Planning and Environment Act 1987
MAROONDAH PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment
Amendment C7

The Maroondah City Council has prepared Amendment C7 to the Maroondah Planning Scheme.

The Amendment affects a public open space reserve at 56 Vinter Avenue, Croydon, The Council reserve is currently unimproved and contains minimal vegetation. Due to its poor location adjacent to an existing industrial precinct and its proximity to an excellent network of linear open space along the Croydon Main Drain, the public open space reserve is under-utilised by the local community.

The open space reserve has recently been determined to be surplus to the needs of the Maroondah Open Space network. It is located between an existing Residential 1 zone and Industrial 1 zone. The adjoining residential properties are developed with a mix of medium density housing units and detached houses, while the industrial land contains a manufacturing industry.

The Amendment will place the subject land into a zoning which is consistent with the adjoining residential land use and allow Council to dispose of the land in accordance with its Asset Rationalisation Program. It is considered more appropriate to place the open space reserve into a Residential 1 zone rather than Industrial 1, thereby allowing any residential solution on the site, to take into account the existing industrial use to the east.

The Amendment can be inspected free of charge during normal office hours at the following locations: Ringwood Civic Centre, Braeside Avenue, Ringwood; Ringwood Plaza Customer Service Centre, Civic Mall, Ringwood; Croydon Customer Service Centre, Main Street, Croydon; Croydon Civic Customer Service Centre, Civic Square, Croydon and at the Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre and Bookshop, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

Submissions must be sent to Mr Michael Marasco, Chief Executive Officer, Maroondah City Council, P.O. Box 156, Ringwood 3134, by Friday 16 June 2000.

Chief Executive Officer

Planning and Environment Act 1987
HUME PLANNING SCHEME
Notice of Amendment
Amendment C6

The Hume City Council has prepared Amendment C6 to the Hume Planning Scheme.

The amendment applies to approximately nineteen hectares of land previously owned by the Melbourne Water Corporation on the south east corner of Somerton Road and Pascoe Vale Road, Coolaroo.

The Business 2 Zone would apply to approximately five hectares of land in the north-west corner of the subject land and includes:

- (a) Lot 1 on Plan of Subdivision 422330A;
- (b) Lot 2 on Plan of Subdivision 422330A; and
- (c) Lot 7 on Plan of Subdivision 422330A.

The Business 4 Zone would apply to the remaining parcel of land, being Lot S2 on Plan of Subdivision 422330A that has a total site area of 13.566 hectares.

The amendment proposes to change the Hume Planning Scheme by rezoning the above land from Public Use zone Service and Utility to a part Business 2 and part Business 4 Zone.

The amendment also proposes to replace Clause 21.03 of the Municipal Strategic Statement.

The rezoning of the land will reflect its change in ownership and provide for a range of uses that are complementary to the Roxburg

Park Sub-Regional Shopping Centre and other surrounding land uses.

A copy of the amendment may be inspected at the following locations during office hours: Hume City Council, Broadmeadows Office, 1079 Pascoe Vale Road, Broadmeadows; Hume City Council, Sunbury Office, 36 Macedon Street, Sunbury and Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre and Bookshop, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

Submissions about the amendment must be sent to: Margaret Abbey, Manager City Planning, Hume City Council, P.O. Box 119, Broadmeadows, Vic. 3047 by Monday 12 June 2000.

Application No. A167 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 made by the Villa Maria Society. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ 4 male staff to provide direct care and support to men in a Community Residential Unit in Essendon.

Upon reading the material tendered in support by the of the application by the Disability Services Manager of the Villa Maria Society, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ 4 male staff to provide direct care and support to men in a Community Residential Unit in Essendon.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Villa Maria Society has been contracted by the Department of Human Services to provide direct care and support to two males with an intellectual disability and a psychiatric illness in a Community Residential Unit in Essendon.
- One client has a history of harassment and assault on women, and the other demonstrates serious behavioural management issues.
- Both clients are tall men with behavioural management issues relating to their psychiatric illness and intellectual disability, making them at times difficult to manage.
- A male would best suit these positions because a female may be put into a vulnerable or dangerous position.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ 4 male staff to provide direct care and support to men in a Community Residential Unit in Essendon.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 10 May 2003.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A168 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 made by Milparinka ATU Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male instructor at Milparinka Parkville.

Upon reading the material tendered in support by the of the application by the Executive Director of Milparinka, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male instructor at Milparinka Parkville.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Milparinka provide education training and support services to people with disabilities.
- A male instructor is required to supervise a male client who displays inappropriate sexual behaviour.
- The presence of a male instructor would ensure that a duty of care is maintained toward other clients in attendance as a number of the clients exhibit antisocial behaviour.
- Out of a total of 33 clients attending, 21 are male and 12 are female.
- Currently females occupy six of seven positions at Milparinka. It is appropriate to appoint a male instructor to create a gender balance within the staff employed.
- When dealing with issues such as male personal hygiene or human development, or assisting or instructing clients with toileting or in change rooms, it is more appropriate to have a male instructor rather than a female.
- A male instructor would provide an appropriate role model to the male clients attending the services provided.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male instructor at Milparinka Parkville.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 10 May 2003.

Application No. A169 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Kangan Batman TAFE. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Job Placement Officer for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers, and to specify that Aboriginal applicants will be given priority.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application by the Industry Training Consultant of Kangan Batman TAFE, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise and employ a Job Placement Officer for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander to job seekers, and to specify that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants will be given priority.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The position of Job Placement Officer for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers has been funded for twelve months to action the "Growing Koori Employment Outcomes Project".
- The Job Placement Officer has a crucial responsibility of acting as a positive role model, particularly for young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers.
- It is a key criterion for this position that the applicant be able to implement culturally appropriate protocols when assisting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers.
- It is seen as appropriate that an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person would better fill this position as they would have an understanding of relevant cultural values, the barriers faced by these job applicants, and would be able to respond and deal with these barriers in an appropriate manner.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Job Placement Officer for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job seekers, and to specify that Aboriginal applicants will be given priority.
