EXEMPTION

Application No. A31 of 2000

The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to adopt and implement amendments to its constitution having the following effect:-

- (a) that the Commission will consist of 8 athletes elected at Summer Olympic Games and two athletes elected at each Winter Olympic Games;
- (b) that to be eligible for election to the Commission an athlete must be aged 18 years or over;

In this exemption this conduct is called the "specified conduct".

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms Ordway, Solicitor and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 17 February 2000, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 59, 60, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the specified conduct.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A49 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Beverley Broadbent on behalf of Port Phillip Citizens for Reconciliation. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal Historian to write "An Aboriginal History of Port Phillip".

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal Historian to write "An Aboriginal History of Port Phillip".

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Port Phillip Citizens for Reconciliation have been granted an amount under the Victorian Federation Grants Scheme to employ a Koori person to write "An Aboriginal History of Port Phillip".
- The purpose of this project is to provide employment for an Aboriginal person and produce a history of the area now covered by the City of Port Phillip reflecting the Aboriginal perspective of events rather than reflecting that of white settlers.
- The granting of the exemption will promote the employment of Aboriginal people and will ensure that there is a diversity of perspectives available to those who seek information about the history of the district.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise and employ an Aboriginal Historian to write "An Aboriginal History of Port Phillip".

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 23 February 2003.
