EXEMPTION

Application No. A247 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the North Melbourne Legal Service. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to conduct a women's outreach service as part of the operation of the Legal Service for two to three hours per week.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by Ms C. Bowtell, a member of the Committee of Management of the Legal Service, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to conduct a women's outreach service as part of the operation of the Legal Service for two to three hours per week.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted that:

- The Legal Service will provide a women's outreach service for two to three hours per week;
- The Legal Service considers that it is necessary to provide the service because it will increase accessibility to legal services for women who have traditionally found the law intimidating and inaccessible;
- The Legal Service considers that by providing a secure women-only environment, women seeking advice will be more inclined to exercise their legal rights;

- The Legal Service considers that many women may feel intimidated, scared and vulnerable in the presence of a male, especially when trying to recount traumatic experiences.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to conduct a women's outreach service as part of the operation of the Legal Service for two to three hours per week.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 28 June 2003.

Dated this 23 June 2000.

LATE NOTICES

Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000
PROPOSED ELECTRONIC
TRANSACTIONS (VICTORIA)
REGULATIONS

The Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Act 2000 facilitates electronic commerce by several means. These include making a general provision that transactions conducted electronically are as valid in law as paper based transactions. The Act allows for exemptions to be prescribed by regulation.

The Proposed Electronic Transactions (Victoria) Regulations 2000 are to make two exemptions. Broadly, these are wills and requirements for personal service only (hand delivery) of information or documents.

A regulatory impact statement (RIS) has been prepared for the proposed regulations. The RIS concludes that the benefits of making the regulations exceed the costs. Copies of the RIS are available from Multimedia Victoria (MMV), Level 10, 55 Collins Street, Melbourne, (tel: 9651 9047). The RIS can be downloaded from the MMV website www.mmv.vic.gov.au.

Submissions on paper about the RIS should be addressed to the Executive Director, Multimedia Victoria at the above address. Email submissions should be sent to ben.clemens@mmv.vic.gov.au and all submissions must be received by 5.00p.m. on 28 July 2000.
