Public Call on Available Hectares in the Haslam (North Bank) Aquaculture Zone of the Aquaculture (Zones – Streaky Bay) Policy 2011 – Open 12/12/2017 to 02/02/2018

ATAB CRITERIA AND MINISTER'S ASSESSMENT GUIDELINES

The Aquaculture Tenure Allocation Board (ATAB) will assess applications and make recommendations to the Minister for Agriculture, Food and Fisheries or delegate as to any applications that should not be granted and as to the order of merit of the other applications. The key objective of the tenure allocation process under the Aquaculture Act 2001 (Act) is to ensure an equitable and transparent process is followed to allocate tenure to operators who will use the marine resource at an optimum level (in terms of the quality and quantity of output relative to the capacity of the environment).

ATAB assesses all applications for new leases within aquaculture zones (in State waters), together with the proposed activity to be licensed to ensure fairness in the tenure release process. Under section 35 (5) the ATAB must assess each of the applications received in accordance with a public call for applications taking into account—

- (a) the objects of the Act; and
- (b) any prescribed criteria or other relevant provisions of the applicable aquaculture policy;
- (c) any applicable criteria and weightings for the public call; and make a recommendation to the Minister as to whether or not the lease and corresponding licence should be granted.

The Objects of the Act are:

- to promote the ecologically sustainable development of marine and inland aquaculture;
- to maximise the benefits to the community from the State's aquaculture resources; and
- to ensure the efficient and effective regulation of the aquaculture industry.

Part A - ATAB criteria and weightings

The ATAB will assess applications and apply the following criteria established in accordance with section 35(2)(b) of the Act:

- That the intended purpose is within the objects of the Act.

- That the lease area to which the application relates must be located within the applicable zone area of the applicable zone policy and be for the farming of the permitted species.
- That the size of the applicant's proposed lease site or sites does not exceed the available hectares within the applicable zone area of the applicable zone policy.
- The previous knowledge and experience of the applicant in the farming of the permitted species including in conditions comparable to those in the applicable zone area.
- That the applicant shows a high level of commitment to ensuring that the proposed aquaculture operations will be managed in an environmentally sustainable manner and operations will be compliant with the requirements of the Act.
- That the applicant has the financial capacity (including the business capacity of the applicant) to establish and operate the proposed site as a viable enterprise.
- That the applicant is ready to develop and commence operations on the site immediately or as soon as possible.
- That the applicant shows a high level of commitment to ecologically sustainable development of the site and to the long-term growth and development of the aquaculture industry and its contribution to, and links with, the regional economy.

Part B – Minister's Assessment Guidelines

Where applications are assessed as being of otherwise equal merit, applicants must meet all three criteria to be eligible to receive preference for their proposal. • Applicants should state in their application whether they intend to claim preference for their proposal and provide evidence that they meet all three of the criteria necessary to receive preference for their proposal. • Applicants claiming preference for their proposal should provide details of any infrastructure or stock to be relocated from a storm damaged site to the proposed site and evidence of any other relevant linkages to their existing farming operations in Streaky Bay or elsewhere. • Applicants should also note that PIRSA will conduct its own investigations and provide ATAB with its own evidence as to applicants' eligibility to receive preference, including an evaluation of Production Returns and Environmental Monitoring Program reports for the relevant year.

The ATAB provides a recommendation to the Minister as to successful (and non-successful) applications in accordance with section 35(7) of the Act. Where applications are assessed as being of otherwise equal merit, the ATAB may also recommend applications to be given preference to assist recovery from storm damage as outlined in the Minister's Assessment Guidelines. One or more applicants may be offered leases provided that the total area granted as a result of this call for applications does not exceed the hectares released within the zone. The period of any lease issued to a successful applicant(s) as a result of this ATAB process will be for a period of one year only.

*For example - Applicants should ensure that they are able to meet conditions of the lease, licence and Aquaculture Regulations 2016. Therefore, applicants should refer to examples of lease and licence conditions which are available on the aquaculture public register www.pir.sa.gov.au/aquaculturepublicregister.

A successful applicant recommended by the ATAB will be eligible to submit a licence application to PIRSA which will be assessed in accordance with the objectives of the Act. A recommendation by the ATAB to grant tenure to an applicant does not guarantee success in obtaining an aquaculture licence. PIRSA and the Environment Protection Authority (EPA) will use additional information to determine any specific licence conditions required. The first renewal period of any lease issued to a successful applicant(s) as a result of this ATAB process will be for a period of one year only thereafter the period of renewal is in the discretion of the Minister in accordance with the Act.

Lease and licence conditions provided on the public register are for guidance only. Conditions may vary between sites, and it is the responsibility of the operator to ensure they are familiar with their lease and licence conditions, once the lease and licence are granted.

In addition, operators are required to comply with the requirements of all statutes, regulations, by-laws, ordinances, rules or other forms of statutory instruments or delegated legislation applicable to the licensed site or to the use of the licensed site by the licensee, including but not limited to the Act, Aquaculture Regulations 2016 and the Livestock Act 1997. It is the responsibility of applicants to understand the relevant pieces of legislation. Further information on South Australian legislation can be found on the South Australian Legislation website (<http://www.legislation.sa.gov.au>).

Lease/licence holders also must make themselves familiar with other policies of PIRSA as they relate to the operations of the aquaculture farm. These policies are available on the PIRSA web site (<http://www.pir.sa.gov.au/aquaculture/policies>).

The court may require you to notify the prosecution in writing whether you consent to the prosecution not calling witnesses to prove the admissibility of the following kinds of evidence:

- (a) documentary, audio, visual, or audiovisual evidence of surveillance or interview;
- (b) other documentary, audio, visual or audiovisual evidence;
- (c) exhibits.

If you fail to comply with such a notice, the court will assume you have no objection.

- Notice of defences

The court may require you to give written notice to the prosecution if you intend to call evidence at the trial which tends to establish that—

- (a) you are mentally unfit to stand trial; or
- (b) you were mentally incompetent to commit the alleged offence(s); or
- (c) the circumstances of the alleged offence(s) occurred by accident; or
- (d) you were entitled to any property which is the subject of the offence(s); or
- (e) you were acting for a defensive purpose.

The court may also require you to give written notice to the prosecution if you intend to call evidence at the trial—

- (a) relating to the defences of provocation, automatism, necessity or duress; or
- (b) that you were intoxicated at the time of the alleged offence(s).

If you fail to give the prosecution notice of any of these matters, you may call evidence about them but the prosecutor or the court or both may comment to the jury on your failure to give notice.

3—Expert evidence

If expert evidence is to be called for the defence at the trial, written notice of your intention to call the evidence must be given to the prosecution at the same time that the defence case statement is filed in court and given to the prosecution or, if the evidence does not become available to the defence until later, or if any expert information already provided to the prosecution in a written notice changes, as soon as practicable after such evidence becomes available or the defence becomes aware of such changes.

The notice must set out the name and qualifications of the expert and describe the general nature of the evidence and what it tends to establish.

The notice must be given in the form required by the Supreme/District Court Criminal Rules.

If you wish to introduce expert psychiatric evidence or other expert medical evidence relevant to your mental state or medical condition at the time of the alleged offence(s), the court may require you to submit to an examination by an independent expert approved by the court.

If you fail to submit to a psychiatric or other medical examination as required by the court, the court may not allow you to call expert psychiatric or medical evidence which you wish to tender to the court.

If you fail to comply with any other requirement in relation to expert evidence, you may not be allowed to call the evidence without the court's permission and the prosecutor or the court may comment on your non-compliance to the jury.

4—Alibi evidence

Alibi evidence is evidence that you were at some place other than the scene of the alleged offence(s) at the relevant time.

If you wish to call alibi evidence at your trial and the evidence was not given at your committal hearing, written notice of your intention to call the evidence must be given to the prosecution at the same time that the defence case statement is filed in court and given to the prosecution.

If you do not give notice you may not be able to call alibi evidence, and the prosecutor and the court may be able to comment to the jury on your failure to give notice of that evidence before the trial.

The notice must—

- (a) contain a summary of the facts that you wish to establish by calling the alibi evidence; and
- (b) include the name and address of the witness you intend to call to give the alibi evidence; and
- (c) contain any other particulars and be in the form required by the Supreme/District Court Criminal Rules.
