Notice of Amendment

Amendment C4

The City of Whittlesea has prepared amendment C4 to the Whittlesea Planning Scheme.

The amendment affects land north of Findon Road, within Stages 1A, 1B, 1C, 2A and 2B of the Mill Park Lakes Estate, in South Morang. Other parts of the Mill Park Lakes Estate that are presently undeveloped are also affected. These areas are included in Lot 2 on PS 344371T.

The amendment proposes to change Maps 17 and 18 of the Whittlesea Planning Scheme by rezoning some land from Residential 1 Zone to Urban Floodway Zone. A small area of land in Stage 1A of the Estate will be rezoned from Urban Floodway Zone to Residential 1 Zone.

The parcel of land alongside the main retarding basin that contains the pump station site, will be rezoned from Residential 1 Zone to Public Use Zone - Service and Utility.

The amendment will significantly reduce the extent of the Land Subject to Inundation Overlay so that it only applies to the land that may be affected by a 1 in 100 year flood under the recently altered drainage conditions.

The proposed changes in zoning and overlay controls reflect the modified drainage patterns that have resulted from the construction of channels and retarding basins associated with the drainage scheme approved by Melbourne Water.

The amendment and explanatory report can be inspected at: City of Whittlesea, Civic Centre, Ferres Boulevard, South Morang and Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

This can be done during office hours and is free of charge.

Any person who may be affected by the amendment can make a submission to the planning authority. Submissions must be sent to: Chief Executive Officer, City of Whittlesea, Locked Bag 1, Bundoora MDC 3083.

WHITTLESEA PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment

Amendment C11

The City of Whittlesea has prepared Amendment C11 to the Whittlesea Planning Scheme.

The amendment applies to 19-35 Findon Road, Epping comprising approximately 1.44 hectares of land fronting the south side of Findon Road generally opposite its intersection with Brush Road.

The amendment proposes to change the Whittlesea Planning Scheme by rezoning that part of the land above the designated flood level from the 'Urban Floodway Zone' to the 'Residential 1 Zone', and removing the 'Land Subject To Inundation Overlay' from it.

The amendment corrects an anomaly currently in the Planning Scheme, where the whole of the land was zoned 'Urban Floodway' when the new Planning Scheme was introduced on 8 July 1999. This occurred even though part of the land was above the designated flood level and a planning permit had previously been issued by Council to subdivide this land into residential lots. The effect of the current zoning is that although the subdivision can proceed, the construction of houses on the lots is prohibited.

The amendment will facilitate the construction of houses on the resultant lots without the need for planning approval.

The amendment can be inspected free of charge during office hours at: Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000 and City of Whittlesea, Planning Services Department, Civic Centre, Ferres Boulevard, South Morang 3752.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A97 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Catherine Morrow in respect of Catherine's Aromatherapy & Relaxation Massage service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide her services to women only.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide her services to women only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant provides hourly treatments in aromatherapy and relaxation massage alone from her own premises. She regards the need to protect her personal safety and that of her child in this environment as a significant consideration.
- The applicant wants to establish a clinic specialising in women's health in a female only environment which clients find is comfortable, less embarrassing and safer given that there is a need for clients to undress when massage is performed.
- The applicant wishes to provide her services in a non-threatening environment to female clients who may have been the victims of abuse or violence.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to provide her services to women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 April 2003.

Dated this 6 April 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A98 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Annie North Inc.-Women's Domestic Violence Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to operate a women's only refuge service, provided and managed by women only.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to operate a women's only refuge service, provided and managed by women only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The service aims to provide, develop and extend supported accommodation, together with relevant support services for women and their dependent children, who are leaving or attempting to leave situations of domestic violence and other forms of assault and abuse against them.
- It also provides support, information, referrals and care to women who are survivors of assault and other forms of abuse through the provision of non-clinical, community based, women-centred services.
- It aims to develop links with other community agencies/services, particularly those specialising in women's accommodation services.
- The service undertakes to provide education in the community aimed at changing society attitudes, structures and institutions which support and perpetuate domestic violence and other forms of abuse and assault against women and children by:
 - providing speakers for community meetings and workshops;
 - producing and disseminating educational material, e.g. pamphlets, posters;
 - use of media.
- The service had been granted a previous exemption which expired on 21 December 1998.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to operate a women's only refuge service, provided and managed by women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 April 2003.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A124 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Anglicare Victoria. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ female Residential Care staff to work within the Southbridge Youth Accommodation Program within Anglicare Southbridge Youth Services.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to advertise and employ female Residential Care staff to work within the Southbridge Youth Accommodation Program within Anglicare Southbridge Youth Services.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Anglicare Southbridge Youth Services is a leading service for adolescents in Melbourne's southern suburbs, providing programs for young people 12 to 18 years of age.
- The services provided include preventative case-management support for young people living with their families; intensive support for young people who are homeless, and youth accommodation programs, incorporating Adolescent Community Placement and Intensive High Risk Accommodation.
- As part of the High Risk Accommodation Initiative, the service will be establishing specific residential settings designed around the needs of young people, who are clients of the Department of Human Services who have been designated to need an intensive one-to-one accommodation based on their challenging needs. These could include: a history of multiple placements, substance abuse which impacts on day to day coping skills or psychiatric or intellectual disabilities.

- The accommodation provided will usually accommodate one to two young people and when necessary will be gender specific. When accommodating women together, it is deemed as appropriate and integral to the client's needs to have a female staff member available to these young women.
- Female residential staff would be expected to effectively engage young women and work as a part of team to provide flexible work approaches to the challenging behaviours and disability issues presenting with these young women.
- Young women will often specifically wish to discuss issues with a female staff member due to past relationships with males, especially where there has been a history of sexual abuse, and will often not participate in the program if this need is not met.
- It is essential for female clients who have had a history of sexual or physical abuse to feel safe in their residential setting knowing that there are no males present. This kind of history often leaves young women frightened, vulnerable and unable to relate appropriately with men. It may also leave a male worker vulnerable to possible allegations of abuse.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise and employ female Residential Care staff to work within the Southbridge Youth Accommodation Program within Anglicare Southbridge Youth Services.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 April 2003.

Dated this 6 April 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A130 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Dental Health Services Victoria for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise and employ for two positions as research assistants in its Migrant Dental Health project, one position to be occupied by a person with skills in written and spoken English and Italian, and the other position to be occupied by a person with skills in written and spoken English and Greek.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Mr Palmer and Professor Wright and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 11 April 2000, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and employ for two positions as research assistants in its Migrant Dental Health project, one position to be occupied by a person with skills in written and spoken English and Greek.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise and employ for two positions as research assistants in its Migrant Dental Health project, one position to be occupied by a person with skills in written and spoken English and Italian, and the other position to be occupied by a person with skills in written and spoken English and Greek.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 April 2003.

Dated 11 April 2000.

CATE McKENZIE
Deputy President

FRANKSTON PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of approval of planning scheme

The Minister for Planning has approved the new Frankston Planning Scheme.

The planning scheme comes into operation on the date this notice is published in the Government Gazette.

The planning scheme affects all of the area of the municipal district of the City of Frankston and the area of Port Phillip Bay between the municipal boundary of the City of Frankston and an imaginary parallel line 600 metres from the municipal boundary.

The new Frankston Planning Scheme, as required by the Planning and Environment (Planning Schemes) Act 1996, includes selected State standard provisions from the Victoria Planning Provisions, including the state policy framework, various zones and overlays, particular provisions relating to use and development, administrative provisions and definitions. The new planning scheme also includes a municipal strategic statement, local policies and schedules to some of the zones, overlays and other provisions. The new scheme also incorporates a number of documents specified in the planning scheme, and contains new maps applying the standardised zones and overlays to land within the area covered by the scheme.

Any planning scheme or any part of a planning scheme in force immediately before the commencement of the new Frankston Planning Scheme is revoked to the extent that it applies to the area covered by the new Frankston Planning Scheme. Any amendment to a planning scheme or any part of a planning scheme which is revoked lapses.

A copy of the new planning scheme can be inspected, free of charge, during office hours, at: Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne 3000; Department of Infrastructure, South East Metropolitan Region, 12 Lakeside Drive, East Burwood 3151 and Frankston City Council, Davey Street, Frankston.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
