Application No. A 454 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by La Trobe University. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Aboriginal Liaison Officer in the Office of the Director (Albury/Wodonga Campus).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Aboriginal Liaison Officer in the Office of the Director (Albury/Wodonga Campus).

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The position is located in an indigenous support environment. It is important that the appointee is able to relate to the university's indigenous students.

- Such an appointment would be supportive of the university's proposed Indigenous Employment Strategy.
- The objectives of the position are to provide advice and assistance to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) students enrolled at the Albury/Wodonga campus, to improve awareness of the university's programs and facilities for prospective ATSI students within the university and the wider community and to liaise with other officers of the university in similar positions at Bundoora and Bendigo.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander to the position of Aboriginal Liaison Officer in the Office of the Director (Albury/Wodonga Campus).

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 December 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A455 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Zena Collective Incorporated. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Zena Collective is an organisation run by women and provides services for women and children who have experienced, or are experiencing domestic violence.

- The applicant manages two domestic violence services in the Barwon Region. One is a high security women's refuge and the other an outreach service. The service is funded by the Department of Human Services Supported Assistance Program.
- Empirical evidence from users of domestic violence services suggests that in order to recover from the trauma associated with domestic violence, women only spaces provide an environment which is safer and less intimidating for them.
- The applicant was previously granted an exemption which expired on 9 December 2001.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 12 December 2004.
