 MAGISTRATES COURT

Court Seal:

Information about this summons

Unless the summons has the Seal of the Magistrates Court on it, it has not been properly issued and therefore doesn't need to be obeyed.

What is this document?

This is a summons, which requires you to either attend court to give evidence, to produce documents to the court or both. If you need to produce documents, the summons specifies the documents that you need to produce

What do you have to do?

If the summons requires you to produce documents or things only, you may comply with it by delivering all of the documents or things to the Registrar of the Magistrates Court at the address given prior to the time and date on the summons. If you do that, you do not have to attend on the day and at the time shown on the summons.

You should only deliver documents or things to the Registrar if you have all of the documents or things requested and if you have no objection to producing them to the Court and to them being inspected by the parties to the case.

If you do deliver the documents or things to the Registrar, they should be securely packaged and have a copy of this summons attached.

If you object to the parties seeing the documents or things, you must come to court on the day and at the time listed and tell the Magistrate why you object to producing them.

If the summons requires you to give evidence (whether or not it also requires you to bring documents or things), you must attend at the Registry on the day shown in sufficient time to be in the correct courtroom by the time listed unless you contact the person who had this summons issued and have arranged to come to court at some other time.

What about the cost of attending court?

INTERVENTION ORDERS (PREVENTION OF ABUSE) ACT 200925—Tenancy order

- (1) If—
 - (a) the Court confirms an interim intervention order as an intervention order against a defendant or issues an intervention order against a defendant in substitution for an interim intervention order; and
 - (b) the intervention order prohibits the defendant from being on premises at which a protected person resides; and
 - (c) the defendant and protected person previously resided together on the premises; and
 - (d) the premises are subject to a tenancy agreement to which the defendant is a party,the Court may make an order (a tenancy order) that the defendant will be taken to have assigned the defendant's interest in the tenancy agreement to a specified person or persons with the landlord's consent.
- (2) However, a tenancy order may only be made if the Court is satisfied that the assignee consents to the assignment and—
 - (a) in a case where the landlord is a registered housing co-operative—the assignee is eligible for membership of the co-operative and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership; and
 - (b) in a case where the landlord is the South Australian Housing Trust or a subsidiary of the South Australian Housing Trust—the assignee meets the eligibility requirements of the Trust; and
 - (c) in any case—the assignee could reasonably be expected to comply with the obligations under the tenancy agreement,(so that it would be unreasonable for the landlord to withhold consent to the assignment).
- (3) A tenancy order takes effect on the day on which it is made or on such later day as is specified in the order.
- (4) If a tenancy order is made—
 - (a) the effect of the assignment is that the assignee is substituted for the assignor as tenant under the tenancy agreement (but the assignor remains responsible for liabilities that accrued before the date of the assignment); and
 - (b) the assignee is liable to indemnify the assignor for liabilities incurred by the assignor to the landlord because of a breach of the tenancy agreement by the assignee; and
 - (c) an amount paid by the assignor and held by way of security for the performance of obligations under the tenancy agreement will (unless the parties agree to the contrary) continue to be held as security for the proper performance by the assignee of obligations under the tenancy agreement.
- (5) The Registrar must give a copy of a tenancy order to—
 - (a) the protected person; and
 - (b) the defendant; and
 - (c) the landlord; and
 - (d) if the assignee is not the protected person—the assignee; and
 - (e) the Registrar of the Residential Tenancies Tribunal.
