EXEMPTION

Application No. A486 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Gawith Villa Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person with an intellectual disability.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person with an intellectual disability.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant is managing a Community Learning Partners project which is undertaking research and developing a participatory learning package for people with an intellectual disability.
- The Community Learning Partners project aims to work with people with intellectual disabilities and business and community people, to assist people with intellectual disabilities to be included in their communities and to help other community people to include people with intellectual disabilities.
- A co-worker is required to assist the researcher in assessing what people with a disability want to learn, how they learn and to help develop new ways of supporting learning.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13,

100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a person with an intellectual disability.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A487 of 2001

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Swifts Creek Secondary College. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aide.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aide,

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The applicant has a male student suffering from Downs Syndrome enrolled for 2002.
- Previous teachers and the boy's parents acknowledge that he relates better to males rather than females.
- As the boy has resorted to physical responses in the past, the applicant is of the belief that a male aide would be in his best interests as he would relate to and respect them more.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male integration aide.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 16 January 2005.
