EXEMPTION

Application No. 49 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("the Act") by the Hepatitis C Council of Victoria Inc. ("the Council"). The application for exemption is to enable the Council to advertise for and accept as volunteer workers only those people who identify themselves as suffering from Hepatitis C, in relation to its "peerHOTline" project, its "Shared Voices Bureau" project and any other project where the involvement of volunteer workers of that kind is considered by the Council to be beneficial or desirable.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application and on hearing the submissions from Ms Jill Meade, Co-ordinator of the Council, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the Council to advertise for and accept as volunteer workers only those people who identify themselves as suffering from Hepatitis C, in relation to its "peerHOTline" project, its "Shared Voices Bureau" project and any other project where the involvement of volunteer workers of that kind is considered by the Council to be beneficial or desirable.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the Council to advertise for and accept as volunteer workers only those people who identify themselves as suffering from Hepatitis C, in relation to its "peerHOTline" project, its "Shared Voices Bureau" project and any other project where the involvement of volunteer workers of that kind is considered by the Council to be beneficial or desirable.

LATE NOTICES

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Road Safety (Vehicle Registration)
Regulations 1999

Notice is given in accordance with section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994 that a Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared in relation to the Road Safety (Vehicle Registration) Regulations 1999.

The current regulations regarding the registration of vehicles, the Road Safety (Vehicles) Regulations 1988 will be revoked on 9 February 1999 in accordance with section 5 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994. The Road Safety (Vehicle Registration) Regulations 1999 are proposed to provide a replacement set of regulations to give effect to the provisions of the Road Safety Act 1986.

The objectives of the proposed regulations are to ensure accountability for the use of vehicles, to ensure that vehicles are safe for use and are operated in a safe manner, and to collect appropriate fees. It is proposed that the objectives of the regulations will be achieved through the establishment of a registration and permit system.

The proposed regulations establish:

- a system of registration for motor vehicles and trailers;
- categories of exempt vehicles and vehicles which may be registered with conditions;
- provisions for application for: renewal, transfer, curtailment and evidence of registration;
- some obligations for registered operators (formerly called owners) of vehicles;
- provision for the issue of notices in respect of defective vehicles and licensing of persons to check vehicle roadworthiness;
- requirements in hazardous areas; and
- registration and administrative fees;

The benefits of the proposed regulations exceed the costs by $77 million per year, plus substantial social and environmental benefits. No other realistic alternatives to the proposed regulations, or to individual Parts, were identified. The regulations are capable of enforcement.

The proposed regulations would implement the agreed national policy approved by the Ministerial Council for Road Transport. Each Australian State and Territory has agreed to adopt similar regulations. During development of the national policy, the National Road Transport Commission consulted widely.

The proposed regulations impose a restriction on competition in terms of the Guidelines for the Application of the Competition Test to New Legislative Proposals as VicRoads is the only provider of registration services. However, the social and economic benefits warrant this restriction.

Public comments are invited on the proposed regulations and the RIS: copies may be obtained from VicRoads' Bookshop, Tel. 9854 2782 or by e:mail to Bookshop@vrnotes.roads.vic.gov.au.

Written submission will be received up to 5.00 p.m. on 12 November 1998 at the following address: John Lewis, Registration & Licensing Department, VicRoads, 60 Denmark Street, Kew, Vic. 3101, or by e:mail to: Lewisjo@vrnotes.vic.gov.au.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
