EXEMPTION

Application No. A322/2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 by the Victorian Department of Infrastructure. The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide a 'Women in Freight, Logistics and Marine Management Scholarship' for female postgraduate studies in the ports, marine or transport area and including part-time employment in the Department whilst undertaking those studies.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide a 'Women in Freight, Logistics and Marine Management Scholarship' for female postgraduate studies in the ports, marine or transport area and including part-time employment in the Department whilst undertaking those studies.

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- traditionally women have been under represented in these areas, when compared with the proportions of men and women in the population as a whole. For example Transport Company Managers—males 83.3%, females 16.7%; Supply and Distribution Managers—males 88.2%, females 11.8%; Marine Specialists—males 98.1%, females 1.9%;
- the exemption is to encourage greater representation of women in these areas and to provide a career path to women working in these areas;
- in October 2000 the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal granted to the Applicant an exemption to enable it to provide scholarships to women in these areas. That exemption expires on 25 October 2003. The current exemption application relates to scholarships of a similar kind, but with a different name and a focus on management;
- the Applicant considers that the two scholarships offered to women under the exemption granted in October 2000 have been a successful initiative and that this initiative should continue.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 37, 42, 100 and 195 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 to enable the applicant to advertise for and provide a 'Women in Freight, Logistics and Marine Management Scholarship' for female postgraduate studies in the ports, marine or transport area and including part-time employment in the Department whilst undertaking those studies.

This exemption is to remain in force from the day on which notice of the exemption is published in the Government Gazette until 3 September 2006.

Dated 27 August 2003.

EXEMPTION

Application No. A320/2003

The Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (the Tribunal) has considered an application pursuant to Section 83 of the Equal Opportunity Act 1995 (the Act), by Sacred Heart Mission St Kilda Inc. (the applicant). The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female only staff members for two services to be operated for women only, being "Homefront" and the "Women's House".

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female only staff members for two services to be operated for women only, being "Homefront" and the "Women's House".

In granting this exemption the Tribunal noted:

- the services provide a specific response and support to women who are homeless and/or involved in street prostitution and/or escaping domestic violence;
- that a previous exemption had been granted to enable the setting up and development of the housing initiative for women only;
- that safety and security is of paramount importance to the women who would be using the services, and it is felt by the applicant that its services need to be provided by female staff and that the services should be provided for women only.

The Tribunal hereby grants an exemption to the applicant from the operation of Sections 13, 42, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to advertise for and employ female only staff members for two services to be operated for women only, being "Homefront" and the "Women's House".

The application for exemption is to enable the applicant to provide men only swimming sessions, out of normal operating hours, at the Ascot Vale Sports and Fitness Centre and to employ men only to staff the Centre during those sessions, and to advertise the provision of this service.

Upon reading the material submitted in support of the application and upon hearing submissions from Ms LeSueur, Mr Morrison and Mr Mohamed and for the Reasons for Decision given by the Tribunal on 28 August 2003, the Tribunal is satisfied that it is appropriate to grant an exemption from Sections 13, 42, 65, 100 and 195 of the Act to enable the applicant to provide men only swimming sessions, out of normal operating hours, at the Ascot Vale Sports and Fitness Centre and to employ men only to staff the Centre during those sessions, and to advertise the provision of this service
