INPUT TAX CREDIT ENTITLEMENT

You must answer the question below in relation to any entitlement to claim back the GST component of the CTP insurance premium. Under the Commonwealth GST Law, this is known as an "Input Tax Credit" (ITC). Guidance on how to respond to that question is provided below. However, if you are unsure you should consult your accountant or the Australian Taxation Office about your particular circumstances.

Step 1 Is the vehicle used for business (including Government and non-profit organisations) purposes?
If Yes - continue with Step 2.
If No - answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

Step 2 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle registered (or required to be registered) for GST?
If Yes - continue with Step 3.
If No - answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

Step 3 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle entitled to claim an ITC in relation to the CTP insurance premium?
If Yes - answer YES to the question below and pay the higher "ITC Entitled" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.
If No - answer NO to the question below and pay the lower "No ITC Entitlement" total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

If you have answered YES to all 3 questions, you must answer YES and pay the 'ITC Entitled' fee (if offered).

The "No ITC Entitlement" fee is only available where the vehicle is NOT used for any purpose that entitles the owner to an ITC.

What happens if I pay the incorrect premium?
It is your responsibility to pay the correct premium. If you are or become aware that a greater premium is payable, you must notify the insurer in writing. A failure to do so may incur a penalty. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable. If you breach any term of the Policy of Insurance, Section 124A (2) of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 allows the insurer, by action in a court, to recover from you a portion of the money paid or any costs incurred by the insurer in respect of a liability incurred by you. If you pay the incorrect premium or the vehicle is used for a purpose other than that stated in your application, you may be liable to recovery action if a claim is paid on your policy.

*GST Law means the Commonwealth legislation: A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

Compulsory Third Party Insurance

Compulsory Third Party (CTP) insurance provides compensation to people injured in motor vehicle crashes, where the crash is the fault of another person.

A driver more than 25% at fault in a crash resulting in a bodily injury may be required to pay an excess. Other costs may apply where there is a breach of the Policy of Insurance.

Please phone the South Australian Compulsory Third Party Insurance Personal Injury Helpline on 1300 137 331 in the event of a road accident resulting in personal injury.

Determining your premium class and rating district

The insurance rating district is based on the address where the vehicle is garaged, kept or operated.

The insurance premium class is determined by reference to the description on the enclosed 'CTP Insurance Premium Schedule' that best fits your vehicle.

Input Tax Credit (ITC) entitlement is any entitlement to claim back the GST component of the Compulsory Third Party (CTP) premium. You must choose the premium you pay on the basis of your ITC entitlement.

If the registered owner of this vehicle is entitled to claim any amount of the GST in the premium as an Input Tax Credit (ITC) then you must choose the ITC entitled total fee (if offered).

If the registered owner of this vehicle is not entitled to claim any amount of the GST in the premium as an Input Tax Credit (ITC) then you may choose the no ITC entitlement total fee (if offered).

If you are in any doubt as to whether you can claim an input tax credit for the GST you should consult your accountant or financial advisor. Generally, to be able to claim a GST credit, the vehicle owner would be registered for GST with the Australian Taxation Office (or be required to be registered for GST) and would be using the vehicle for business purposes, which includes vehicles owned by charities and government. Further information can also be obtained by contacting the Australian Taxation Office.

What happens if I pay the incorrect premium?

It is your responsibility to pay the correct premium. If you are or become aware that a greater premium is payable, you must notify the insurer in writing. A failure to do so may incur a penalty. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable.

If you breach any term of the Policy of Insurance, section 124A (2) of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 allows the insurer, by action in a court, to recover from you a portion of the money paid or any costs incurred by the insurer in respect of a liability incurred by you.

If you pay the incorrect premium or the vehicle is used for a purpose other than that stated in your application, you may be liable to recovery action if a claim is paid on your policy.

This form is an application for registration and Compulsory Third Party (CTP) Insurance under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.

For further information read the Compulsory Third Party Insurance premium schedule (MR85) provided with this renewal notice. This schedule is also available by visiting www.sa.gov.au or a Service SA Customer Service Centre.

The insurance premium class is determined by reference to the description on the enclosed 'CTP Insurance Premium Schedule' that best fits your vehicle.

Input Tax Credit (ITC) entitlement is any entitlement to claim back the GST component of the Compulsory Third Party (CTP) premium. You must choose the premium you pay on the basis of your ITC entitlement.

If the registered owner of this vehicle is entitled to claim any amount of the GST in the premium as an Input Tax Credit (ITC) then you must choose the ITC entitled total fee (if offered).

If the registered owner of this vehicle is not entitled to claim any amount of the GST in the premium as an Input Tax Credit (ITC) then you may choose the no ITC entitlement total fee (if offered).

If you are in any doubt as to whether you can claim an input tax credit for the GST you should consult your accountant or financial advisor. Generally, to be able to claim a GST credit, the vehicle owner would be registered for GST with the Australian Taxation Office (or be required to be registered for GST) and would be using the vehicle for business purposes, which includes vehicles owned by charities and government. Further information can also be obtained by contacting the Australian Taxation Office.

What happens if I pay the incorrect premium?

It is your responsibility to pay the correct premium. If you are or become aware that a greater premium is payable, you must notify the insurer in writing. A failure to do so may incur a penalty. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable.

If you breach any term of the Policy of Insurance, section 124A (2) of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 allows the insurer, by action in a court, to recover from you a portion of the money paid or any costs incurred by the insurer in respect of a liability incurred by you.

If you pay the incorrect premium or the vehicle is used for a purpose other than that stated in your application, you may be liable to recovery action if a claim is paid on your policy.

This form is an application for registration and Compulsory Third Party (CTP) Insurance under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959.

- The permit is current from the commencement time and date until MIDNIGHT of the expiry date nominated.
- The driver of the vehicle must hold a current Driver's Licence with the appropriate class.
- The permit does not relieve the owner or driver from compliance with the Road Traffic Act 1961 concerning equipment size, mass and safety of the vehicle.

- The vehicle must not be used for hire, reward, to carry a load, or for commercial purposes under the permit.
- The journey must commence in South Australia for the permit to be valid. Where a permit is issued for interstate travel, it is advisable to check with the interstate authority to ensure the permit issued in South Australia is valid for the nominated journey.
- The top portion of the permit is a TAX INVOICE for GST purposes when full payment is made. To find out whether you are eligible to claim the GST component of the Compulsory Third Party (CTP) insurance premium you should consult your accountant or financial advisor.

Penalties

- Penalties apply for the contravention of any term, condition or restriction endorsed on the permit.

Input Tax Credit Entitlement

You must answer the question on the front of the form in relation to any entitlement to claim back the GST component of the Compulsory Third Party (CTP) insurance premium. Under the Commonwealth GST Law*, this is known as an 'Input Tax Credit' (ITC). Guidance on how to respond to that question is provided below, however if you are unsure you should consult your accountant or the Australian Taxation Office about your particular circumstances.

- Step 1 Is this vehicle used for business (including Government and non-profit organisations) purposes?
 If Yes - continue with Step 2,
 If No - answer NO to the question on the front of the form and pay the lower 'No ITC Entitlement' total fee (if offered) for the selected period.
- Step 2 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle registered (or required to be registered) for GST?
 If Yes - continue with Step 3,
 If No - answer NO to the question on the front of the form and pay the lower 'No ITC Entitlement' total fee (if offered) for the selected period.
- Step 3 Is the Registered Owner of this vehicle entitled to claim an ITC in relation to the CTP insurance premium?
 If Yes - answer YES to the question on the front of the form and pay the higher 'ITC Entitled' total fee (if offered) for the selected period.
 If No - answer NO to the question on the front of the form and pay the lower 'No ITC Entitlement' total fee (if offered) for the selected period.

If you have answered YES to all 3 questions, you must answer YES on the front of the form and pay the 'ITC Entitled' fee (if offered). Upon payment of any 'ITC Entitled' fee, or standard fee where alternative fees are not offered, a Tax Invoice will automatically be provided with your Certificate of Registration.

What happens if I pay the incorrect premium?

It is your responsibility to pay the correct premium. If you are or become aware that a greater premium is payable, you must notify the insurer in writing. A failure to do so may incur a penalty. This penalty is in addition to any premium differential payable. If you breach any term of the Policy of Insurance, Section 124A (2) of the Motor Vehicles Act 1959 allows the insurer, by action in a court, to recover from you a portion of the money paid or any costs incurred by the insurer in respect of a liability incurred by you. If you pay the incorrect premium or the vehicle is used for a purpose other than that stated in your application, you may be liable to recovery action if a claim is paid on your policy.

*GST Law means the Commonwealth legislation: A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999.

This form is an application for registration and Compulsory Third Party (CTP) Insurance under the Motor Vehicles Act 1959. For further information and assistance in determining the appropriate premium, please refer to the Compulsory Third Party insurance premium schedule (MR85) provided at any Service SA Customer Service Centres.
