Proposed Local Law

Activities Local Law 1999 (No. 1 of 1999)

A notice of Council's intention to make a Local Law pursuant to Part 5 of the Local Government Act 1989, to be called the Activities Local Law 1999 (No. 1 of 1999)

(“Local Law”), was published in the Age newspaper on Friday 30 April 1999.

The purpose of this Local Law is to:

- (a) provide for the peace, order and good government of the municipality;
- (b) control noise, behaviour, liquor consumption, animals, spruiking, busking, advertising signs, works and obstructions on roads, street trading, the use of toy vehicles and other activities;
- (c) protect the use of public places and control activities in or near them;
- (d) provide for safety in public places;
- (e) provide for, control and manage the use of premises and vehicles in particular circumstances;
- (f) to provide for, control and manage parking areas;
- (g) control, prevent and abate nuisances especially in relation to building sites;
- (h) revoke other Local Laws of the Council.

The general purport of the Local Law is as follows:

- (a) Part 2 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to control behaviour in public places and to prohibit persons acting in a socially unacceptable manner in or within hearing or sight of a public place. It includes the control on the use of toy vehicles and the requirement to collect and remove excrement deposited by animals in a public place.
- (b) Part 3 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to control the consumption of liquor in public places within certain areas of the municipality and during certain periods of the year.
- (c) Part 4 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to control advertising signs and the like in public places and on and between buildings within the municipality and the placing of goods and the like in public places.
- (d) Part 5 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to control the soliciting of gifts and money, busking, selling and other like behaviour in public places.
- (e) Part 6 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to control work undertaken on or to roads and prevent the use of roads being interfered with by obstructions.

- (f) Part 7 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to regulate the parking of vehicles within certain areas of the municipality.
- (g) Part 8 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to prevent nuisances caused by building works and to require persons to give 48 hours prior notice to the Council before commencing building works.
- (h) Part 9 of the Local Law contains provisions to address premises that have been allowed to reach a dilapidated, unsightly or dangerous condition.
- (i) Part 10 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to regulate the numbering of premises and the naming of roads.
- (j) Part 11 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to regulate and prohibit activities in public places not elsewhere covered by the Local Law, protect other assets of the Council such as pedestrian service signs and to prohibit obstructions in public places.
- (k) Part 12 of the Local Law contains provisions relating to the granting of permits under the Local Law.
- (l) Part 13 of the Local Law contains provisions relating to the enforcement of the Local Law and prescribes the penalties for offences and for infringement notices.
- (m) Part 14 of the Local Law provides for the delegation of the Council’s powers, duties and functions under the Local Law to members of Council staff.

A copy of the Local Law can be obtained from the following locations:

- Front Desk, Melbourne Town Hall, Swanston Street, Melbourne;
- North Melbourne Library, 66 Errol Street, North Melbourne;

Proposed Local Law

Environment Local Law 1999 (No. 2 of 1999)

A notice of Council's intention to make a Local Law pursuant to Part 5 of the Local Government Act 1989, to be called the Environment Local Law 1999 (No. 2 of 1999) ("Local Law"), was published in the Age newspaper on Friday 30 April 1999.

The purpose of this Local Law is to:

- (a) provide for the peace, order and good government of the municipality;
- (b) control, protect and conserve the environment;
- (c) control, protect and maintain the amenity of the municipality;
- (d) provide standards and conditions for certain activities in relation to the physical and visual environment within the municipality;
- (e) adopt, apply and ensure compliance with the Council's Environment Management Plan; and
- (f) revoke other Local Laws of the Council.

The general purport of the Local Law is as follows:

- (a) Part 2 of the Local Law contains provisions that aim to promote responsible land management throughout the municipality via the Council's Environment Management Plan. The Environment

Management Plan is incorporated into the Local Law.

- (b) Part 3 of the Local Law contains provisions to allow for variations to be made to the Environment Management Plan in relation to specific premises at the request of the owner or occupier of the premises.
- (c) Part 4 of the Local Law contains provisions that allow for variations to be made to the Environment Management Plan in relation to specific premises at the direction of an authorised officer.
- (d) Part 5 of the Local Law contains provisions relating to the enforcement of the Local Law and prescribes the penalties for offences and for infringement notices.
- (e) Part 6 of the Local Law provides for the delegation of the Council's powers, duties and functions under the Local Law to members of Council staff.

A copy of the Local Law can be obtained from the following locations:

- Front Desk, Melbourne Town Hall, Swanston Street, Melbourne;
- North Melbourne Library, 66 Errol Street, North Melbourne;
- East Melbourne Library, 122 George Street, East Melbourne; and
- Carlton Baths Community Centre, YMCA, 248 Rathdowne Street, Carlton.

Submissions on the proposal received by the Council within 14 days after publication of the notice in The Age newspaper April 30 1999, will be considered in accordance with Section 223(1) of the Local Government Act 1989, by the Local Laws Review (Submissions) Committee. Any person who has made a written submission to Council and has requested to be heard in support of the written submission is entitled to appear in person, or by a person acting on his or her behalf, before a meeting of the Submissions Committee, scheduled to be held on Wednesday 19 May 1999, commencing at 5.00 p.m., in the Melbourne Town Hall, Administration Building, Swanston Street, Melbourne.

Written submissions should be addressed to the Manager Governance Services, Melbourne City Council, Town Hall, Swanston Street, Melbourne 3000.
