EXEMPTION

Application No. A 344 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the Women's Information & Referral Exchange Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women to the positions of Manager, Information Systems Coordinator, Telephone Services Coordinator, Development Coordinator, Finance and Admin Coordinator, Information Centre Coordinator and Training Coordinator.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women to the positions of Manager, Information Systems Coordinator, Telephone Services Coordinator, Development Coordinator, Finance and Admin Coordinator, Information Centre Coordinator and Training Coordinator.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Women's Information & Referral Exchange (WIRE) is an organisation funded by the Victorian Government to provide support, information, counselling and assistance to the women of Victoria.

Specifically it provides information, counselling and assistance to women in violent or abusive relationships, women who have survived sexual assault or assault by family members or friends, homeless women, refugee women and women of non English speaking backgrounds.

- Many of the issues raised by WIRE's female clients are personal, embarrassing, humiliating and private. Issues such as sexual assault or family violence are matters that women would prefer to discuss with women. There is a justified need to talk with confidentiality and trust to another female, rather than someone of the same gender of the assailant.
- Some clients have a genuine reluctance to speak of culturally sensitive issues with a man. Many have a legitimate religious or cultural reason why they are reluctant to discuss personal concerns with a man.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women to the positions of Manager, Information Systems Coordinator, Telephone Services Coordinator, Development Coordinator, Finance and Admin Coordinator, Information Centre Coordinator and Training Coordinator.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 November 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A 427 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by C. A. Barry, Electoral Commissioner on behalf of the Victorian Electoral Commission. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the positions set out in the attached Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

Upon reading the material tendered in support of this application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 & 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ persons for State and Municipal Council Elections in respect of the positions set out in the attached Schedule 1 ("Electoral Officials").

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 established the office of the Electoral Commissioner as an independent officer reporting to Parliament.
- That Act places restrictions on the ability of the Electoral Commissioner or electoral officials to nominate for election to, or to be a member of, the Legislative Council or the Legislative Assembly.
- Schedule 2 of the Local Government Act 1989 permits a council to authorise the Electoral Commissioner and the electoral officials to conduct elections for the council and places restrictions on the ability of those electoral officials to nominate for election, or to act, as Counsellor, for the Council for which that election is held.
- The Constitution Act Amendment Act 1958 and the Local Government Act 1989 require election officials who conduct elections for the Victorian Parliament or Municipal Councils to take an oath that they will perform their duties impartially.
- In order to ensure that Electoral Officials are, and appear to be impartial, it is desirable that the prospective employer of Electoral Officials should be able to take into account whether or not they hold political beliefs or engage in political activities.
- The Tribunal previously granted an exemption which expires on 25 November 2001.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995. This exemption is granted only for the purpose of enabling the prospective employer of Electoral Officials to take into account the fact that those seeking employment as electoral officials hold or do not hold political beliefs or views or engage refuse or fail to engage in political activities.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 7 November 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A 428 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by the Melbourne Sexual Health Centre. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ male nurses to four casual nurses positions located in male only Sex on Premises Venues (SOPV) in Melbourne.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ male nurses to four casual nurses positions located in the male only Sex on Premises Venues (SOPV) in Melbourne.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant manages an outreach program to Sex on Premises Venues for gay men to provide health care in respect of sexually transmitted diseases.
- These venues are male only venues. Work so far undertaken indicates that the presence of women is not accepted by male clients.
- The practicalities of the venues make it inappropriate for women to work in the centres.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ male nurses to four casual nurses positions located in male only Sex on Premises Venues (SOPV) in Melbourne.

Notice is hereby given under the provisions of section 96(7) of the Water Act 1989, that the Wimmera Mallee Rural Water Authority intends to forward to the Minister for Environment and Conservation, a proposal for the setting up of a
