leave entitlements and judicial numbers in South Australia, the Federal jurisdiction and other States and Territories. Copies of the most recent determinations of other Tribunals were included as part of the submissions;
- the reiteration of the concerns expressed in last year's submission regarding recruitment and retention of judicial officers both in the short and long term;

- the relevance of the use of the ABS survey of Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings, Wage Cost Index, the SA public sector salaries and the South Australian economic climate;

- the proposed operative date for any determined increase in salaries, which it was submitted should be 1 July 2005, to align with the Federal Courts, the Territories, Queensland, Victoria and Tasmania.

2.5 Mr Prendergast discussed relevant factors that the Tribunal has previously considered when making judicial determinations, including judicial independence, comparison of Federal, State and Territory judicial salaries, attention and retention factors; South Australia's economic circumstances and the operative date of any Determination. It was submitted that the Government supports the continuance of this approach, but with an emphasis on the economic factors and indicators applicable to South Australia.

In this regard the Minister submitted that:

- 'it would be appropriate for any increase in judicial salaries determined by the Tribunal to be consistent with CPI increases and the decision by the Commission cited above—i.e. not greater than 3.5%' and in doing so provided the Tribunal with a copy of 7 July 2005, Full Commission decision SA Government (Public Sector Salaried Employees) Salaries interim Award 2004—Final Salaries [2005] SAIRComm 26; and
- on the matter of the operative date, that in the context of a requirement for an annual review it was reasonable that there be at least 12 months between increases, and there should be no basis for any retrospectivity beyond the first pay period on or after 1 November 2005.

3. Comparison of Federal, State and Territory Judicial Salaries

3.1 As in previous reviews the Tribunal, amongst other things, examined the Federal and other State and Territory judicial salaries, presently applicable to the office of Puisne Judge.

3.2 The Tribunal is advised that these salaries are as follows:

| Court/State/Territory | Salary $ | Operative Date |
|--|-----------|----------------|
| Commonwealth—Federal and Family Court..... | 294 060 | 1.7.05 |
| New South Wales..... | 294 055 | 1.10.05 |
| Northern Territory..... | 294 060 | 1.7.05 |
| Australian Capital Territory..... | 294 060 | 1.7.05 |
| Western Australia..... | 300 809 | 1.1.06 |
| Tasmania..... | 288 608 | 1.7.05 |
| Queensland..... | 274 535 | 1.7.04 |
| Victoria*..... | 267 530 | 1.7.05 |
| South Australia..... | 281 620 | 1.11.04 |

*Victoria has recently passed the Judicial Salaries Act 2004, that provides parity with Commonwealth jurisdiction. Clause 5 (4) of that Act states, '... on and from 1 July 2007, a Supreme Court Judge is entitled to be paid a salary at the same annual rate as that payable from time to time to a Federal Court Judge'. This Act phases in the salary increases over 2006 and 2007.

4. South Australian Economic Circumstances

4.1 As stated earlier, the submission from the Minister stated that it would be appropriate that any increase in judicial salaries determined by the Tribunal be in line with increases approved by the Industrial Relations Commission for the public sector generally.

4.2 In addition the Minister provided the Tribunal with, amongst others, the following statistical data sourced from the Australian Bureau of Statistics:

- The Adelaide Consumer Price Index between the September quarter 2004 and the September quarter 2005 increased by 3.0% which was equal to the National average.

- Through the year to the September quarter 2005, wages growth as measured by growth in hourly rates of pay index in South Australia was 3.8%, 0.4 of a percentage point below National growth of 4.2%.
- South Australian employment increased by 1.9% during 2004-2005 in year average terms.

4.3 The JRCC referred to its previous 2004 submission on this matter and repeated its view that reliance on absolute levels of Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings could not be used as a reason for resisting parity with other jurisdictions. It was further submitted that public sector salaries in South Australia and their rates of salary increase have never been relevant to the fixation of judicial salaries and that the State's economy and capacity to pay are not relevant to the fixing of salaries for a particular occupation group.

5. Telephone Rental and Calls Allowance

The Telephone Rental and Calls Allowance for members of the Judiciary, members of the Industrial Relations Commission, the State Coroner, and Commissioners of the Environment, Resources and Development Court are currently prescribed in Determination No. 3 of 2005. These allowances will remain unaffected by this Determination.

6. Conveyance Allowance

Conveyance Allowances for Judges, Statutory Officers and Court Officers are currently prescribed in Determination No. 5 of 2005. These allowances were last adjusted in December 2005 and will remain unaffected by this Determination.

The Tribunal does not support the submission from the Magistrates' Association of South Australia in its claim for the Commodore Executive sedan to replace the Magna sedan benchmark vehicle. However, the Tribunal has recently reviewed its Conveyance Allowance and issued Report and Determination No. 5 of 2005—Conveyance Allowance. This review replaces the Magna sedan with the Mitsubishi 380 sedan.

7. Travelling and Accommodation Allowances

Travelling and Accommodation Allowances for Judges, Statutory Officers and Court Officers are currently prescribed in Determination No. 1 of 2005. These allowances were adjusted in April 2005 and will remain unaffected by this Determination.

8. Operative Date

- 8.1 The JRCC submitted that the date of operation for the determination should be 1 July 2005, while as stated the Minister submitted that against the background of the requirement for an annual review as set out in section 8 (2) of the Remuneration Act 1990 it is reasonable that the 2005 Determination have an operative date of no earlier than the first pay period commencing on or after 1 November 2005.
- 8.2 In all the circumstances the Tribunal was not persuaded to change its current practice regarding operative date.

9. Determination

- 9.1 Having regard to all the arguments and material put to the Tribunal, including those concerning State and Federal comparisons, productivity improvements, attraction and retention, economic factors, operative date and section 15 of the Remuneration Act which requires it to have regard to the constitutional principle of judicial independence, the Tribunal has determined that the salary of the Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court will be $293 170 per annum from 1 November, 2005. In this regard the Tribunal reiterates that its past approach of setting salaries in a 'National framework' continues to be appropriate and in the public interest.
- 9.2 The salaries of all other judicial officers and statutory office holders listed in the Determination have also been increased from the same date and to the annual amounts shown in the Determination.
- 9.3 The Deputy State Coroner's submission will be addressed in a subsequent Report and Determination.

Dated 14 February 2006.
