Who is the Planning Authority?

This Amendment has been prepared by the City of Kingston. The City of Kingston is the planning authority for this Amendment.

What the Amendment does?

The Amendment rezones land at 642–660 Springvale Road and 369–385 Spring Road, Dingley Village from Public Use Zone 3 (Health and Community) to Residential 1 Zone and includes 369–385 Spring Road, Dingley Village, within a Development Plan Overlay.

Land affected by the Amendment

The Amendment applies to land known as: 642–660 Springvale Road, Dingley Village which is contained in Plan of Consolidation 107356, Certificate of Title Volume 09296, Folio 733; and 369–385 Spring Road, Dingley Village, Part Lot 54, LP4681, Certificate of Title Volume 7898, Folio 091.

Why the Amendment is required?

EXEMPTION

Application No. A136 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Victoria Street Program. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male residential support worker.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male residential support worker.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant is a residential rehabilitation program whose purpose is to assist adults in the Western Region with a severe psychiatric disability to live more independently in the environment of their choice;
- there are twenty clients in the program and generally there are more male clients than female. Clients can exhibit difficult challenging behaviours, such as physical and verbal abuse;
- many aspects of the program are directed to the development of very concrete and specific skills, such as personal hygiene and self-care, social skills, budgeting, shopping, cooking and other aspects of daily living skills. It is essential to provide a male role model for both men and women;
- the Victoria Street Program currently has a number of male clients with drug and alcohol issues who can when intoxicated exhibit severe challenging behaviours that threaten the safety of female clients and staff. The presence of a male full-time worker will assist in minimizing and containing these incidents.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13,

EXEMPTION

Application No. A145 of 2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Belvoir Wodonga Special Development School. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant currently has no male teaching staff;
- the position is required for a group of 11–13 year old students who are aggressive, very strong and extremely challenging. Two of the students frequently abscond and have to be located;
- there have been a significant number of injuries to staff and students and the School Council requires a male teacher to ensure the safety of students and staff.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ a male teacher.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 29 May 2005.

All submissions received will be considered and assessed by South West Water Authority and the Minister for Natural Resources.
