ELECTORAL ACT 2004 - SECTION 59

Notice of prospective cancellation of registration of the Palmer United Party: failure to return review of party registration form

The Tasmanian Electoral Commission (the Commission) hereby gives notice that—

- On 15 October 2015 the registered officer of the Palmer United Party was given notice in writing under section 58(2) of the Electoral Act 2004 that the Commission was going to conduct a review of the party register.
- The review sought updated information about the registered members of the party, and this information was required to be provided, under section 58(2) of the Act, on a review of party registration form and to be returned to the Commission by Monday 16 November 2015.
- The registered officer of the Palmer United Party did not complete and return the party registration form by the due date.
- If the review of party registration form is not returned before the expiration of 30 days from the date of this notice the Commission will, in accordance with section 59(1) of the Act, cancel the registration of the party.
