EXEMPTION

Application No. A209/2002

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by The Kangan Batman Institute of TAFE (the TAFE). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander woman as a Koori Liaison Officer.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander woman as a Koori Liaison Officer.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- The TAFE has a Koori Programs Unit, an indigenous education and training department located within the TAFE's Social and Applied Sciences School.
- The Unit delivers indigenous specific programs to indigenous students at the Broadmeadows campus and at a number of custodial settings in the metropolitan area.
- Programs delivered in custodial settings involve specific indigenous curricula for indigenous students and involve cultural activities and education support delivered by women Elders and a Liaison Officer.
- The role of a Liaison Office is to provide a range of educational and cultural support services to women in custody in order to address individual needs and to facilitate positive educational experiences to those in custody. In this context it is culturally imperative that the Liaison Officer attends to the educational, personal, cultural and spiritual needs of women. Many women in custody suffer from a range of difficulties and need to address negative education experiences in the past as many have had very little or no formal education as well as suffering from social and cultural isolation.

- The role of a Liaison Officer is to provide gender specific support and advice to women. It would be culturally inappropriate for a male to provide such support and advice.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander woman as a Koori Liaison Officer.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 July 2005.
