MAROONDAH PLANNING SCHEME

Notice of Preparation of Amendment

Amendment C34

The Maroondah City Council has prepared Amendment C34 to the Maroondah Planning Scheme.

Land affected by the Amendment.

The land affected by the Amendment is all land covered by Planning Scheme Maps 1SLO, 2SLO, 3SLO, 4SLO, 5SLO and 6SLO.

What the Amendment does.

The Amendment proposes to strengthen the existing controls under the Maroondah Planning Scheme protecting canopy trees and ridgeline vegetation within the declared Urban Growth Boundary.

Under these controls a permit is required to remove, destroy or lop vegetation. This does not apply however to a tree within 3 metres of an existing house or other building.

The term "building" however includes a wide variety of structures, such as fences, thus greatly increasing the scope for exemption from the controls. It is proposed therefore to replace the above wording with the following: "A permit is required to remove, destroy or lop vegetation. This does not apply to a tree within 3 metres of an existing dwelling (excluding outbuildings)."

The existing controls also affect land outside the Urban Growth Boundary but no changes to the controls in these areas are proposed in the Amendment.

Where you may inspect this Amendment.

You may inspect the Amendment, any documents that support the Amendment and the explanatory report about the Amendment at the following locations: the Amendment is available for public inspection during office hours, free of charge, from Tuesday 23 September 2003 at the following places: City Offices Service Centre, Braeside Avenue, Ringwood; Eastland Service Centre, Level 2, Eastland Shopping Centre, Ringwood; Main Street Service Centre, Main Street, Croydon; Civic Square Service Centre, Civic Square, Croydon and Department of Sustainability and Environment, Upper Plaza, Nauru House, 80 Collins Street, Melbourne.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A310/2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application, pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995, by Kerang Woodcrafters Inc. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct woodworking courses for women only.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 37, 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct woodworking courses for women only.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the Applicant wishes to be able to offer a number of woodworking courses to people living in Kerang and the surrounding districts, from its premises in Kerang;
- courses for men and women will be offered and at least one course will be offered for women only;
- the courses will be offered at weekends and will cover woodworking and the use of woodworking equipment;
- the company Triton is supportive of these courses and has agreed to lend equipment for use in them and to provide an equipment demonstrator to assist participants;
- the Kerang Learning Centre has agreed to auspice the course and to arrange for the necessary insurance;
- it is proposed to commence advertising the courses in October 2003;
- there is a significant demand which has been expressed by women to the Applicant and the Kerang Learning Centre for a women only course which would cater for women who wish to begin to learn woodworking and who, because of their lack of knowledge and skill, find it uncomfortable to participate in a mixed course with men and women. These women have said that they would be unlikely to attend a mixed beginners course in woodworking;
- it is important that women learn skills in which women have traditionally been under-represented;
- mixed men and women courses will be provided for those who wish to learn in that setting;
- the Applicant has received only positive feedback for this proposal and, from the feedback already provided, expects that both the mixed and women only courses will be filled and may be oversubscribed.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 37, 42, 60, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and conduct woodworking courses for women only.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 17 September 2006.

Dated 9 September 2003.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A335/2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act) by Eastern Centre Against Sexual Assault (ECASA). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and appoint a male counsellor/advocate to its service.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application by Mari Barry, Manager, ECASA, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and appoint a male counsellor/advocate to its service.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- ECASA recognises that
 - sexual assault is a major problem for which the community as a whole must take responsibility;
 - sexual assault can have social, emotional, medical and legal consequences for victims/survivors, their family and significant others;
- ECASA is committed to providing services that uphold the integrity, autonomy and dignity of sexual assault victims/survivors;
- the Counsellor/Advocate will provide a range of outreach counselling/advocacy services to male victims/survivors of recent and past sexual assault and their non-offending support people;
- the Counsellor/Advocate will provide community development activities for workers in other organisations and the broader community. This work will raise awareness regarding the nature and impact of sexual assault on males, and increase the skills and knowledge base for workers in their response to male victims/survivors of sexual assault;

- the Counsellor/Advocate will contribute towards establishing protocols, procedures and guidelines to ensure effective and responsive service delivery to male victims/survivors, and the development of appropriate standards of practice.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise and appoint a male counsellor/advocate to its service.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 18 September 2006.
