EXEMPTION

Application No. A151 of 2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by Grey and Gold, a subsidiary of Regent Personnel Pty Ltd. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise recruitment and training services to people over the age of 45 years.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and having heard from Mr. Sam Lawson, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise recruitment and training services to people over the age of 45 years.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- Regent Personnel Pty Ltd is a generalist employment agency established in 1987. Grey and Gold is a subsidiary of the company;
- Grey and Gold seeks to provide recruitment and training services to the mature age sector;
- negative attitudes and stereotypes about mature aged workers can prevent and discourage mature aged job seekers from pursuing employment;
- ABS Statistics record age as the single most significant reason for lack of re-employment of the majority of unemployed persons aged 55 and over;
- many mature aged workers who have been unemployed for a period of time are uncomfortable with modern recruitment methods;

- Grey and Gold seeks to provide an employment environment which focuses on the needs of the mature age sector;
- Grey and Gold seeks to promote equality of opportunity between job seekers of a mature age, that is over 45 years of age.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise recruitment and training services for people over the age of 45 years.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 19 June 2006.

Dated 5 June 2003

Deputy President

EXEMPTION

Application No. A200 of 2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria ("CECV") and the Catholic Education Office Melbourne ("CEO Melbourne"). The application for exemption is to enable the applicants to allow a class of people, namely Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people only, to be employed in the position of Koorie Education Worker in Victorian Catholic schools and to allow the publishing of advertisements for such positions.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by the CECV and CEO Melbourne, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100, and 195 of the Act to enable the applicants to allow a class of people, namely Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people only, to be employed in the position of Koorie Education Worker in Victorian Catholic schools and to allow the publishing of advertisements for such positions.

In granting this exemption, the Tribunal noted:

- A previous exemption was granted in May 2000.

- The roles and responsibilities of Koorie Education workers as contained in the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria's Draft Guidelines for the Employment of Koorie Education Workers in Victorian Catholic and Primary and Secondary schools include:
 - (a) Assist and support indigenous students to achieve improved educational outcomes;
 - (b) Participation in school activities to assist in creating a culturally inclusive environment; and
 - (c) Encourage indigenous community participation in school education through liaison with individuals and groups.
- It is considered that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people would be better suited to these positions as they would have extensive knowledge of indigenous cultural values and issues, would be accepted by the Koorie community, would be able to communicate in culturally appropriate ways through recognition of shared experiences and understandings of those matters that affect Koorie people, and would be a strong and positive role model for Koorie students.

The Tribunal grants an exemption from the operation of Sections 13, 100, and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, to enable the applicants to allow a class of people, namely Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people only, to be employed in the position of Koorie Education Worker in Victorian Catholic Schools and to allow the publishing of advertisements for such positions.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 19 June 2006.

Dated 12 June 2003.
