EXEMPTION

Application No. A356 of 1999

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Child & Family Services Ballarat Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Indigenous person for their Aboriginal Kinship Placement Support Program.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Indigenous person for their Aboriginal Kinship Placement Support Program.

- Child and Family Services Ballarat Inc. is a multi service, community based welfare agency.
- In conjunction with the Ballarat Aboriginal Cooperative, the Goolum Goolum Aboriginal Cooperative and the Department of Human Services, the agency has developed a joint initiative to provide an Aboriginal Kinship Placement and Support Program to operate within the DHS Grampian Region.

- The program would provide support for extended family or kinship placements and would seek to strengthen the relationships between the Aboriginal community and the Regional Child Protection services.
- In developing this proposal it was a strong view of the agencies that an Indigenous person would be most suitable candidate based on consideration of the need to ensure the cultural relevance of the program.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to advertise and employ an Indigenous person for their Aboriginal Kinship Placement Support Program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 December 2002.

Dated: 24 December 1999.

REGULATORY IMPACT STATEMENT

Supreme Court (Fees) (Amendment) Regulations
 County Court (Court Fees) (Amendment) Order
 Magistrates' Court (Fees, Costs & Charges) (Amendment) Regulations

A Regulatory Impact Statement has been prepared in relation to the proposed amendments to Court fees set in relation to the Supreme, County and Magistrates' Courts in the regulations named above.

The proposed Regulations increase the fee payable for the commencement of actions or counterclaims in each of the Courts. The purpose of the increase is to make provision for the necessary funding support to ensure that the operations of the Supreme Court Library may be continued without diminution of services to its users. The Supreme Court Library is a unique asset of considerable importance to the Courts, the legal profession and therefore to the general community who undertake or are affected by litigation. There is no other comparable resource in this State.

The amount of the increase is set at $10 in the Supreme Court, $5 in the County Court and $2.50 for cases over $10,000 in the Magistrates' Court and for applications for Probate where the value of the estate exceeds $1,000. These amounts represent an increase of between 1.17% and 1.66% of existing fees. The impact statement examines other funding options to secure the necessary levels of funding, including placing a surcharge on legal practitioners annual practicing certificates, and increasing the level of solicitors admission fees. It concludes that incorporating a modest levy on the initiation of cases in the Courts is the most equitable solution.

Public comments and submissions on the Regulatory Impact Statement are invited. Copies of the Regulatory Impact Statement may be obtained by telephoning Mr John Isaacs on (03) 9651 0389. It is also available on the Department of Justice website at <http://www.justice.vic.gov.au>

Written submissions on the Regulatory Impact Statement and the accompanying draft regulations will be received until 7 February 2000. All submissions will be treated as public documents.

Submissions should be addressed to: Mr John Isaacs, Courts and Tribunals Services, Department of Justice, Level 4/55 St Andrews Place, Melbourne 3002.
