EXEMPTION

Application No. A165 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Swinburne University of Technology. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people to positions in the Indigenous Programs Department of the University.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people to positions in the Indigenous Programs Department of the University.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Positions within the Indigenous Programs Department are funded by the Department of Employment, Training and Youth Affairs (DETYA) through Aboriginal Support Funding. These funds are specifically for the development of strategies to improve the recruitment, retention and success of indigenous students in the tertiary sector.
- Indigenous Australian students enquiring about courses offered by Swinburne

University of Technology often make first contact through Indigenous Programs. If indigenous staff are not available through the unit a prospective student may choose not to pursue their enquiries.

- Students requiring financial, counselling and accommodation support often require the services of local Aboriginal community organisations and networks. In addition Indigenous Programs staff require an understanding of community education requirements for Indigenous Australians.
- Indigenous Programs undertake a number of small and large community outreach projects that involve the employment of Indigenous Australian casual staff.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to advertise for and employ Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander people to positions in the Indigenous Programs Department of the University.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 20 June 2004.

Dated 18 June 2001

EXEMPTION

Application No. A176 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff to positions in the Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff to positions in the Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- The Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre is a statewide service providing support, information and referral for women and children survivors of domestic violence and child sexual assault. It also provides support, consultation, resourcing and information to workers in health and welfare agencies and individual advocacy to women and children survivors.
- It is appropriate to employ only females in this area; many users would not avail themselves of the service if male employees were present.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female staff to positions in the Domestic Violence and Incest Resource Centre.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 20 June 2004.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A195 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Eastleigh Workforce Inc. trading as Southern Youth Employment. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide pre-employment services, placement and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15–24 years.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide pre-employment services, placement and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15–24 years.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- Southern Youth Employment is a provider of the Community Business Employment

Program (CBE) which is fully funded by the State Government of Victoria. Southern Youth Employment has a Service Agreement with the Minister for Post Compulsory Education, Training and Employment. The Service Agreement is to provide pre-employment services, placement and post placement support to long term and short term unemployed persons aged 15–24 years.

- The CBE program targets ‘young people’ (aged 15–24 years), ‘multicultural persons’ (those disadvantaged in the labour market because of their ethnicity) and ‘mature persons’ (aged 45 years and over). Southern Youth Employment’s focus continues to be on younger persons within the community, now defined by the State Government as 15–24 years.
- Southern Employment was granted a previous exemption (45 of 1998) which expires on 24 June 2001.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to provide pre-employment services, placement and post placement support to unemployed persons aged 15–24 years.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 20 June 2004.

NOTICE OF INDEXED BENEFIT LEVELS AND OTHER AMOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH SECTION 100 OF THE ACCIDENT COMPENSATION ACT 1985 AND REGULATION 20 OF THE ACCIDENT COMPENSATION REGULATIONS 2001

Section 100 (1) of the Accident Compensation Act 1985 stipulates that certain amounts in Part IV and in Section 5A of the Act are varied on 1 July each year in line with the movement in the average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the two previous December quarters, using the latest figures published by the Australian Statistician as at 30 May following the previous December quarter. Weekly payments are indexed on the anniversary of the entitlement to weekly payments as detailed in Section 100(2) of the Act.

The average weekly earnings for all employees in Victoria between the December quarter of 1999 and the December quarter 2000 increased from $610.80 to $627.60 which is an increase of 2.8%.

Following legislative changes in December 1997 some amounts are indexed by the rise in Consumer Price Index.

The Consumer Price Index between the December quarter of 1999 and the December quarter of 2000 increased from 123.5 to 130.8 which is an increase of 5.9%.
