EXEMPTION

Application No. 37 of 1999

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by A. J. Roberts Investments Pty Ltd for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for males only to be employed in the Applicant's hairdressing business.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Stephens, Solicitor, Mr Roberts, Director of the Applicant and Ms Cheney, one of the Applicant's Managers and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 16 July 1999, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for males only to be employed in the Applicant's hairdressing business.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for males only to be employed in the Applicant's hairdressing business. This exemption does not authorise the Applicant to advertise for males only to be employed in the Applicant's hairdressing business if the proportion on male employees of the Applicant to the total number of employees of the Applicant (including the male employees for whom it is proposed to advertise) would exceed 50%.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 21 July 2002.

LATE NOTICES

EXEMPTION

Application No. 36 of 1999

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Council for Adult Education for exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to conduct courses under the specified course name, targeted to the specified group and to advertise that the course is targeted for the specified group.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to conduct courses under the specified course name, targeted to the specified group and to advertise that the course is targeted for the specified group.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- CAE is a statutory authority performing its functions under the Council of Adult Education Act 1981.
- CAE is both a private provider and a State Training Board registered provider of adult education programs, offering fee-for-service and government supported vocational educational and training and continuing education programs throughout Victoria.
- CAE has developed two new courses for men, being "Personal Image for Men" and "Talking to Women".
- "Personal Image for Men" was created because it was CAE's experience from delivering mixed gender courses in this subject area, that some men would prefer to attend a course focussed on men's needs. Addressing makeup, skincare and wardrobe planning for both genders takes up time leaving some parts of the course content not being equally relevant to students of each gender.
- The "Talking to Women" course came from a "Talking to the Opposite Sex", course that happened to contain only men students. The men felt free to reveal their fears and concerns and ask questions in the context of a confidential learning environment.

- "Personal Image for Men" is complemented by "Image Makeover – Seminar and Image Makeover – Practical Workshop" designed for both men and women, while "Talking to Women" is complemented by "Talking to the Opposite Sex" which is also designed for both men and women.
- There is demonstrated demand for these courses.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to conduct courses under the specified course name, targeted to the specified group and to advertise that the course is targeted for the specified group. This exemption does not authorise the applicant to exclude from any course a person who is not part of the group targeted for that course.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 21 July 2002.

Dated 21 July 1999.

CATE MCKENZIE
Deputy President
