WHITEHORSE PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Amendment

Amendment C4

The City of Whitehorse, at the request of Melbourne Water, has prepared Amendment C4 to the Whitehorse Planning Scheme.

The purpose of the Amendment is to insert the Special Building Overlay into the Whitehorse Planning Scheme. This Overlay will apply to approximately 2,800 properties throughout the municipality that are affected by overland flow paths during a one in one hundred year storm. The Municipal Strategic Statement will be amended to include reference to the use of the Special Building Overlay as a means of achieving its objectives.

The purpose of applying the Special Building Overlay is to ensure that drainage issues are considered at an early stage in the development design and approvals processes, and that works are designed in a way that allows the efficient movement of stormwater.

The Special Building Overlay will require a planning permit for buildings and works undertaken in the area affected by the Overlay. Some buildings and works are specifically exempt from requiring a planning permit. Most planning permit applications required pursuant to this Overlay will be referred to Melbourne Water for comment.

The Amendment can be inspected at: The City of Whitehorse, Statutory Planning Office, Service Centre, 379 Whitehorse Road, Nunawading. All City of Whitehorse Customer Service Centres and Libraries; Department of Infrastructure, Customer Service Centre, Level 3 Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

Submissions about the Amendment must be made in writing by Monday 24 July, 2000 and sent to: Ms Lucinda Peterson, Senior Urban Planner, City of Whitehorse, Locked Bag 2, Nunawading Delivery Centre 3110.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A219 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Karingal Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to choose not to employ people who, due to their physical disability, are unable to access by staircase Level 1, 4 James Street, Geelong, when Karingal Corporate Administration Services are temporarily located here.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by Mr J. Gibbons on behalf of the applicant, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to choose not to employ people who, due to their physical disability, are unable to access by staircase Level 1, 4 James Street, Geelong.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Karingal Inc. is a non-profit organisation that provides a broad range of services to people with disabilities.
- Currently Karingal Corporate Administration Services is located at Level 1, 245 Ryrie Street, Geelong. Access to Level 1 is both by lift and stairs.
- Due to an overall reorganisation of Karingal Inc.'s property and services, and time constraints remaining at the current site, Karingal Corporate Administration Services needs to relocate to Level 1, 4 James Street, Geelong, for approximately 12 – 18 months, until appropriate long-term accommodation is arranged.
- The James Street site provides ground floor access to people with disabilities, and has both male and female amenities catering for disabled people. This floor accommodates day programs for people with disabilities and operates as an art gallery.
- The James Street location, however, is an older building which only provides staircase access to Level 1, which will provide temporary accommodation for Karingal Inc.'s Corporate Administration Services.
- Alternative locations have been considered. However, for varying reasons, predominantly related to space, major disruption or displacement of existing services for people with disabilities, the applicant has been unable to identify a suitable alternative.
- Karingal Inc.'s Corporate Administration Services which will be provided at the James Street location are considered to be "back office" operations, with Karingal Inc. providing several customer service centres across the region that will continually provide suitable access services for people with disabilities.

The Tribunal grants an exemption for twelve months from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to choose not to employ people who, due to their physical disability, are unable to access by staircase Level 1, 4 James Street, Geelong.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 21 June 2001.

Dated this 15 June 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A226 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Australian Drug Foundation. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ twelve people within the 16 – 22 year age group, to conduct peer education about drugs in sporting clubs for a research project investigating this method of education.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by Ms S. Kearney of the Australian Drug Foundation, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ twelve people within the 16 – 22 year age group, to conduct peer education about drugs in sporting clubs for a research project investigating this method of education.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Foundation is conducting a one-off research project in the peer education method of education, about drugs in sporting clubs.
- The target group for the research is the 16 – 22 year old age group, as this group is considered to be a high-risk group for drug misuse.

- The Foundation wishes to employ people in the same age group as the target group, because the peer education method relies on the educators being of a similar age to those participating.
- The Foundation wishes to employ twelve young people for a period of up to six months for the project.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ twelve people within the 16 – 22 year age group, to conduct peer education about drugs in sporting clubs for a one-off research project investigating this method of education.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 22 December 2000.

Dated 16 June 2000.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A248 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Women's Liberation Halfway House Collective Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to run the women's refuge service and, for membership of the management Collective to be available to women only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by Ms H. Kaiser for the Collective, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to run the women's refuge service, and for membership of the management Collective to be available to women only.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that the Collective aims:

- To provide supported accommodation for women and their dependent children fleeing from situations of domestic violence – be it physical, mental, emotional, sexual or other abuse;

- To assist residents obtain legal, medical and social security benefits and permanent accommodation, and to move towards independent living;
- To gather information about women's oppression in situations of domestic violence and the financial, social and emotional difficulties women and children encounter when moving to independent living; and
- To conduct community education programs aimed at identifying the causes of violence against women and children and ways of eliminating all forms of violence against women and children.
- It is noted that the Collective had a previous exemption granted which expired on 21 December 1998.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 59, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females to run the women's refuge service, and for membership of the management Collective to be available to women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 21 June 2003.

Accident Compensation Act 1985

NOTICE OF INDEXED BENEFIT LEVELS AND OTHER AMOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 100

Section 100 (1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 stipulates that amounts in Part IV and in Section 5A of the Act are varied on 1 July each year in line with the movement in the average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the two previous December quarters, using the latest figures published by the Australian Statistician as at 30 May following the previous December quarter. Weekly payments are indexed on the anniversary of the entitlement to weekly payments as detailed in Section 100(2) of the Act.

The average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the December quarter of 1998 and the December quarter 1999 increased from $602.40 to $610.80 which is an increase of 1.4%.

Following legislative changes in December 1997 some sections are indexed by the rise in Consumer Price Index. The Consumer Price Index between the December quarter of 1998 and the December quarter of 1999 increased from 120.8 to 123.5 which is an increase of 2.2%.

The amounts for compensation for non-economic loss under section 98C are the amounts inserted in that section by section 15 of the Accident Compensation (Common Law and Benefits) Act 2000 (No. 26 of 2000) effective from 1st July 2000.
