Notice of Amendment to Environment Local Law 1997

Part 4 Section 19

Keeping of Animals

Notice is given that the Strathbogies Shire Council, at its Ordinary Meeting held on Tuesday 18 August 1998, resolved that the Environmental Local Law 1997 Part 4 Section 19 which provides for the keeping of animals, be amended as follows:-

1. “Large Animals

An owner or occupier of property must not keep or allow to be kept any domestic or large animal at any time within a built up area* (except for each type and number of animal as set out in the following schedule), without a permit issued under Council guidelines”.

In determining whether or not to issue a permit, the following criteria will be assessed:-

- proximity of adjoining properties,
- support and attitude of neighbours,
- environmental impact (shelter, feed, flies and dust),
- amenity of the area,
- types of animals to be kept.

Permits must be renewed on an annual basis and may be revoked at the discretion of Council if any of the permit guidelines are not being complied with.”

2. That the Permit Fee be $10 per animal per annum.
3. That the table to Part 4, Section 19, of the Environment Local Law 1997 be amended to:-

Small Domestic Animals

Type of Animal	Maximum Number Allowed in Built Up Area* without a Permit
Dogs	2
Cats	5
Poultry	5 (no roosters)
Guinea Pigs	4
Domestic Rabbits	4

EXEMPTION

Application No. 80 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Education Victoria. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct a women's only dinner.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct a women's only dinner.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Education Victoria in conjunction with the regional Women in Leadership Program organise a Women's Dinner for women in the Department of Education as a professional development activity. It is conducted by the Northern Metropolitan Regional division of the Department.
- The purpose of the evening is to provide a professional development and networking forum for women with women. The participants are principals, teachers, school administrative officers, student services support offices and public servants who are employed in all aspects of education across the region.
- The central presentations of the evening will focus on issues related to women's employment, health and wellbeing. The key speaker will be giving an account of her personal journey as a woman. If males were to attend the dinner the focus on women and women's issues would be diminished and the free exchange of views (particularly those relating to personal experience) would be likely to be restricted.
- The dinner provides an opportunity to get together socially and discuss issues of professional interest. It gives women exposure to role models and helps them gain leadership skills and self-confidence.
- The dinner is to be held on Wednesday 18 November 1998 and is to be conducted on an annual basis.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct a women's only dinner. This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 September 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 52 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 ("The Act") by Ms Ivamy-Phillips trading as AIP Consultancy, to enable her to refuse to provide her services as an introduction agency to certain applicants and to ask certain questions of applicants in connection with that business.

Upon reading the material and hearing the evidence given in support of this application, and on hearing submissions from Mr Waller of Counsel and Dr Maddison, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the application in part and to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to:-

- (a) refuse to provide her services to a person who is married and not separated from his or her spouse;
- (b) ask any potential clients whether they identify themselves as Jewish;
- (c) refuse to provide her services to a person who does not identify himself or herself as Jewish;
- (d) advertise her introduction service as catering only for those who identify themselves as Jewish.

In accordance with its Reason for decision dated 28 August 1998 the Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to:-

- (a) refuse to provide her services to a person who is married and not separated from his or her spouse;
- (b) ask any potential clients whether they identify themselves as Jewish;
- (c) refuse to provide her services to a person who does not identify himself or herself as Jewish;
- (d) advertise her introduction service as catering only for those who identify themselves as Jewish.

This exemption is for a period of three years. This exemption is to remain in force on and from the date of publication of this notice in the Government Gazette until 2 September 2001.

Dated this 28 August 1998.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 88 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Rudolf and Judith Huebner, proprietors of the Lakes Motel, Daylesford for exemption from Sections 42, 49, 50, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicants to refuse accommodation at their motel to children under 12 years of age.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Huebner and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 26 August 1998, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Act to refuse accommodation at their motel to children under 12 years of age.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicants from the operation of Sections 42, 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation at their motel to children under 12 years of age.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 September 2001.

Dated 26 August 1998.

Deputy President

N.B. A copy of the Reasons for Decision is available from the Registrar of the Anti-Discrimination List.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 62 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by The Victorian Offender Support Agency. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to employ males to work the sleepover shifts in the agency's residential programs.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to employ males to work the sleepover shifts in the agency's residential programs.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Victorian Offender Support Agency ("VOSA") provides a range of support and treatment programs for people who have been in contact with the criminal justice system. These services are provided for general ex-offenders, and for special needs groups such as those with an intellectual disability or mental illness.
- VOSA operates 5 houses in different regions of Melbourne for people with an intellectual disability. These houses target clients who have behavioural problems and are unable to be managed by other general services. All the clients are male and most have a significant history of sexual offences against women and/or children. Types of violence exhibited towards workers has been sexual threats towards female staff members, displaying pornographic material, assault of female workers including punching and hitting with a belt, stalking of female staff, theft of women's lingerie, attempts at physical contact and general aggressive behaviour towards both men and women.
- VOSA provides these clients with supported accommodation with 24 hour staffing, structured day activities including recreation and vocational programs, counselling and referral to other specialist services for counselling/therapy. The funding allows for 2 staff members to be at each house during the day when activities take place and these positions are taken up by a male and a female. A sleepover shift operates at night with a sole worker who is responsible for any incidents occurring overnight and given the nature of the client group the risks to staff would be significantly reduced by having only male workers on overnight sleepover shifts.
- VOSA currently employs 110 staff of whom 63 are male and 47 are female. VOSA wish to minimise the risk to staff in one of their specific high-risk areas by employing males for the sleepover.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to employ males to work sole staff sleepover shifts in the agency's residential programs.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 2 September 2001.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 94 of 1998

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Kathleen van der Weerden on behalf of Peninsula Reclaim the Night Collective. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and organise a "Reclaim the Night" March for women only on Friday 30 October 1998.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and organise a "Reclaim the Night" March for women only on Friday 30 October 1998.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The march provides an opportunity for women from all backgrounds to come together.
- It acknowledges the shared threat, or experience, by women, of male violence.
- A women only space can be a safe environment for women who have experienced violence.
- Women can draw energy and inspiration from others who are experiencing similar realities.
- A women only march challenges the notion that women require men to protect them.
- The march can demonstrate the resources and strength of women to others in the community, both women and men.

- It allows for women to organise and find their own strategies to overcome violence.
- It raises awareness of the issue of violence against women in our society.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and organise a "Reclaim the Night" March for women only on Friday 30 October 1998.

PIPELINES ACT 1967

This notice is published in accordance with the requirements of Section 22 of the Pipelines Act 1967.

Westcoast Energy (Bairnsdale Power No. 1) Pty Ltd (ACN 075 067 702) as nominee for the EastCoast Power Project, (a project sponsored by Eastern Energy Ltd. and Westcoast Energy Australia Pty Ltd.) (hereafter both being referred to as the "applicant") submitted an application for a Permit to Own and Use a Pipeline ("the permit") under the Pipelines Act 1967 for the construction of an underground pipeline which would transport gaseous hydrocarbons from Eastern Gas Pipeline (EGP) to the proposed EastCoast Power plant.

Notice is hereby given that if:-

- (a) the application for the permit is granted; and
- (b) notice is published in accordance with Section 22A of the Pipelines Act 1967;

an easement will be compulsorily acquired by me over all land which is "available for compulsory acquisition" under Section 12AB and Part III of the Pipelines Act 1967, and which has not been acquired by agreement through negotiations with EastCoast Power. The easements compulsorily acquired will vest in the permit holders.

The acquisition of the easement rights will effect a compulsory acquisition of native title rights and interests (if any) along the route of the pipeline by the State, under a Compulsory Acquisition Act, as that term is defined in the Commonwealth Native Title Act 1993.

Dated 25 August 1998.

5. If an employee of a community legal centre falls within one of the categories set out above (but not otherwise), he or she shall only be required to pay $100: (see S. 201(1))

Where an applicant for a practising certificate or for a variation of a condition of a practising certificate the holding or variation of which, or an applicant for registration as a foreign practitioner, or an interstate practitioner notifies the Board they have engaged in legal practice in Victoria, the granting or notification of which would make them a member of any of the classes set out above, makes their application or gives their notification after 31 January 1999, the contribution payable by the person shall be calculated in accordance with the following formula: $$[(n/12) \times C] - P$ where this gives a figure greater than 0. n is the number of whole months of 1999 after the date of the application or notification; c is the contribution payable by members of the relevant class and p is the amount (if any) already paid under this determination as at the date of the application or notification.

Planning and Environment Act 1987
BOROONDARA PLANNING SCHEME
 Notice of Approval of Amendment
 Amendment L55

The Minister for Planning and Local Government has approved Amendment L55 to the Boroondara Planning Scheme.

The Amendment comes into operation on the date this notice is published in the Government Gazette.

The Amendment introduces Clause 132B requiring a planning permit to be obtained prior to the demolition of any building within six specific areas thereby providing interim demolition controls whilst Amendment L54 to the Boroondara Planning Scheme goes through a normal public exhibition process. The six identified areas are:

- Fairview Avenue, Burwood
- Goodwin Street and Somerset Road, Glen Iris
- Great Glen Iris Railway Junction Estate and Environs, Ashburton
- Holyrood Estate and Environs, Camberwell
- Ross Street, Surrey Hills
- Toorak Estate and Environs, Glen Iris.

Clause 132B exempts a building from the control if a demolition permit under the Building Regulations 1994 was issued for that building on or before the date of gazettal of this Amendment.

Amendment L55 will remain in place as an interim control until 6 August 1999 unless the Minister for Planning and Local Government extends the period in writing.

A copy of the Amendment can be inspected, free of charge, during office hours, at the Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne and at the offices of the Boroondara City Council, 8 Inglesby Road, Camberwell.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
