Anti-Discrimination Commissioner, Tasmania

Exemption/s Granted

The following application for exemption from the provisions of the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas) (the Act) has been granted:

1. The Roman Catholic Trust Corporation of the Archdiocese of Hobart (Archdiocese of Hobart) – 15/08/055 – Application for an exemption granted under section 57 of the Act for a period of three years.

This exemption has been granted to permit the Archdiocese of Hobart to advertise and employ women only in the positions of Crisis Worker(s) and Team Leader(s) at the Annie Kenney Young Women's Emergency Accommodation Service on the basis that:

- a) the discrimination is for the purposes of operating the Archdiocese of Hobart's Annie Kenney Young Women's Emergency Accommodation Service for young women aged between 13-21 years who may be experiencing violence, homelessness or who are at risk of becoming homeless;
- b) being a woman is a genuine occupational requirement of working with women who require crisis accommodation and other services provided by Archdiocese of Hobart's Annie Kenney Young Women's Emergency Accommodation Service because staff working in these roles all have regular personal contact with the young women accessing the crisis accommodation services and the young women may be facing homelessness due to family violence involving a male perpetrator;
- c) the accommodation facilities provided by the Archdiocese of Hobart's Annie Kenney Young Women's Emergency Accommodation Service are for women and girls aged between 13 and 21 years and, as such, include residents who are girls under the age of 18 years; and
- d) the services provided are aimed at empowering young women by providing sufficient support to enable them to progress towards meeting their goals as identified from assessment and within their case plans.

Granted on the 23rd day of December 2015.

The exemption is for the period of three years subject to the fulfilment of the conditions that the Archdiocese of Hobart:

- a) reports on or before 30 June 2016 to the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner on actions taken in reliance on this exemption; and
- b) on at least one occasion in the 12 months immediately after this order is made it will organise and promote community education for its staff, members, officers, clients of the Archdiocese of Hobart through Equal Opportunity Tasmania's community education program to increase awareness of rights and obligations under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1998 (Tas).

A person may apply to the Anti-Discrimination Tribunal for a review of the Commissioner's decision within 28 days from the date of this notice being published.
