EXEMPTION

Application No. A339/2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act
1995 by Norwood Association Incorporated
Reg: A0003921F for exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of that Act. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise
for and recruit to positions for Community
Liaison Workers with the Association, specifying as a mandatory criterion for selection that applicants must have been a service user of mental health services at some point in time.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Helen Defreitas and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 7 November 2002, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit to positions for Community Liaison Workers with the Association, specifying as a mandatory criterion for selection that applicants must have been a service user of mental health services at some point in time.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and recruit to positions for Community Liaison Workers with the Association, specifying as a mandatory criterion for selection that applicants must have been a service user of mental health services at some point in time.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 13 November 2005.

Dated 9 November 2002

Ms CATE McKENZIE
Deputy President

N.B. A copy of the Reasons for Decision will be posted to the parties once available.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A351 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Acheron Technologies Limited, trading as Hot Gozzip (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to operate a telephone chat line service and to charge female callers to the service either no fee or a lesser fee than males who use the service.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to operate a telephone chat line service and to charge female callers to the service either no fee or a lesser fee than males who use the service.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted that:

- In 1999 the Tribunal granted an exemption to Hot Gozzip Limited for the same service and Acheron Technologies Limited is now the proprietor and operator of the telephone chat line service under the name and style of Hot Gozzip. Previously the service was run by a company called Hot Gozzip Limited and ownership of the service has been transferred to Acheron Technologies Limited;

- from October 1999 to date, the service has continued to run in the same way and the total number of callers has never comprised approximately equal numbers of men and women;

- an analysis of calls to the service from 1 September 2002 to 20 October 2002 shows that the percentage of callers to the service was:

Males – 72%;

Females – 28%;

- the continued disparity in the number of male and female callers justifies the need for a differential charge between those callers to encourage the under-represented group to participate in the service without which the service would not operate.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to operate a telephone chat line service and to charge female callers to the service either no fee or a lesser fee than males who use the service.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 14 November 2005.

Dated 7 November 2002

Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A366 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the City of Darebin (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a policy officer of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent to assist the Darebin Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Council.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a policy officer of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent to assist the Darebin

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Council.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the Darebin Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Council is a newly established advisory committee to the Darebin City Council. The Community Council's Charter includes key objectives such as:
  - providing advice on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander social, spiritual and cultural issues;
  - developing and maintaining strong relationships between the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community and Council;
  - overseeing cultural awareness programs for Council staff, local services and businesses;
  - improving the cultural relevance and appropriateness of Council services for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people;
- the policy officer is to be the primary support for the Community Council and will be expected to undertake a wide range of functions to assist the Community Council to achieve the above objectives;
- the policy officer's duties would include:
  - Agenda management and minuting (in liaison with Civic services);
  - development and management of the Community Council work plan;
  - arranging consultation and community liaison events with the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community;
  - undertaking projects as agreed by the Community Council;
  - continuing the work of the Aboriginal Reconciliation Working Party;
  - arranging cross cultural training for Council staff and external organisations;
  - developing closer links with the wide range of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander organisations in the community;
- to operate effectively the policy officer will need to network widely with local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander individuals and organisations and provide high level advice to the Community Council on key issues of concern and welfare for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people;

- this range of tasks and issues is best dealt with by a person of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander descent.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a policy officer of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander descent to assist the Darebin Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community Council.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 14 November 2005.

Dated 11 November 2002

Mrs A. COGHLAN
Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A377 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by the Brotherhood of St Laurence (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation to persons under the age of 50 years at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House).

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation to persons under the age of 50 years at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House).

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The Brotherhood of St Laurence Aged Care Services ("Brotherhood") has provided Rooming House Accommodation to older and often frail men and women at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House) since 1983 (the service). One of the reasons that the older resident seeks accommodation at Sidney Myer House is because of the security it offers to older residents sharing with a similar age group. Current residents are between 50 and 90 years of age and often have a disability or are physically frail;

- Sidney Myer House provides accommodation for senior residents on low incomes who have few assets and few or no social supports and family networks. Residents receive support because Sidney Myer House is co-located with other Brotherhood age-specific facilities such as a hostel and day centre, in which there are a number of staff available to assist them to maintain their independence, security and privacy;
- within the City of Yarra there are a number of private and public rooming houses that provide rooming house accommodation to all age groups, including 300 rooms managed by Yarra Community Housing Group which is under the auspices of the Brotherhood;
- the Service provides accommodation for 16 older male and female residents who generally come from the inner metropolitan area of Melbourne thus service allows them to remain connected to their community;
- there are no other rooming houses that offer age-specific services in the area;
- residents feel safer living with older people rather than all age groups.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 49, 50, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to refuse accommodation to persons under the age of 50 years at Sidney Myer House (formerly Millott House).

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 14 November 2005.
