EXEMPTION

Application No. A73/2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Atlast Young Women's Refuge Collective Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females only.

Upon reading the material tendered in support of the application by Ms Jacqui Fulton on behalf of the Atlas Young Women's Refuge Collective Inc., the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females only.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- the applicant is a 24 hours crisis accommodation service for young women aged 15–25 years;
- the service has been operating since 1986 and is funded through the Supported Accommodation and Assistance Program;
- one of the applicant's aims is to assure service users that it is a "women only" space as many of the clients have experienced domestic violence and/or sexual abuse;
- the refuge is staffed on a 24 hour basis and therefore employees are required to sleep over;
- the applicant offers crisis accommodation for young women and women who are pregnant or have children;
- the applicant aims to provide for its clients a safe, secure and supportive environment.
- the applicant is funded by the Department of Human Services – Homeless & Family Violence Program to accommodate young homeless women with a preference to young women under the age of 21 with children up to the age of 12 years who do not meet Domestic Violence Refuge Criteria;
- the applicant was previously granted an exemption, which is due to expire on 10 May 2003.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ females only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 30 April 2006.
