BAYSIDE CITY COUNCIL
Meeting Procedures Local Law No 1.

Notice is hereby given that Bayside City Council proposes to revoke Local Law No: 1 "Governance, Meeting Procedures & Common Seal" in its entirety and replace it with a new Local Law No 1 titled "Meeting Procedures".

The following information about the proposed local law is provided in accordance with Section 119 of the Local Government Act 1989.

The purpose of this Local Law is to:

- to provide a mechanism to facilitate the good government of the Municipal District of the City of Bayside through its formal meeting procedure to ensure effective and efficient Council decisions are made in a manner which acknowledges the role of local government within the Australian system of government;
- to promote and encourage community participation in local government by providing mechanisms for the Council to ascertain the community's views and expectations;

- c) to regulate and control the election of Mayor and the Chairman of any Committees;
- d) to regulate and control the procedures governing the conduct of meetings including:
 1. the notice required for meetings;
 2. the keeping of minutes.
- e) to regulate and control the use of Council's Seal;
- f) to provide for the administration of the Council's powers and functions;
- g) to provide generally for the peace, order and good government of the Municipal District.
- h) revoke Council's Governance, Meeting Procedure and Common Seal Local Law No: 1 made in March 2000.

General purport of the Proposed Local Law

The proposed local law, if made, will:

- establish a law which will govern order of business, rules of debate, meeting procedure, public access and conduct of meetings;
- regulate the use and control of Council's common seal, and create an offence for a person using the common seal without authority or using a replica of the common seal without authority;
- regulate the procedure for the election of the Mayor;
- regulate the procedure of Public Question Time at Ordinary Meetings of Council;
- regulate the time limit of people making a submission to Council;
- regulate the availability of agenda papers to members of the public prior to meetings;
- regulate the procedure for amending a Notice of Motion;
- regulate the procedure for petitioners speaking to petitions;
- regulate the hearing of submissions at Committee Meetings of Council only;
- allow Council to suspend Standing Orders for a maximum period of 30 minutes;
- regulate the procedure to ensure that no discussion prior to a motion being moved;
- regulate the procedure for Points of Order;
- create an offence for a person who interrupts a meeting or behaves in an unruly manner and who fails to come to order when called to do so; and
- revoke the existing Local Law No: 1 –

Governance, Meeting Procedures and Common Seal made in March 2000 in its entirety;

Copies of the proposed Local Law may be inspected at or obtained from the Corporate Centre, Royal Avenue, Sandringham.

Any person may make a submission relating to the proposed local law.

Submissions received by the Council within 14 days of the publication of this notice will be considered in accordance with Section 223 of the Local Government Act 1989. Any person requesting that he or she be heard in support of a written submission, is entitled to appear before a meeting of the Council or Council Committee either personally or by a person acting on his or her behalf, and will be notified of the time and the date of the hearing.

Submissions marked "Meeting Procedure Local Law" should be posted to the Chief Executive, Bayside City Council, PO Box 27, Sandringham, Vic. 3191, or delivered to the Corporate Centre, Royal Avenue, Sandringham so as to reach Council within 14 days of this publication.

CITY OF GREATER BENDIGO

Domestic (Feral and Nuisance) Animals Act 1994

The Greater Bendigo City Council resolved at its meeting on 19 March 2001 to make an Order pursuant to Section 26 of the Domestic (Feral and Nuisance) Animals Act 1994. The Order will take effect from the date of publication of this Order.

Dogs on Leash

The owner of any dog must keep the dog under effective control by means of a chain, cord or leash held by the owner and attached to the dog while the dog is in a designated reserve.

Dogs Prohibited

Dogs are prohibited from entering or remaining in any of the designated reserves at any time without effective control by means of a leash.

Definitions

"Designated Reserve" means those reserves as are designated by signs and shown on the attached maps as on leash areas.

- Lake Weeroona
- Kennington Reserve
- White Hills Botanical Gardens
- Rotary Park, Strathdale (incorporating the entire reserve)
- Botanical Gardens Kangaroo Flat
- Barrack Reserve, Heathcote
- Canterbury Gardens, Eaglehawk (incorporating the entire reserve)
- Cooina Park, Golden Square

PROPOSED LOCAL LAW – PROTECTION OF PUBLIC ASSETS AND CONTROL OF BUILDING SITES

At its meeting held on 5 March 2001, Council resolved to propose to make Local Law No. 11 – Protection of Public Assets and Control of Building Sites, in accordance with Section 119 of the Local Government Act 1989. The purpose and purport of proposed Local Law No. 11 is for:

- a) Providing for the peace, order and good government of the Municipal District;
- b) Protecting public assets vested in Council from damage, accelerated deterioration or abuse during the building process;
- c) Providing a physical environment which aims to minimise hazards to health and safety of persons attending building sites and those adjacent, opposite or passing building sites;
- d) Prohibiting, regulating and controlling the presence and disposal of refuse, rubbish and soil on and from building sites within the municipal district to reduce hazards to the environment and promote an environment where residents can enjoy a quality of life that meets the general expectation of the community;
- e) Defining the standards to which persons engaged in building work should adhere;
- f) Educating and inducing persons involved in building work to act responsibly to reduce the extent and cost of infrastructure damage for the benefit of the wider community.

A copy of the Local Law can be obtained from Council Offices in Lyttleton Terrace, Bendigo and at High Street, Heathcote.

Council will consider written submissions received within fourteen (14) days of the date of publication of this notice in accordance with Section 223 of the Local Government Act 1989.

Any person lodging a written submission may request to be heard in support of their submission and shall be entitled to appear in person or by a person acting on their behalf, before a meeting of Council or a Committee of the Council. Persons lodging a written submission should state whether they wish to be heard by the Council or the Committee of the Council. Notice of the meeting time, date and place will be given to all persons lodging a submission.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A108 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the CORE, the Correctional Enterprise, a division of the Department of Justice for exemption from Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to allow the applicant to place an advertisement, specifically directed to women, for prison officers to work in women's correctional facilities for which CORE is responsible and or to work in CORE's security and emergency services group, and, where a female and male applicant of equal merit compete for appointment to the same position so advertised, to appoint the female to that position.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and on hearing Ms Worcester for the applicant and for the reasons given by the Tribunal in 17 April 2001 the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant the exemption from Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Act.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 14, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to allow the applicant to place an advertisement, specifically directed to women, for prison officers to work in women's correctional facilities for which CORE is responsible and or to work in CORE's security and emergency services group, and, where a female and male applicant of equal merit compete for appointment to the same position so advertised, to appoint the female to that position.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 April 2004.

Parliamentary Committees Act 1968

TERMS OF REFERENCE TO THE DRUGS
AND CRIME PREVENTION COMMITTEE

The Governor in Council, acting under section 4F(1) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968 and on the recommendation of the Premier, by this Order requires the Drugs and Crime Prevention Committee to inquire into and report to Parliament on the issue of inhalation of volatile substances for the purposes of intoxication. In particular, the Committee is requested to:

1. examine factors contributing to the inhalation of volatile substances;
2. review the adequacy of existing strategies for dealing with the inhalation of volatile substances;
3. consider best practice strategies to address the inhalation of volatile substances, including education and voluntary initiatives;
4. consider options to reduce the incidence of inhalation of volatile substances and identify factors in order to prevent first time inhalation of volatile substances.

In conducting the Inquiry the Committee is to have regard to

- a. approaches taken to this issue in other Australian and overseas jurisdictions;
- b. such other legislation, reports and materials as are relevant to the Inquiry.

Under section 4F(3) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968, the Governor in Council specifies the first day of the Autumn 2002

Parliamentary session as the date by which the Committee is required to make its final report to Parliament on this matter.

Parliamentary Committees Act 1968

TERMS OF REFERENCE TO THE LAW REFORM COMMITTEE

The Governor in Council, acting under section 4F(1)(a)(ii) and 4F(3) of the Parliamentary Committees Act 1968 and on the recommendation of the Attorney-General, by this Order requires the Law Reform Committee to inquire into, consider and report to the Parliament on the following matters:

1. The purpose, effectiveness, fairness and consistency of provisions in Victorian legislation dealing with the exercise of powers including:
 - the power to enter premises or vehicles;
 - the power to search premises or vehicles;
 - the power to seize any thing;
 - the power to question any person or to require a person to provide any documents (and the extent to which that person may rely upon the privilege against self-incrimination) —
by authorised persons (including members of Victoria Police where those members are acting as authorised persons) for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the law or for investigating actual or suspected breaches of the law, having regard to the policy objectives of the relevant legislation.
2. Whether there should be a greater degree of consistency in the future development of such powers in Victoria, having regard to different legislative models (including criminal laws of general application, licensing provisions, legislation designed to protect public health and safety and the environment and emergency powers) and to the need to match powers with the risk and gravity of the offence to which the powers are directed.

In conducting the Inquiry the Committee is to have regard to:

- a. The Senate Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Bills Fourth Report of 1999 Entry and Search Powers in Commonwealth Legislation 6 April 2000.
- b. Such other legislation, case law, reports and materials as are relevant to the Inquiry.
- c. The experiences of competent authorities administering legislation containing powers of entry, search, seizure and the ability to ask questions or require the provision of information.
- d. Complaints data relating to the use of such powers (for instance, data held by the Ombudsman, Victoria Police or other government agencies)

The Committee is requested to make its final report to the Parliament by the first day of the Autumn 2002 Parliamentary sittings.

STYLE REQUIREMENTS.

To ensure that material received can be reproduced, and that errors are minimised, the following guidelines are to be observed when submitting material by fax.

Fax resolution:

Material sent by fax should be transmitted using Fine Resolution (200 dots per inch by 200 dpi).

Font size:

Use 12 point (10 pitch) or larger.

Font Style:

Clear plain font styles, such as Helvetica, should be used.

Graphics:

Line drawings should be transmitted as large as possible to ensure clarity. Drawings up to A4 size sent by fax using Fine Resolution provide a good quality for reproduction.

Avoid:

Italics, underlining and full justification.

Ensure document is square when sending as documents that are sent skewed are difficult to read and process.
