EXEMPTION

Application No. A383 of 2000

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Murray Valley Aboriginal Co-operative Limited. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Identified Child Care Worker.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Identified Child Care Worker.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Murray Valley Aboriginal Co-operative ("the Co-op") is a centre staffed by Aboriginal persons providing care to Aboriginal children on a daily basis.
- The childcare provides culturally relevant program content for children between the ages of 0 – 8 years.

- The successful applicant would need to have extensive knowledge of the Koori community and Koori culture, have an understanding of the concepts and principles of extended Koori families, have an ability to communicate effectively with Aboriginal people and be able to deal with cultural issues in a sensitive manner and be accepted in the Aboriginal community in the area.
- The organisation therefore believes that only a Koori person would have these qualities and would be able to fulfil the position effectively.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a Koori Identified Child Care Worker.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 13 September 2003.

Dated 7 September 2000

Ms CATE McKENZIE
Deputy President

- The only male Physical Education teacher is transferring to another school, leaving no male teachers.
- There is a need for at least one male Physical Education teacher to be able to enter and supervise the male change rooms, therefore providing effective supervision to monitor possible problems with security of students belongings, vandalism and bullying harassment.
- The School wishes to correct the gender imbalance of female and male Physical Education Teachers.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male Physical Education Teacher.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 13 September 2003.
