Roads and Council Land
(Amendment) Local Law No. 10

Yarra City Council resolved on 8 February 2000 to make the Roads and Council Land (Amendment) Local Law No. 10 pursuant to the Local Government Act 1989 (“the Act”) for the purposes of:

- amending the Roads and Council Land Local Law No. 2 to include a new provision requiring the person in charge of a dog while in a road, footway or Council land to carry a litter device suitable to clean up any excrement deposited by his or her dog and to produce the device upon request of an authorised officer;
- promoting a physical environment free from hazards to health, in which residents of the Municipal District can enjoy a quality of life that meets the general expectations of the community; and

- preventing and suppressing nuisances which may adversely affect the enjoyment of life within the Municipal District.

The general purport of the Local Law is that it:

- inserts an additional sub-clause after clause 17.2 of the Principal Local Law stating:
 - “17.3 A person in charge of a dog on any road, footway or Council land must carry a litter device and must produce the litter device upon request of an authorised officer. Penalty: five (5) penalty units”;
 - defines litter device as an apparatus designed for the purpose of removing dog excreta and includes a paper or plastic bag; and
 - has an enforcement provision which creates an offence and an on the spot fine of $100 for failure to comply.

A copy of the Local Law may be obtained from the Richmond Town Hall, 333 Bridge Road, Richmond or the Collingwood Town Hall, 140 Hoddle Street, Abbotsford between the hours of 8.30 a.m. and 5.00 p.m. Monday to Friday.

DEBORAH COLE
Chief Executive Officer

Notice identifying provisions in a local law which regulates the use, possession and consumption of alcohol and which any police officer may enforce.

Whereas the Port Phillip City Council’s Community Amenity Local Law No. 1 makes provision in clauses 45 and 46 and in part 19 of the Procedures and Protocols Manual for:

- designating areas within the municipal district into which alcoholic beverages may not be taken and the times and dates during which such restrictions are to be in place;
- designating areas within the municipal district within which a person may not consume any alcoholic beverage or have in his or her possession any alcoholic beverage in an unsealed container and the times and dates which such restrictions are to be in place;

- detailing the process by which designation of areas, times and dates concerning such restrictions is affected;
- an offence to arise if a person acts contrary to such provisions and for such an offence to be prosecuted by an authorised officer or for an infringement notice to be issued by an authorised officer to any person acting contrary to the provisions of the local law;
- a specific prohibition on the consumption of alcoholic beverage or its possession in an unsealed container in any public place (other than a licensed premises permitted by the Liquor Licensing Commission or other excepted place) in the municipal district in the (Grand Prix) "race period" or in the day following it in any year ("race period" has the same meaning as in the Grand Prix Act 1994) regardless of whether the area concerned is signposted as a designated area; and

Whereas Section 224A of the Local Government Act 1989 permits any police officer to enforce such provisions as if he or she was appointed as an authorised officer under Section 224 of the Act provided a notice identifying the local law provision is published in the Government Gazette, the Council hereby gives notice in accordance with Section 224A of the Local Government Act 1989.

Details of the local law, procedures and protocols, locations, times and dates affected are available at the Council Offices at 220 Bank Street, South Melbourne, 333 Bay Street, Port Melbourne and the corner of Brighton Road and Carlisle Street, St Kilda.

Planning and Environment Act 1987
CARDINIA PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Amendment
Amendment C14

The Cardinia Shire Council has prepared Amendment C14 to the Cardinia Planning Scheme.

The Amendment proposes to:

- Rezone land in McBride Street, Upper Beaconsfield from an Environmental Rural zone to a Low Density Residential zone, delete the Environmental Significance overlay currently applying to the land and include the land in a Design and Development overlay and Vegetation Protection overlay. The Low Density Residential zone and associated overlays are considered to more appropriately reflect the nature of development existing in the area.

- Rezone the land bounded by Paternoster Road, Bailey Road, Sixth Avenue, the northern boundary of lots fronting Seaview Avenue, Lowen Road and Halcyon Grove, Cockatoo from a Rural Living zone to a Low Density Residential zone, delete the Environmental Significance overlay currently applying to the land, delete part of the Restructure overlay currently applying to the land and include the land in a Design and Development overlay and Vegetation Protection overlay. The Low Density Residential zone and associated overlays are considered to more appropriately reflect the nature of development existing in the area.
- Update the reference to the Gembrook Strategy in the local policy on the Gembrook Township (Clause 22.06) to take into account the amendment to the strategy in July 1999 which addressed an inconsistency in relation to building setbacks in Main Street.

The Amendment can be inspected at: Cardinia Shire Council, Municipal Office, Henty Way, Pakenham and Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

Any person who is affected by the Amendment may make a submission in writing about the Amendment. Submissions must be sent to: Philip Walton, Manager Planning, Building and Environment, Cardinia Shire Council, P.O. Box 7, Pakenham 3810 by Monday 3 April 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A47 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Women's Health Grampians Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to:-

- (a) advertise and employ women only.
- (b) restrict membership of the service to individuals who are women and to require that members of the service who are organisations be represented at meetings of the service only be women; and
- (c) provide the service to women only.

In this exemption the conduct referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) is called the "relevant conduct".

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 37, 42, 59, 60 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Applicant is a Registered Funded Agency under the Health Services Act 1988.
- The Service has the following objectives, which are set out in its constitution:-
 - to establish and maintain a Women's Health Service that is community based and run by women for women in the Central Highlands/Grampians/Wimmera Region, thereby creating an environment which is accessible, non-threatening and comfortable, where confidentiality and respect for the women's perspective is attributed the highest priority.
 - to offer assistance on health issues to women in this region, particularly to those in disadvantaged and necessitous circumstances, through the most appropriate means.

- to provide information and knowledge which will assist women to have control over their own bodies and the power to make informed choices.
- to create and implement a model of health care delivery sensitive to the special needs of women in the region.
- to work with other health-care providers in the region to develop programs and services sensitive to the special needs of women.
- to research and collect information about the needs of women in the community, in particular the health needs of women in the region, and to promote public awareness of those needs.
- to actively involve women in the region in the management and development of the Women's Health Service so that it will:

Allow women real control over provision and implementation of relevant health services.

Appropriately meet the needs of women from a wide range of cultural and socio-economic backgrounds.

Through appropriate programs, enable geographically and socially isolated women access to all services.

- to assist women in the region to explore and develop a wide range of alternatives and options to the medical model as a means of achieving health and well being.
- The applicant has previously been granted a similar exemption by this Tribunal which expired on 18 December 1999.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 37, 42, 59, 60 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to engage in the relevant conduct.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 March 2003.

Dated this 25 February 2000.

Ms CATE McKENZIE
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A48 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Interactive Media Corporation Pty Limited in regards to their Victorian "Introline" service for exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to waive the fees charged to users of the service for women who use the service.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms Rayment, Solicitor and Mr Minchinton, General Manager of the applicant and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 25 February 2000, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to waive the fees charged to users of the service for women who use the service.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to waive the fees charged to users of the service for women who use the service.

The exemption is subject to the condition that the applicant must without delay advise the Tribunal if the numbers of men and women users of its service become approximately equal.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 March 2003.

Dated this 25 February 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A67 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Bethany Family Support Inc. in respect of its Barwon Family Violence After Hours Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a female in its Supported Accommodation Assistance Program.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a female in its Supported Accommodation Assistance Program.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Bethany Family Support operate the Barwon Family Violence After Hours Service.
- This service has been funded to provide after hours support and access, temporary accommodation or refuge, to women and women with children escaping domestic violence. The service feels it would only be appropriate if women provided these services.
- Many of the women who are clients of this service are fleeing from domestic violence perpetrated by males.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a female in its Supported Accommodation Assistance program.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 1 March 2003.

Dated 25 February 2000.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
