The purpose of this Local Law is to:-

 - (b) A clear walkway of at least 1.8 metres wide that commences 1 metre from the building line is maintained at all times;

 - (a) They are not located within 1.8 metres from the building line of the permit holder's premises;
 - (b) An area of at least 1.8 metres from the building line is maintained as a clear walkway; and
 - (c) the footpath provides for safe and unimpeded access for all footpath users;

 5. Extend the definition of dangerous or unsightly land to include land that contains derelict vehicles.
 6. Allow a person to apply to the Council for a permit to exempt an area from the requirements of certain provisions of the Consumption of Liquor in Public Places Local Law.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 341 of 1999

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Independent Corporate Solutions Pty Ltd for exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:-

- (a) specify criteria for positions in respect of which the applicant acts as an employment service for, or otherwise on behalf of, its client employer's, being criteria requiring specified qualifications or minimum levels of qualifications or specified years of experience or minimum levels of experience, and to designate those positions by titles which include an indication of seniority or importance of the positions (such as the work "senior"); and
- (b) specify criteria for positions in respect of which the applicant acts as an employment service for, or otherwise on behalf of its client employer's, being criteria based on any attribute within the meaning of the Act, if the positions are based in, or the holders of the positions must ordinarily work in a country other than Australia and the work visa requirements of that country permit the grant of a work visa to enter that country only to a person who meets those criteria.

The application enables the applicant to specify the criteria referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) in advertisements and descriptions of the positions in question, and to apply those criteria in any employment decisions which the applicant makes in relation to those positions, including offering or refusing to offer employment in those positions, interviewing and short-listing for those positions, and the terms on which employment in those positions is offered.

In this exemption the conduct specified above is called "the relevant conduct".

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Moore and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 8 December 1999, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

This exemption is subject to the condition that, for each position or class of positions to which the exemption applies, the applicant must obtain from the client employer and keep a certificate from that employer stating that the specified criteria for the position are consistent with the duties or nature of the position or with the requirements of the work visa of the country in which the position is based or in which the holder of the position would ordinarily be required to work (as the case may be).

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 15 December 2002.

Dated 8 December 1999.
