THE following application for exemption from the provisions of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas) (the Act) has been granted:

1. Down Syndrome Tasmania Inc – (14/08/020) – Application for an exemption granted under section 57 of the Act for a period of three years.

This exemption has been granted to permit Down Syndrome Tasmania Inc to restrict the participation of dancers in its BrightStars dance group (excluding support persons) to people with Down syndrome on the basis that the restriction is for the purposes of:

- a) promoting social equality for persons with Down syndrome;
- b) encouraging persons with Down syndrome to develop self-confidence and self-esteem through the association's programs including BrightStars dance group; and

- c) ensuring that resources of Down Syndrome Tasmania Inc and the expertise of its staff are used appropriately for the benefit of people with Down syndrome.

Granted on the 1st day of September 2014.

The exemption is for the period of three years subject to the fulfilment of the conditions that Down Syndrome Tasmania Inc:

- a) report on or before 1 March 2015 to the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner on actions taken in reliance on this exemption; and
- b) on at least one occasion in the 12 months immediately after this order is made, organise and promote training for Down Syndrome Tasmania's staff, members and participants through the Office of the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner's training and education program to increase awareness of rights and obligations under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas).

A person may apply to the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal for a review of the Commissioner's decision within 28 days from the date of this notice being published.

ROBIN BANKS, Anti-Discrimination Commissioner.
