EXEMPTION

Application No. 119 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Professional Models Association of Australia Inc. for exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide and advertise its services as an employment agency in circumstances where:-

- (a) one of its clients has requested it to recruit, for employment by that client, a person of a particular age, sex or race or with particular physical features; and
- (b) if that client himself or herself recruited a person of that kind, that recruitment would not be prohibited by the Act because an exemption in Part 3 or 4 would apply.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing Robert D'mech on behalf of the applicant and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 19 November 1998, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide and advertise its services as an employment agency in circumstances where:-

- (a) one of its clients has requested it to recruit, for employment by that client, a person of a particular age, sex or race or with particular physical features; and
- (b) if that client himself or herself recruited a person of that kind, that recruitment would not be prohibited by the Act because an exemption in Part 3 or 4 would apply.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to provide and advertise its services as an employment agency in circumstances where:-

- (a) one of its clients has requested it to recruit, for employment by that client, a person of a particular age, sex or race or with particular physical features; and
- (b) if that client himself or herself recruited a person of that kind, that recruitment would not be prohibited by the Act because an exemption in Part 3 or 4 would apply.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 November 2001.

Dated this 19 November 1998.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 118 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by C. A. Barry, Deputy Electoral Commissioner on behalf of the Victorian Electoral Commission. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the positions set out in Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the following positions set out in Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 established the office of the Electoral Commissioner as an independent officer reporting to Parliament.
- That Act places restrictions on the ability of the Electoral Commissioner or electoral officials to nominate for election to, or to be a member of, the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly.
- Schedule 2 of the Local Government Act 1989 permits a council to authorise the Electoral Commissioner and the electoral officials to conduct elections for the council and places restrictions on the ability of those electoral officials to nominate for election, or to act, as Counsellor, for the Council for which that election is held.

- The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 and the Local Government Act 1989 require election officials who conduct elections for the Victorian Parliament or Municipal Councils to take an oath that they will perform their duties impartially.
- In order to ensure that Electoral Officials are, and appear to be impartial, it is desirable that the prospective employer of Electoral Officials should be able to take into account whether or not they hold political benefits or engage in political activities.
- The Tribunal's predecessor, the Equal Opportunity Board, granted a similar exemption to the applicant by Reasons for Decision dated 19 October 1995 and that exemption expired on 16 November 1998.
- The only change in the circumstances put forward by the applicant in this application and in the application for the former exemption is that, by virtue of section 16 of the Public Sector Management and Employment Act 1998, the Electoral Commissioner now has, in relation to the staff of the Victorian Electoral Commission, the powers of an Agency Head.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995. This exemption is granted only for the purpose of enabling the prospective employer of Electoral Officials to take into account the fact that those seeking employment as electoral officials hold or do not hold political beliefs or views or engage, refuse or fail to engage in political activities.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 November 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 121 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by South East Employment Links. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to assist unemployed people between 15 and 24 years into employment.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to assist unemployed people between 15 and 24 years into employment.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- South East Employment Links is a State Government funded, not for profit organisation. They are funded to assist young unemployed people into employment.
- As a result of the high youth unemployment rate, this service attempts to assist unemployed young people to find employment.
- The 15 to 24 age group are assisted with resume preparation as well as interview skills and knowledge on how to access jobs in the current environment.
- The program intends to assist this target group by providing information from different workplaces to give them insight into various job requirements. Many young people are uncertain of what they would like to do and the program also provides vocational counselling to young people.

- The program also offers post placement support which is vital especially in a first job.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to assist unemployed people between 15 and 24 years into employment. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 November 2001.

LATE NOTICES

EXEMPTION

Application No. 122 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Doveton Secondary School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koorie Educator.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koorie Educator.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- There is a significant Koorie population at the school and in the area.
- Koorie students would relate better to a fellow Koorie and/or elders especially in regard to student welfare. The Koorie Education will act as a support role to Koorie students within the school.
- A Koorie Education has a better understanding of the community support structures that can assist the student with some of the issues that may come from outside the school.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koorie Educator.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 25 November 2001.
