Amend the Schedule to Clause 34.01 (Business 1 Zone), to remove the maximum combined leasable shop floor area in relation to the Rowville Lakes Shopping Centre, corner of Kelleets Road and St Lawrence Way, Rowville.

Rowville Lakes Shopping Centre is regarded as a secondary activity centre and it currently occupies the maximum allowable shop combined leasable floor area of 1795m². Limited opportunity exists for redevelopment in and around the Centre, and issues relating to the impact of any future applications to increase shop floor space will be able to be considered adequately in the Planning Permit Process.

EXEMPTION

Application No. 417 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Box Hill Archers Inc for exemption from Sections 59, 60, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to amend its rules to provide that junior members (aged under 18) have a vote at meetings of the association equivalent in value or voting power to 0.5 of a vote of a senior member of the association (aged 18 or over).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Nicholls and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 9 November 2000, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to amend its rules to provide that junior members (aged under 18) have a vote at meetings of the association equivalent in value or voting power to 0.5 of a vote of a senior member of the association (aged 18 or over).

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to amend its rules to provide that junior members (aged under 18) have a vote at meetings of the association equivalent in value or voting power to 0.5 of a vote of a senior member of the association (aged 18 or over).

This exemption is subject to the following conditions:-

1. This exemption does not relieve the applicant from compliance with the provisions of the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 or its rules in respect of alteration to its rules.
2. The applicant must ensure that the votes of junior and senior members have equal value if the members of the association vote on a proposal to exclude or restrict participation by junior members in the archery activities of the association.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 15 November 2003.

Dated 9 November 2000

CATE MCKENZIE
Deputy President

N.B. A copy of the Reasons for Decision is available from the Registrar of the Anti-Discrimination List.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A 447 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act

1995 by Kangan Batman Institute of TAFE. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Information Technology Trainee open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) applicants only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Information Technology Trainee open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) applicants only.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The position of Information Technology Trainee has been funded for 18 months for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers.
- The trainee will receive on the job training in the development, implementation and delivery of learning outcomes and in operational support for staff and ATSI students in relation to computer usage in both stand alone and network situations. The trainee will also assist in the development, implementation and maintenance of the "Koori" on-line learning project.
- The trainee will provide support and assistance to full-time and part-time students and staff who are of a Koori background only, working and studying in a TAFE environment.
- It is seen as crucial for the trainee to be of Koori background because of the necessity of relevant knowledge of culturally appropriate protocols, when assisting ATSI students.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Information Technology Trainee open to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) applicants only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 15 November 2003.

Road Safety Act 1986

SECTION 55A(5)

Procedure to be Followed in Assessing Drug
Impairment

Section 55A(5) of the Road Safety Act 1986 provides that the Roads Corporation may, by notice published in the Government Gazette, specify the procedure to be followed in assessing drug impairment.

In accordance with that section, I, Eric Howard, delegate of the Roads Corporation, specify the procedure contained in the Schedule to this Notice as the procedure to be followed in assessing drug impairment.

The Schedule

Procedure for Assessing Drug Impairment

1. This procedure is to be carried out by a member of the police force authorised to do so under section 55A(4) of the Road Safety Act 1986 (the “assessing officer”).
2. The procedure consists of the following:
 - an interview by the assessing officer of the person who is to be assessed (“the subject”);

- a request by the assessing officer to the subject to perform a Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus Test as described below;
- the performance of that test by the subject;
- observation by the assessing officer of the performance of the subject during that test;
- a request by the assessing officer to the subject to perform a Walk and Turn Test as described below;
- the performance of that test by the subject;
- observation by the assessing officer of the performance of the subject during that test;
- a request by the assessing officer to the subject to perform a One Leg Stand Test as described below;
- the performance of that test by the subject;
- observation by the assessing officer of the performance of the subject during that test;
- the progressive completion by the assessing officer of a Standard Impairment Assessment Report in accordance with the Regulations.

Interview Procedure

3. The interview consists of questions about the subject's name, address and date of birth, the circumstances that led to the interception of the subject and any recent history of illness, injury, medical treatment or drug use.
4. The purpose of these questions is to obtain relevant information as well as to permit observations to be made that may assist in establishing whether impairment is present or not.
5. If at any time during the interview the assessing officer suspects that the subject may be suffering from an injury or illness that may be the cause of impairment, the assessing officer must take immediate steps to arrange for the subject to be examined by a registered medical practitioner.

Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus Procedure

6. The assessing officer informs the subject that the assessing officer is going to check the subject's eyes. If the subject is wearing eyeglasses the assessing officer directs the subject to remove them. The assessing officer asks the subject if the subject wears contact lenses and notes the reply. The assessing officer instructs the subject to keep the subject's head still, and follow the movement of an object held by the assessing officer by moving the eyes only. The assessing officer directs the subject to focus on the object until directed to stop. This test should not be administered if the subject has an obvious abnormal eye disorder or an artificial eye.
7. The assessing officer observes and notes whether the subject's eyes track the stimulus together or one eye lags behind the other, whether both pupils are equal in size, whether the subject's eyes are able to pursue the stimulus smoothly, or with a jerky motion.
8. The assessing officer then observes each of the subject's eyes separately to determine—
 - (a) whether nystagmus is visible in the left eye when the eye is held as far to the left as possible or in the right eye when the right eye is held as far to the right as possible;
 - (b) whether, when each eye is observed separately, nystagmus is observable in the left eye before the left eye has moved beyond 45 degrees from the extreme left position, or in the right eye before the right eye has moved beyond 45 degrees from the extreme right position, or whether vertical nystagmus is present.
9. The assessing officer also notes any other observations that may be relevant to the subject's performance in this test.

Walk and Turn Procedure

10. The test is conducted on a dry, hard, level, non-slippery surface marked with a straight line. There should be sufficient room for the subject to complete nine heel-to-toe steps.

11. The assessing officer directs the subject to place the subject's left foot on the marked line, and the right foot in front of the left foot, with the heel of the right foot against the toe of the left foot. The assessing officer demonstrates these actions. The assessing officer then directs the subject to place the subject's arms down by the subject's sides and to stay in that position until directed to begin. The assessing officer tells the subject not to start to walk until told to do so. The assessing officer asks the subject whether the instructions have been understood, and if necessary, repeats them to the subject.
 12. The assessing officer then explains the test requirements, using oral instructions, accompanied by demonstrations. The subject is directed that, when told to start, the subject is to take nine heel-to-toe steps down the line, turn around, and take nine heel-to-toe steps back up the line. The assessing officer demonstrates two or three heel-to-toe steps. The subject is then directed to turn by keeping the subject's front foot on the line and taking a series of small steps with the other foot. The assessing officer demonstrates this manoeuvre.
 13. The subject is directed to keep the subject's arms down by the subject's sides throughout the test, to watch the subject's feet at all times, and to count each step out loud. The subject is also directed to not stop walking until the subject has completed the test. The assessing officer asks the subject whether the instructions have been understood, and if necessary, repeats them.
 14. The subject is then directed to begin and to count the steps, with the first step from the heel-to-toe position being counted as "One".
 15. The assessing officer notes whether the subject maintains balance while listening to instructions, starts to walk before being instructed to do so, stops while walking, does not walk 'heel-to-toe', steps off the line, uses the arms to maintain balance, takes the incorrect number of steps or does not turn as directed. The assessing officer also notes if the subject fails to complete the test.
- One Leg Stand Procedure
16. The assessing officer directs the subject to stand with the subject's feet together and the subject's arms down by the subject's sides, and to not start the test until told to do so.
- The assessing officer demonstrates this. The assessing officer then asks the subject whether the instructions have been understood, and, if necessary, repeats them.
17. The assessing officer then directs the subject that when told to start the subject must raise one leg approximately 15 centimetres off the ground with toes pointed out, with both arms straight, and by the subject's sides. The assessing officer demonstrates this.
 18. The assessing officer then directs the subject to hold that position and count out loud for thirty seconds in the manner demonstrated while the subject keeps the subject's arms by the subject's sides and watches the raised foot. The assessing officer then asks the subject whether the instructions have been understood, and, if necessary, repeats them.
 19. The assessing officer then directs the subject to start. The assessing officer allows the test to continue for 30 seconds. The test is discontinued after 30 seconds.
 20. The assessing officer then directs the subject to repeat the test while standing on the other leg.
 21. The assessing officer notes whether the subject sways while balancing, uses arms to maintain balance, hops, or puts the subject's raised foot on the ground. The assessing officer also notes if the subject is unable to complete the test. This information is recorded separately for each leg.
- Conclusion
22. At the conclusion of the above impairment assessment procedure, the assessing officer reviews all the available information including the investigator's roadside impairment assessment report, the result of any evidential breath alcohol analysis test, any information obtained from observation or questioning and the results of the three tests referred to in paragraph 2 above. The assessing officer then considers all of this information and forms an opinion as to whether the subject may be impaired by a drug, or drugs.
