Livestock Disease Control Act 1994

LIVESTOCK DISEASE CONTROL REGULATIONS 1995

Notice for Recording and Transmitting of Sale Information

I, Chloe Munro, Secretary to the Department of Primary Industries, in accordance with regulations 37F, 37G and 37I of the Livestock Disease Control Regulations 1995 ('the Regulations') specify the manner of the recording and the manner and method of transmission of sale information with effect from 23 January 2004 as follows:

1. For the purposes of regulations 37F and 37G of the Regulations —
 - (a) the approved manner of recording the sale information is by either electronic means or in a hard copy form, so that the sale information is correlated or cross referenced to each individual head of cattle; and
 - (b) the person nominated by the Secretary to be notified of the sale information is the administrator of the database system managed by Meat & Livestock Australia Limited for the purposes of the National Livestock Identification Scheme ('NLIS database system'); and
 - (c) the approved manner and method of transmission of the sale information is by —
 - (i) accessing the NLIS database system through the NLIS internet site located at www.nlis.com.au; and
 - (ii) sending the sale information electronically to the NLIS database system through the NLIS internet site in a form capable of being received and downloaded on to the NLIS database system.

Note: Section 94A of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 requires that records be available for inspection for a period of 7 years after the date of the sale or purchase.

2. For the purposes of regulation 37I of the Regulations —
 - (a) the approved manner of recording the sale information is by electronic means, so that the sale information is correlated or cross referenced to each individual head of cattle; and
 - (b) the person nominated by the Secretary to be notified of the sale information is the administrator of the database system managed by Meat & Livestock Australia Limited for the purposes of the National Livestock Identification Scheme;
 - (d) the approved manner and method of transmission of the sale information is by —
 - (i) accessing the NLIS database system through the NLIS internet site located at www.nlis.com.au; and
 - (ii) sending the sale information electronically to the NLIS database system through the NLIS internet site in a form capable of being received and downloaded on to the NLIS database system.

Note: Section 94A of the Livestock Disease Control Act 1994 requires that records be available for inspection for a period of 7 years after the date of the sale or purchase.
