Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Gaming No 2 (Trade Promotion Lotteries)
Regulations 1998

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (Trade Promotion Lotteries) Regulations 1998.

The objectives of the proposed Gaming No. 2 (Trade Promotion Lotteries) Regulations 1998 are to:

- facilitate the orderly and efficient conduct of trade promotion lotteries in Victoria; and
- to prescribe the things under the Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 which are necessary or convenient with respect to trade promotion lotteries.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 trade promotions will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966. It regulates the conduct of minor gaming (including raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes and trade promotions).

The proposed Regulations specify:

- Conditions for trade promotion lottery permits;
- Additional conditions for scratch and win promotions;
- Information to be kept in records as required under the Act;
- Conditions for trade promotion lotteries with a prize value of $5,000 or less which are not subject to a permit.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. The Act provides that it is illegal to conduct a trade promotion lottery other than in accordance with the Act, the regulations, and the prescribed conditions.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 4 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Gaming No 2 (General) Regulations 1998

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (General) Regulations 1998.

The Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 prohibits the playing of a lottery unless authorised by a Minor Gaming Permit and only a community or charitable organisation may apply for a Minor Gaming Permit. The overall objective of the proposed Gaming No. 2 (General) Regulations 1998 is to ensure that community and charitable organisations receive the benefit of minor gaming activities and that minor gaming activities are not conducted as commercial gaming. is to facilitate the orderly and efficient conduct of minor gaming in Victoria. This will be achieved by prescribing general or miscellaneous things under the Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 which are necessary or convenient for the operation of the Act or the other Regulations under the Act.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 minor gaming will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966.

The proposed Regulations prescribe:

1. A sporting or recreational club or association for the purposes of section 4(1)(b) of the Act;
2. General and specific requirements for a device and a game including spinning wheels, used at amusement centres, fetes, carnivals etc. for the purposes of section 9 of the Act;
3. The authorities and officers which a person may divulge information for the purposes of section 104 of the Act.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the proposed Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. The Act provides that it is illegal to conduct minor gaming other than in accordance with the Act, the regulations, and the prescribed conditions.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 4 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Gaming No 2 (Fees) Regulations 1998

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (Fees) Regulations 1998.

The Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 prohibits the playing of a lottery unless authorised by a Minor Gaming Permit or a trade promotion lottery permit. It provides that only a community or charitable organisation may apply for a Minor Gaming Permit.

The objective to be achieved by the proposed Regulations is facilitation of the efficient allocation of resources by recovering the costs of administering the permit process.

The Regulations prescribe fees for:-

Calcutta sweepstakes;
Applications for minor gaming permits;
Trade Promotion Lottery permits
Operators licences for bingo centres
Bingo Employee licences
Replacement identification
Permit condition amendment

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 minor gaming will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. The Act provides that it is illegal to conduct minor gaming and trade promotion lotteries other than in accordance with the Act, the regulations, and the prescribed conditions. The imposition of a permit scheme supports this level of regulation.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 4 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Gaming No 2 (Lucky Envelopes) Regulations

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (Lucky Envelopes) Regulations 1998.

The objectives of the proposed Gaming No. 2 (Lucky Envelopes) Regulations 1998 are to promote community confidence in the sale of lucky envelopes and ensure that only declared community or charitable organisations benefit from their sale and that they are not conducted as a commercial gaming activity.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 lucky envelopes will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966. It regulates the conduct of minor gaming (that is raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes etc).

The proposed Regulations specify conditions to which minor gaming permits authorising the sale of lucky envelopes will be subject, general requirements for the sale of lucky envelopes and standards with which electronic vending machines of lucky envelopes must comply, as well as record keeping requirements on permit holders.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. The Act provides that it is illegal to sell lucky envelopes other than in accordance with the Act, the regulations, and the prescribed conditions.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 4 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994
REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT
Gaming No 2 (Bingo) Regulations 1998

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (Bingo) Regulations 1998.

The objectives of the proposed Gaming No. 2 (Bingo) Regulations 1998 are therefore to:

- facilitate the orderly and efficient conduct of bingo in Victoria; and
- prescribe the things under the Gaming No. 2 Act 1997 which are necessary or convenient with respect to bingo games, bingo centres, bingo operators, bingo employees and bingo generally; and
- promote community confidence in the conduct of bingo and ensure that declared community or charitable organisations benefit from its conduct and that it is not conducted as a commercial gaming activity.

The proposed Regulations prescribe the conditions of a bingo permit, the rules of the game of bingo, and the conditions for a bingo centre operator's licence and a bingo employee's licence.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 bingo will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966. It regulates the conduct of minor gaming (that is raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes etc). It provides for the conduct of bingo, and the issuing of bingo permits, employee licences and operator licences.

The proposed regulations specify conditions to which these permits and licences will be subject and rules of the game of bingo.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. It is illegal to conduct bingo without a permit or other than in accordance with the rules of the game of bingo or to operate a bingo centre or be employed in a bingo centre without the appropriate licence.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 2 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Gaming No 2 (Raffles) Regulations 1998

Notice is given under section 11 of the Subordinate Legislation Act 1994, that a Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) has been prepared in relation to the proposed Gaming No 2 (Raffles) Regulations 1998.

The objectives of the proposed Gaming No. 2 (Raffles) Regulations 1998 are to promote community confidence in the conduct of raffles and ensure that only declared community or charitable organisations benefit from their conduct, and that they are not conducted as a commercial gaming activity.

The reason for the proposed Regulations is that from March 31 1998 raffles will be regulated under the Gaming No 2 Act 1997. This Act replaces Parts 1 and 1A of the Lotteries Gaming and Betting Act 1966. It regulates the conduct of minor gaming (that is raffles, bingo, lucky envelopes etc).

The proposed Regulations specify conditions to which these minor gaming permits authorising the conduct of raffles will be subject, conditions for raffles which do not require a permit (that is raffles with a prize value of $5,000 or less), and make provision for the keeping of records and the disposal of unclaimed prizes.

An RIS has been prepared in respect of the Regulations. The RIS has been prepared to examine the proposed Regulations and consider and evaluate alternatives and it concludes that the objectives could best be achieved by making the Regulations.

It is noted in the RIS that alternatives to making the Regulations are limited by the requirements of the Act. The Act provides that it is illegal to conduct a raffle other than in accordance with the Act, the regulations, and the prescribed conditions.

The RIS clearly demonstrates that the proposed Regulations are the most effective means of meeting the objective.

Copies of the RIS may be obtained by contacting the Victorian Casino and Gaming Authority on 9651 3333 between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays or collected from Level 5, 35 Spring Street Melbourne 3000.

Public comments or submissions are invited on the proposed Regulations and RIS. All comments and submissions must be in writing and must be received at the above address by no later than 5 pm on Wednesday 4 March 1998.

All submissions will be treated as public documents.
