EXEMPTION

Application No. A 479 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by The Graduate Union of the University of Melbourne Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to exclude from the activities of the "Graduate Links" group of the Union, members of the Union aged 45 years and over and to advertise those activities on the basis of that exclusion.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to exclude from the activities of the "Graduate Links" group of the Union, members of the Union aged 45 years and over and to advertise those activities on the basis of that exclusion.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The "Graduate Links" group is a sub-group of the Graduate Union, an association of the university graduates.
- The applicant wishes to regularise a grouping of its membership that is known as "Graduate Links" which has in fact existed informally for some years, which caters for single graduates aged under 45 years and aims to create an opportunity for people with different interests and qualifications to enjoy each others company in a friendly environment.
- The Graduate Union has social activities open to all members. Another sub-group, the Solo Graduates, consists of single university graduates of any age. Both groups organise similar functions. Members who are 45 years and over have the opportunity to attend a wide range of social functions, even if excluded from the activities of "Graduate Links".

- It is felt by some members of "Graduate Links" that open age events can scare away younger females. The group feels that they have fought very hard to achieve a group where young women feel comfortable and the activities provided are attractive to younger people.
- The union has previously been granted an exemption in respect of the Mono Group. That Group has since changed its name to Graduate Links.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to exclude from the activities of the "Graduate Links" group of the Union, members of the Union aged 45 years and over and to advertise those activities on the basis of that exclusion.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 6 December 2003.

DETERMINATION OF CHARGES PURSUANT TO SECTION 184A

I, John McMillan, Deputy Director of Public Transport, Department of Infrastructure, determine that the amounts which are to be charged by operators of tow trucks for the towing and storage of damaged motor vehicles, being vehicles less than 4.0 tonnes gross vehicle mass within the controlled area of Melbourne as gazetted in the Victoria Government Gazette on 1 October 1999 shall be –

In addition to the above charges, an after-hours surcharge of $54.00 ($158.00+$54.00 = $212.00 total charge) applies to tows allocated by the Accident Allocation Centre between 7.00 pm and 7.00 am.

2. For locked storage following towing from the scene of an accident within the controlled area, the following daily rates in accordance with Section 176 of the Transport Act 1983 shall apply:
