Notice of Amendment to a Planning Scheme
Amendment C22

Mitchell Shire Council has prepared Amendment C22 to the Mitchell Planning Scheme.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A404 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the University of Melbourne. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Indigenous Australian background to the positions of Senior Lecturer – Indigenous Health and Aboriginal Health Research Ethics Program Project Officer.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Indigenous Australian background to the positions of Senior Lecturer – Indigenous Health and Aboriginal Health Research Ethics Program Project Officer.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Senior Lecturer in Indigenous Health will play a critical role in developing partnerships with Indigenous Australian communities, and the developing and delivery of curricula that represents Indigenous perspectives. It is essential that the incumbent has an understanding of how to develop strategies that enable broader Indigenous input in curricula design and delivery and has had experience in Aboriginal health practice and policy or a related field.

- The Ethics Program Project Officer will be required to consult with Victorian Koori communities on the sensitive topic of health research ethics and to develop options to enhance the capacity of the Victorian Koori community to take control of the assessment of research ethics. The position requires an understanding of community process and structure, and the capacity and ability to build trust and communicate effectively with a broad range of Koori people.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons of Indigenous Australian background to the positions of Senior Lecturer – Indigenous Health and Aboriginal Health Research Ethics Program Project Officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 October 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A405 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by North Yarra Community Health. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female staff member to its Family Violence Program.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female staff member to its Family Violence Program.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Program is funded by the Department of Human Services to facilitate groups for women who have a history of family violence.
- Women attending the groups all have a history of abuse and there is an expectation from those women that they would have the opportunity to work through issues, associated with their experiences, with female workers in a gender specific group.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a female staff member to its Family Violence Program

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 24 October 2004.
