2. The proposal has been the subject of a Public Environmental Report (PER) and an Assessment Report under sections 46 and 46C of the Development Act 1993, and is hereafter referred to as the 'proposed Major Development'.

3. The proposed Major Development was the subject of a development application lodged in February 2005 by the applicant. The said application has been amended and expanded upon by the applicant's Public Environmental Report, dated 24 March 2006 and the applicant's Response Document, dated 4 July 2006.

4. The Governor was satisfied that an appropriate Public Environmental Report and an Assessment Report have been prepared in relation to the proposed Major Development, in accordance with sections 46 and 46C, Division 2 of Part 4 of the Development Act 1993, and have had regard, when considering the proposed Major Development, to all relevant matters under section 48 (5) of the Development Act 1993.

5. Recent amendments that have been approved are contained in the following documents and drawings:

- An application for the Building Rules approval for the Staff Village Stage 1 construction was made on 4 December 2006.
- An application for approval for the Construction Environmental Management and Monitoring Plan (CEMMP) was made on 11 December 2006.
- An application for approval for the revised Construction Environmental Management and Monitoring Plan (CEMMP) was made on 30 January 2007.

7. The Development Assessment Commission has in considering the application had regard to all relevant matters under section 48 (5) of the Development Act 1993.

8. The Development Assessment Commission is satisfied that the variation does not require the preparation of a further amended Public Environmental Report.

NOTICE TO MARINERS

No. 12 OF 2007

*South Australia—River Murray—Renmark, Loxton, Cobdogla,
Kingston-on-Murray and Swan Reach—SA Water
Off-takes Boomed*

MARINERS are advised that SA Water will be installing algal booms along the River Murray at Renmark, Loxton, Cobdogla, Kingston-on-Murray and Swan Reach Water Treatment Plants.

The booms at Renmark, Cobdogla, Kingston-on-Murray and Swan Reach will be attached to SA Water's permanent off-take structures and will not be an obstruction to vessel operators.

The boom at Loxton will be positioned a few metres upstream of the SA Water off-take. This should not be an obstruction to River users as it will be located in a shallow area confined by the River bank and the off-take structure.

Easily visible from the River surface the booms are bright orange and will act as a barrier for algal scum which usually floats on the surface of the water. They will remain in place until the risk of algal blooms recedes.

For further information please contact SA Water's Customer Contact Centre on 1300 650 950.

Mariners are further advised to use extreme caution when navigating in the vicinity of these off-takes.

DETERMINATION AND REPORT OF THE REMUNERATION TRIBUNAL
MINISTERS OF THE CROWN AND OFFICERS AND MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT

A. REPORT1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 Section 4(1)(c) of the Parliamentary Remuneration Act 1990 confers jurisdiction on the Remuneration Tribunal to determine from time to time electorate allowances and other allowances and expenses for members of Parliament.
- 1.2 The last determination covering these matters was issued on 18 March 2006, viz Determination No. 6 of 2006.

2. TRAVELLING AND ACCOMMODATION ALLOWANCES FOR MINISTERS AND THE LEADER AND DEPUTY LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION

- 2.1 Having regard to the increased travelling and accommodation allowances granted to the South Australian public sector and to Court Officers, Judges and Statutory Officers the Tribunal believes justification exists to increase these allowances. Consequently, the Tribunal has determined to provide equivalent increases to the travelling and accommodation allowances for Ministers of the Crown, the Leader of the Opposition and the Deputy Leader of the Opposition to operate on and from the date of this Determination.

3. COUNTRY MEMBERS ACCOMMODATION ALLOWANCE

- 3.1 Also having regard to increased accommodation allowances granted to the South Australian public sector and to Court Officers, Judges and Statutory Officers the Tribunal believes justification exists to increase the Country Members Accommodation allowance.

4. EXPENSE & ELECTORATE ALLOWANCES

- 4.1 Other entitlements, including the Expense Allowances for Ministers of the Crown, Expense Allowances of Officers of Parliament and Electorate Allowances for Members will continue as per Report and Determination No. 6 of 2006 until such time a further review of these allowances is undertaken.
- 4.2 This review is scheduled to occur later in 2007.

B. DETERMINATION1. SCOPE OF DETERMINATION

This Determination applies to Ministers of the Crown, the Leader and Deputy Leader of the Opposition and the Country Members of Parliament.

2. TRAVELLING AND ACCOMMODATION ALLOWANCES

- 2.1 A Minister who actually incurs expenditure when travelling on official business shall be paid:

- 2.1.1 Outside the metropolitan area, as defined by the Development Act 1993, but within the State - up to two hundred and thirteen dollars ($213) per day;
- 2.1.2 Interstate - up to three hundred and ninety-eight dollars ($398) per day for Sydney and up to three hundred and seventy-one dollars ($371) per day for places other than Sydney;
- 2.1.3 Any extra expenditure necessarily incurred in addition to the allowances provided in 2.1.1 and 2.1.2.

2.2 The allowances provided by this clause shall also be payable to the Leader of the Opposition who actually incurs expenditure when travelling on official business, and to the Deputy Leader of the Opposition when he or she deputises, at the Leader's request, for the Leader of the Opposition in his or her official capacity.

REPORT AND DETERMINATION OF THE REMUNERATION TRIBUNALINDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA
APPOINTMENTS – SENIOR JUDGE JENNINGS & JUDGE HANNON*A. REPORT

1. On the 13 December 2006 Judge BP Gilchrist, acting as the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia representative of the Judicial Remuneration Coordinating Committee, advised the Remuneration Tribunal of developments in the judicial employment arrangements of the Industrial Relations Court and the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia. Judge Gilchrist advised that these developments might require the Tribunal to issue a new Determination in respect of the remuneration for Judge Jennings as Senior Judge of the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia (the Court) and Judge Hannon as President of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia (the Commission).
2. Judge Gilchrist advised that as of 7 December 2006 Senior Judge Jennings appointment as the President of the Commission expired. He advised that Judge Jennings would continue in his role as Senior Judge of the Court and President of the Workers Compensation Tribunal (WCT) and that Judge Hannon had been appointed as President of the Commission and would continue his role as Judge of the Court.
3. The current remuneration for both of these judicial officers is detailed in the Tribunal's Report and Determination No. 10 of 2006.
 - 3.1 In relation to Senior Judge Jennings it provides a salary of $298,950 for as long as he continues to perform the functions of both Senior Judge of the Court and President of the Commission.
 - 3.2 In regards to Judge Hannon the Determination provides a salary of $270,290 on the basis that he is a District Court Judge assigned to the Court.
4. Judge Gilchrist submitted that it might be appropriate to increase Judge Hannon's remuneration package to reflect the additional responsibilities he now assumes. However, with regard to Senior Judge Jennings he submitted,

"...it might be considered inappropriate to reduce the remuneration of a judicial officer whilst he or she remains in office, such that if it is considered necessary to adjust his remuneration downwards this might be better achieved by not passing on a general increase in judge's salaries."

"...it is arguable that Senior Judge / President Jennings's remuneration should have been increased some time ago to reflect the additional responsibilities that he assumed upon the establishment of the Worker's Compensation Tribunal."

5. Clause 13 – Judicial remuneration of the District Court Act 1991 provides that:

“(1) The judicial officers are entitled to the remuneration determined by the Remuneration Tribunal in relation to respective offices.

“(2) A salary determined by the Remuneration Tribunal for a judicial office cannot be reduced by subsequent determination.”

6. The Tribunal sought advice from the Crown Solicitor’s Office (“CSO”) with regard to Judge Gilchrist’s submission as outlined in 4 above. In this regard the CSO advised,

“Having regard to the fact that the Judge no longer satisfies the criteria set out in the Determination quoted above - i.e. he no longer continues to perform the functions of President of the Industrial Relations Commission and President of the Workers Compensation Tribunal, he would no longer be entitled to the remuneration set under that determination.”

And furthermore,

“Even if the determination provided for remuneration less than that set in Determination No. 10 of 2006, it would not be in breach of section 13 of the District Court Act.”

7. The Tribunal sought submissions regarding these IRCSA appointments from the Premier and Attorney-General in the public interest. The Tribunal received a submission from the Premier on 18 January 2007 submitting that,

“Both Judges will be performing functions that are not only different to the functions set out by the Tribunal in its determination 10 of 2006, but are also different from the functions each Judge was previously performing” and

“It is submitted that Hannon and Jennings JJ should be remunerated at a level equivalent to a District Court Judge ($270,290 per annum) and that an additional allowance be paid to each judge to reflect the additional functions performed of President of the Commission and President of the Workers Compensation Tribunal respectively.” and

“In respect of remuneration for the additional functions, the Government submits that it would be appropriate for each Judge to be paid a base salary not exceeding that of a District Court Judge plus an additional allowance not exceeding 5% of the base salary payable (i.e. 5% of $270,290 per annum) for the additional responsibilities.

8. Having considered all the material before it the Tribunal concluded that both Judge Jennings and Judge Hannon warranted a salary above that of their substantive appointment as a District Court Judge, but not to the same extent. In this regard it has determined that the salary of the Senior Judge of the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia, while having the added responsibility of President of the Workers

Compensation Tribunal, should be $288,000 per annum and the salary of the President of the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia, while also being a Judge of the Industrial Relations Court of South Australia, should be $284,000.

B. DETERMINATION

1. The Tribunal determines that both Judge Hannon and Judge Jennings be paid an additional annual salary as a result of Judge Hannon's added responsibilities as President of the IRCSA and Judge Jennings added responsibility as President of the Workers Compensation Tribunal / Senior Judge of the Industrial Relations Court.

2. The annual salaries for the two members of the judiciary will be as follows:-

Senior Judge of the Industrial Relations Court and President of the Workers Compensation Tribunal - $288,000 p.a.

President of the Industrial Relations Commission and Judge of the Industrial Relation Court - $284,000 p.a.

3. With regard to Judge Hannon this Determination will operate from the date of his appointment as President of the Industrial Relations Commission being 7 December 2006. With regard to Senior Judge Jennings this Determination will operate on and from the first full pay period after 5 April 2007.

4. This Determination shall supersede Report and Determination No. 10 of 2006 in respect of the remuneration of each judicial officer.
