WHITEHORSE PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment
Amendment L32

The City of Whitehorse has prepared Amendment L32 to the Whitehorse Planning Scheme.

The Amendment rezones the land at 14 Federation Street, Box Hill from part Extractive Industrial Zone and part Proposed Public Open Space to Mixed Use Zone with a Potentially Contaminated Land Overlay.

The land located within the Extractive Industrial Zone previously formed part of the Box Hill Brickworks, which ceased operations in 1988. The site is currently operating as a commercial land fill in order to fill the quarry and eventually rehabilitate the site. The landfill is reaching capacity and it is anticipated that operations will cease by the end of 1998.

The rezoning is required as the current zone does not provide for potential future uses. The proposed Mixed Use Zone provides the opportunity to consider a range of residential and non residential uses which meet the local community needs. Whilst a planning permit is required for all non residential uses, floor space limits for offices and shops apply.

The Amendment can be inspected at The City of Whitehorse, Statutory Planning Office, Service Centre, 379 Whitehorse Road, Nunawading, Vic. 3131 and Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Level 3 Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000.

THE PUBLIC SECTOR MANAGEMENT
ACT 1992

The Secretary to the Department of Justice exempts the following position from the requirement to notify a vacancy:

Position No. 48/05/8400/2, Project Officer,
Purchasing Policy Unit, VPS-4, Corporate
Management, Department of Justice.

Reason for exemption

The position has been reclassified to recognise a demonstrated and significant shift in work value in a specialised area of work, the incumbent is an officer who is recognised as satisfactorily discharging all of the requirements of the position and the Department Head considers that it is unlikely that advertising the vacancy would attract a more suitable applicant.

ALAN THOMPSON
Secretary to the Department of Justice.

EXEMPTION
Application No. 24 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal constituted by the President pursuant to Section 182 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Act by Upper Murray Centre Against Sexual Assault. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to counsel male and female victims of sexual assault.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to counsel male and female victims of sexual assault.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Upper Murray Centre Against Sexual Assault is one of 15 centres Against Sexual Assault in Victoria. All their services are provided to women, children and men.
- The Women's Safety Survey, December 1996 (Australian Bureau of Statistics) claims 99% of sexual violence was perpetrated by men.
- Of women who have experienced sexual violence since turning 15 years of age, 100% of the perpetrators were male
- 13% of service users are male (adults and children), in almost all instances they have been sexually abused by male perpetrators. Since most men or boys are abused by other males they usually request a female counsellor. In circumstances where a male requests a male counsellor the applicant will provide them with a list of alternative options in their area. These include male counsellors, social workers, psychologists or psychiatrists who work at North East Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service, Ovens and King Community Health Centre, the Delatite Community Health Service, Wodonga Adult Mental Health Service, the Upper Hume Community Health Service, Yarrawonga Community Health Service, Resolve (Adolescent Mediation Service), the Behaviour Intervention and Support Team (Intellectual Disabilities Services), Upper Murray Family Care and the Department of Human Services.

The applicant will offer to make the referral and organise an appointment for the service user or alternatively provide a list of names and names and phone numbers if the service user would prefer to make the arrangement himself.

- The centre provides the following services:
 - (a) Counselling for victims/survivors of sexual assault, their families and friends.
 - (b) Group work and facilitating all women therapy groups.
 - (c) Crisis telephone counselling and support during medical forensic examinations.
 - (d) Information and referral regarding medical and legal options.
 - (e) Community education.
 - (f) Professional training.
 - (g) Advocacy for victim/survivors of sexual assault.
 - (h) Court support during a trial.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to counsel male and female victims of sexual assault. This exemption to remain in force until 8 April 2001.

President

EXEMPTION

Application No. 29 of 1998

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") by Debbie King, Director, Office for Women's Affairs on behalf of the Department of Justice and the Department of Natural Resources and Environment. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to offer bursaries to rural women.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms Patrick of Counsel for the applicant, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to offer bursaries to rural women.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the Department of Justice and the Department of Natural Resources and Environment from the operation of sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable them to offer bursaries to rural women only. This exemption to remain in force until 8 April 2001.

Dated this 2 April 1998.

The Anti-Discrimination Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") by Beach House Fitness Centre Pty Ltd for exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide health and fitness centres catering for women only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Adam Price for the applicant, and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 6 January 1998, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide health and fitness centres catering for women only.

Subordinate Legislation Act 1994NOTICE OF INTENTION TO PROCEED TO MAKE REGULATIONS

Freedom of Information Regulation 1998

A Regulatory Impact Statement was published in relation to the proposed Freedom of Information Regulations 1998.

The proposed regulations prescribe certain government bodies to be subject to the Freedom of Information Act 1982, in addition to those bodies already subject to it, and exempt from the Act a small number of statutory office-holders who are considered to have a special independence from government that requires them, in the public interest, to be placed outside the scope of the Act.

No submissions were received in respect of the proposed regulations. I have determined that the regulations should be made without change to the form of draft regulations that accompanied the Regulatory Impact Statement, and I now give notice of my intention to proceed with the making of the proposed regulations.
